Covering The Cardinals

Game Day

Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. Mail or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001–0888. All credentials are issued to individuals. Credentials are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379–1821)

Credential Delivery

Credentials will be delivered in the most expeditious manner. They are mailed if time allows. Otherwise, they may be claimed at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe, Arizona during normal working hours, or with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street) on game days. "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Sun Devil Stadium Media Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located at the southwest corner above the television parking pad for press already holding credentials. Media members who must claim credentials at "will call" may enter the stadium in the vicinity of the ticket office located at the south end of Sun Devil Stadium off Fifth Street.

Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for a recognized sports publication or news service. No freelance photographers are accommodated. Only network television and authorized game personnel are admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field. All credentialed grips and messengers must remain on the perimeter of the playing field.

Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting U.S. West Communications, 602/630–6314, for lines, and AT&T, 1–800/555–8111, for instruments.

Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling-off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials and a locker room pass which is distributed in the press box during the fourth quarter. Head Coach Vince Tobin and selected players will hold their post-game press conferences in an interview room located directly across the hall from the Cardinals' locker room. An interview tent is erected outside the back door of the visiting locker room for post-game interviews.

Locker Room Locations

NFL locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Arizona dressing room is the first room on the right; the visitors' dressing room is at the end of the hallway.

Press Box/Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no suitable path to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media are permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the northwest corner of the field. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after the game participants exit the playing field. Media members are asked not to attempt to interview game participants—players and coaches—as they exit the field.

Parking

Press parking at Sun Devil Stadium is located in two places. Some media members are accommodated with parking immediately southwest of the stadium along the railroad tracks. Other media parking is offered in the A.S.U. parking garage south of the stadium across Fifth Street.

FAX Service

Media requiring FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged for long-distance FAXing.

During The Week

General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve media needs, all members of the print and electronic press are asked to stop in the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility. All photographers must notify the public relations office of their presence prior to gaining access to the practice field. No tripods are allowed.

Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, Cardinal players typically are available to the media in the locker room during their lunch period. There is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside the locker room after the daily workouts and during prearranged appointments made through the public relations department.

Vince Tobin Interviews

Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout. On Mondays following games and Tuesdays, the players' off day, Tobin conducts an interview session in the public relations department. Contact the Cardinals' public relations staff to verify times.

Assistant Coaches/Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations department.

Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via conference call mid-week, usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's south side and continues today as owner and president.

The 68-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947. His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

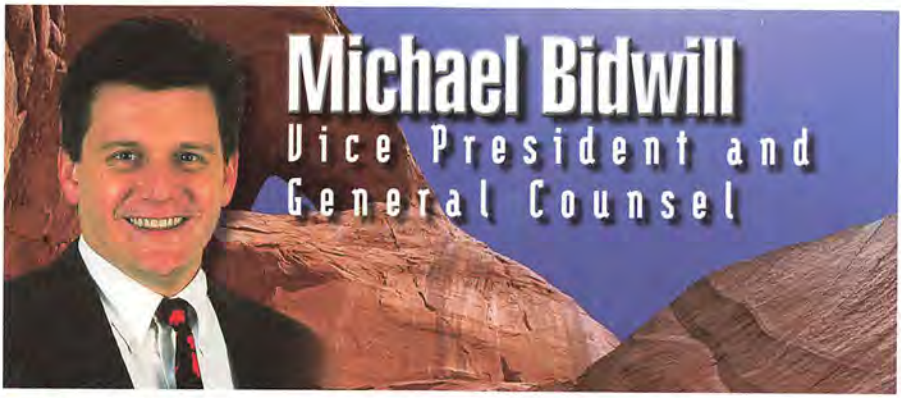
Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility that the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He also was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinal Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill currently is seated on the NFL Broadcasting Committee and co-chairs the NFL Retirement Board Trustees (Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Plans).

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children.



Michael Bidwill was named the Arizona Cardinals' vice president and general counsel in November of 1996 following six years as an assistant U.S. attorney in Arizona.

Besides his role as the team's chief legal officer, Bidwill has been serving as the club's liaison with community and elected officials to pursue a new home for the Cardinals.

Bidwill oversees many of the team's administrative functions and departments in the areas of broadcasting, charities, community relations, marketing, public relations, sales, and tickets.

During his six years as a federal prosecutor in Phoenix, Bidwill specialized in homicide and domestic abuse cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

He received seven letters of commendation from various law enforcement agencies, including one from U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno.

Additionally, Bidwill served as a lecturer at many Department of Justice and Department of Interior seminars and as a guest lecturer at Stanford Law School in the spring of 1996.

During his six years as a federal prosecutor, Bidwill remained involved with the Cardinals by tracking opponent offensive and defensive trends and schemes from the coaches' booth during games. He also participated in the interview process that led to Vince Tobin's selection as the team's head coach in February of 1996.

Bidwill's charity activities include chairing a commission for the Catholic Diocese of Phoenix and serving on an advisory committee for the East Valley Boys and Girls Clubs.

Bidwill's civic activities include serving on the boards of the Arizona Chamber of Commerce, East Valley Partnership, and Tempe Sports Authority.

He holds a 1987 bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University and a 1990 law degree from Catholic University Law School in Washington, D.C.

While a student in the nation's capital, he also served terms as president and secretary of the university's Sports Law Society.

Bidwill, who is single, was born December 6, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri. He resides in Tempe, Arizona.

Larry Wilson, one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, has enjoyed a career that spans 40 years as a player and front-office executive.

A 1978 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Wilson received another milestone honor in 1994 when he was named to the NFL's all-time team announced to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary.

A legendary defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960–72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973–76) and director of professional personnel (1977–88). He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

His current duties include responsibility for Cardinal Charities, special events, team travel, and training camp at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Arizona.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona, a position he held through the 1993 season. During that span, Wilson hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active part in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, took a prominent role in the team's draft decision making, and implemented an aggressive approach to free agency.

As a player, Wilson reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games—all as a Cardinal—from 1960–72. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book.

He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), and single-game interception return yardage (115).

Wilson's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on December 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history, and his 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia remains third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

He also held or shared the franchise record for career interception returns for touchdowns (five) until 1997 when current Cardinal cornerback Aeneas Williams tallied his sixth.

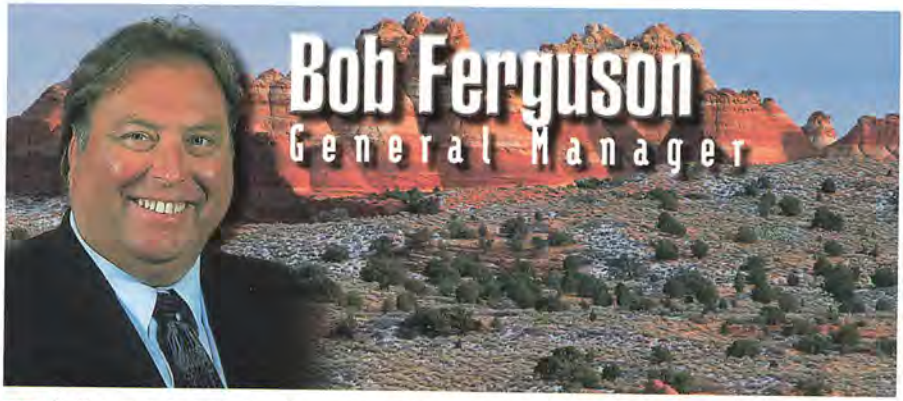
In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on October 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also holds the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on December 21, 1969. It was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in Card annals.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was a running back at the University of Utah. He was recruited to the Salt Lake City school by Ute assistant coach Andy Everest, father of Cardinal special-teams coach Al Everest.

Wilson was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1960 NFL Draft. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.



Bob Ferguson became the Cardinals' senior football official on May 1, 1999 when President Bill Bidwill promoted him to the newly-created position of general manager.

Ferguson's responsibilities include authority over football philosophy, player personnel, the coaching staff, pro and college scouting, the annual NFL Draft, and free agency.

Ferguson also is consulted by Bidwill on salary cap and player contract matters, along with Assistant to the President Rod Graves, who remains the team's primary contract negotiator, Vice President Bill Bidwill, Jr., who continues providing strategic financial planning on salary cap issues, and Player Personnel Administrator Jay Nienkark, who is the club's daily salary-cap administrator and support negotiator.

Ferguson, 48, is a 22-year veteran of various NFL positions. He has formed his philosophies from an impressive list of NFL head coaches with whom he has worked—Chuck Knox, Tom Landry, Marv Levy, Jack Patera, Wade Phillips, Mike Shanahan, and Bill Walsh.

Ferguson joined the Cardinals in February of 1996 following 11 seasons with two rising franchises, the Buffalo Bills and Denver Broncos.

He served as the Broncos' director of player personnel for three seasons prior to joining the Cardinals following eight seasons with the Bills in various personnel positions, including assistant general manager/director of pro personnel in 1989.

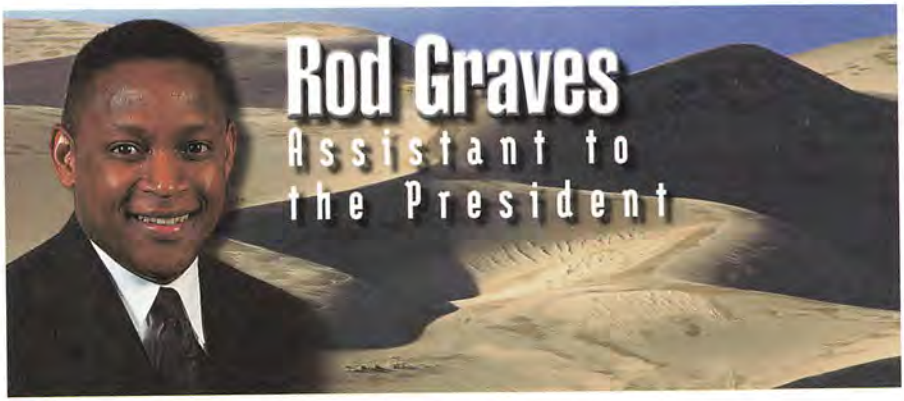
The Federal Way, Washington native began his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks as director of sales and special events from 1975–79 before moving into a scouting combine serving Buffalo, Dallas, San Francisco, and Seattle as an area scout from 1981–83.

He joined the Cowboys from 1984–85 to handle performance testing before moving to Buffalo.

Ferguson lettered three times at linebacker at the University of Washington, garnering second team all-Pac-8 Conference accolades as a junior and senior.

He earned a 1973 bachelor's degree in radio/television communications from the Seattle school before free-agent tryouts with the San Diego Chargers (1973), Los Angeles Rams (1974), and Portland Storm of the World Football League (1974).

Ferguson and his wife, Colleen, have three daughters—Vanessa, Nathalie, and Allison. They reside in Gilbert, Arizona.



Rod Graves begins his third season with the Cardinals as assistant to the president after 13 years in various personnel capacities with the Chicago Bears.

Graves joined the team in June of 1997 and was appointed to assume responsibility for the administration of the team's scouting department in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Graves, 40, also serves as the team's primary contract negotiator in addition to overseeing college and professional scouting efforts, assisting salary-cap management, and consulting on other business aspects of the football operation.

A native of Houston, Texas, Graves began his career in professional football personnel work in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. It was then he first crossed paths with Cardinals' Head Coach Vince Tobin, the Stars' defensive coordinator. In 1983, Graves was promoted to assistant director of player personnel.

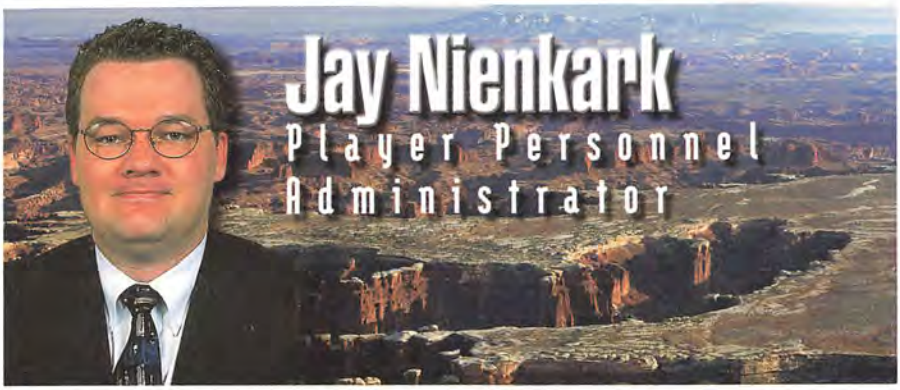
He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993, then director of player personnel in 1994.

During his tenure with the Bears, he worked for Bill Tobin, the team's director of player personnel and older brother of the Cards' head coach, along with three current Arizona assistant coaches—defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis, wide receivers coach Vic Rapp and running backs coach Johnny Roland.

Graves, who holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Texas Tech, is the son of the late Jackie Graves, the former assistant director of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Rod Graves is a past member of the NFL College Advisory Committee and the NFL World League Committee.

Graves resides in Phoenix.



Arizona Cardinals' "capologist" Jay Nienkark begins his eighth season with the team and his third in his current capacity as player personnel administrator after a five-year tenure as a staff assistant in the football personnel department.

He also serves as the Cards' training camp coordinator.

The 35-year-old Nienkark utilizes his management, accounting, and computer background to serve as a foundation for negotiating player contracts, salary cap projections, implementing analysis methods for salary and player information for the Cardinals and around the NFL, analyzing league rookie pool and free agency trends, and compliance with the NFL collective bargaining agreement and player personnel rules.

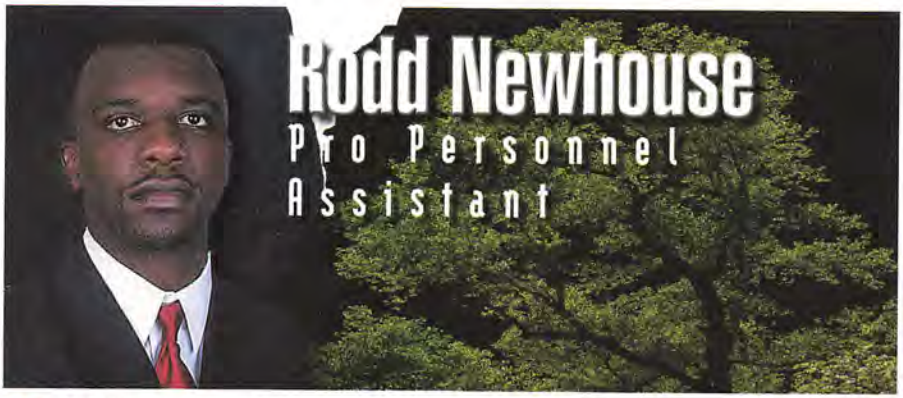
Nienkark also assisted in the design and implementation of the Cardinals' computerized professional scouting system.

Born and raised in Lost Nation, Iowa, population 500, Nienkark was forced to concentrate on baseball and basketball at Lost Nation H.S., a school too small to field a football team.

Nienkark later served in the U.S. Air Force from 1986–90. Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1992, Nienkark held positions with Lamson (Ariz.) Junior College, Valley National Bank, and the Circle K Corporation.

Nienkark holds an associate's degree in applied science in microcomputer operations from Lamson.

He lives in Chandler, Arizona with his wife, Julie.●



Rodd Newhouse begins his first season with the Cardinals as the club's pro personnel assistant, responsible for overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, providing input into the club's personnel evaluation and decision-making process, and handling matters involving the waiver procedure and free agent signings.

Following his collegiate football career as a running back at Rice University where he earned degrees in economics, managerial studies, and sports management, Newhouse signed briefly as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998.

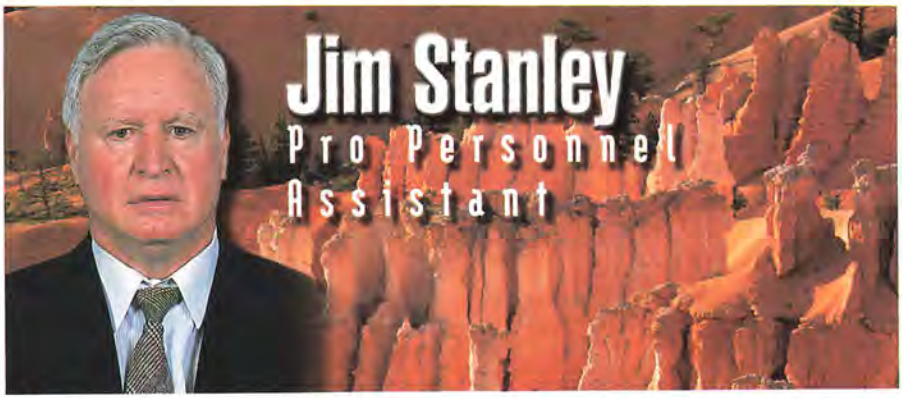
In the spring and fall of 1998, he worked for the Dallas Cowboys as an assistant to his father, Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' player programs director, who played for Dallas from 1972–83 and was a member of three Super Bowl teams. The younger Newhouse facilitated various player community programs and monitored career development opportunities.

Since the fall of 1998, Newhouse has worked with the National Football League Management Council, NFL Properties (the league's marketing arm), and NFL Security.

As a member of the Management Council staff, Newhouse worked in the area of player programs and labor relations where he helped develop programs in continuing education and financial and career advancement for NFL players, spouses, and their families. He also helped monitor the league's salary cap reconciliation through analysis of contract negotiations and legalities as it pertained to the collective bargaining agreement, and was responsible for preparation of the data base for players obtained by the new Cleveland Browns' franchise via the expansion draft.

As a collegian at Rice, Newhouse gained 484 yards rushing and scored two touchdowns on 95 carries in 44 games (14 starts). He also caught five passes for 135 yards, including a career-long 62-yarder against Ohio State as a junior, and returned seven kickoffs for 114 yards.

Born May 21, 1975 in Dallas, Newhouse, a nationally-ranked pool player as a teenager, attended Lake Highlands High School in Dallas.●



Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (O.S.U.), begins his fourth season in scouting after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983–84, he compiled a 22–14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12–6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He spent 1979 and '80 as defensive line coach for the New York Giants and Atlanta Falcons, respectively.

As the six-year (1973–78) head coach at OSU, the Cowboys posted a 35–33–2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9–3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at O.S.U.

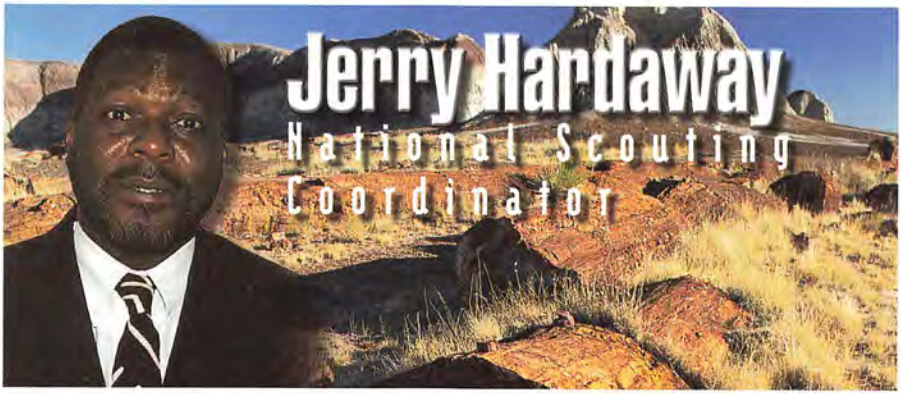
Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971–72), the U.S. Naval Academy (1969–70), and O.S.U. (1963–68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959–60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew.



Jerry Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, was promoted to the newly-created position of national scouting coordinator in May, 1999.

In his new capacity, Hardaway will expand his scouting expertise to the entire nation, cross-checking evaluations of the rest of the Cardinals' scouting staff and offering additional study of top collegiate players.

Hardaway, 47, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 11th season with the Cardinals.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984–86) where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978–83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49–14–4 composite record and four conference championships.

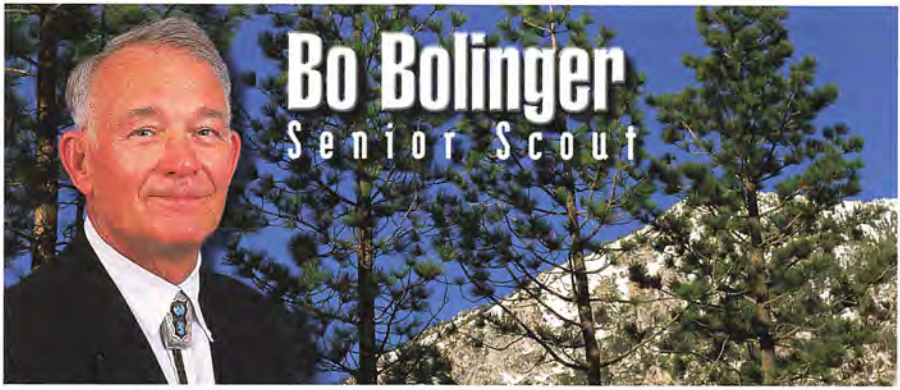
Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975–77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tennessee in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, California prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason (12), and a daughter, Jheri (10). They reside in Cary, N.C.●



Long-time Cardinal scout Bo Bolinger, a 28-year member of the Cardinals' organization and the team's director of college scouting from 1994–97, assumed a new title of senior scout in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Bolinger, a former all-America guard at Oklahoma, evaluates college talent nationally.

Bolinger primarily had been responsible for collegiate scouting in the West during his early days on the Cards' staff.

Before joining the Cardinals in 1971, Bolinger coached on the collegiate level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League (C.F.L.).

A 1956 draft choice of the Chicago Cardinals, Bolinger played nine games of the 1956 season for the C.F.L. Edmonton Eskimos before returning to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, as a graduate assistant.

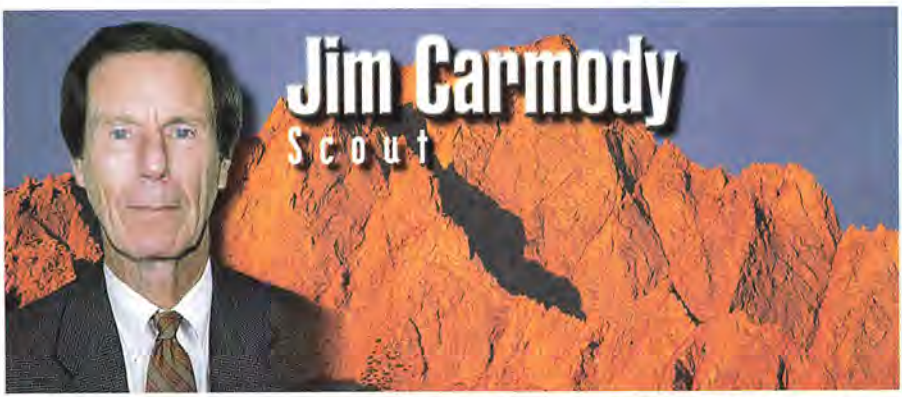
After spending the 1957 season as head coach at Miami (Okla.) High School, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at the University of Denver from 1958–60. He accepted the defensive coordinator's post at Tulsa the following season, handling that role for two years.

In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as offensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the C.F.L.

As a collegian at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned consensus all-America recognition in 1955 when he captained the Sooners' national championship team that led the nation in rushing and total offense. Bolinger finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1955. He also was named all-Big Eight Conference twice.

Bolinger holds a bachelor's degree in history from Oklahoma.

The 66-year-old Bolinger, a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma, and his wife, Barbara, reside in Tempe, Arizona. They have three grown daughters—Sharon, Susan, and Sandra—and four grandchildren.●



Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his fifth season as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carmody, 60, completed a three-year (1992–94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994, his second stint at Ole Miss.

Before rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961–62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964–66.

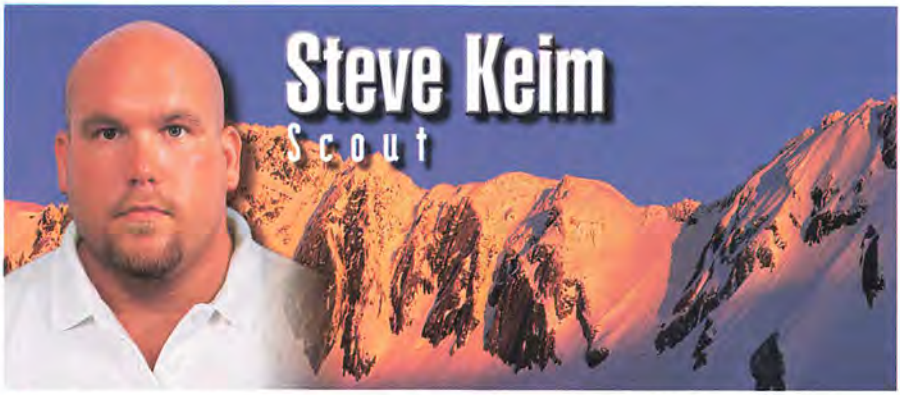
He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967–73, and the defensive line (1974–77) at Ole Miss before the Rebels promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975–77). He later spent 1978–80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37–29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6–3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989–90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris.●



Steve Keim enters his first season with the Cardinals, after joining the club in May as a regional scout.

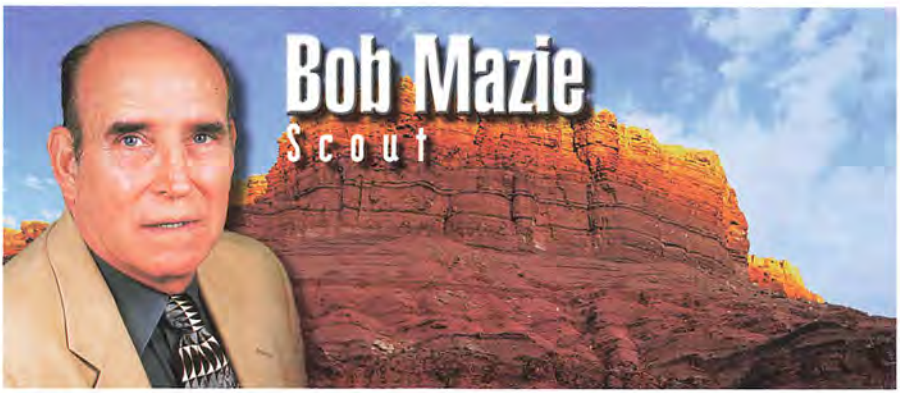
His area of responsibility will focus on the Eastern region previously handled by Jerry Hardaway, who recently was named the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, Pennsylvania and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League.

He recently served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater the past two year, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Born September 8, 1972, Keim resides in Raleigh, North Carolina.



Bob Mazie, with 35 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his sixth year as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh, Pa. from 1958–63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1965–66 as an assistant coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State, the first of two stints at the Weatherford, Oklahoma school, prior to a five-year tour (1967–71) at Southern Illinois (S.I.U.) as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter was the Cards' offensive line coach from 1996–97.

Mazie left S.I.U. to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6–4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972–75, first as an assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season record of 1,992 passing yards.

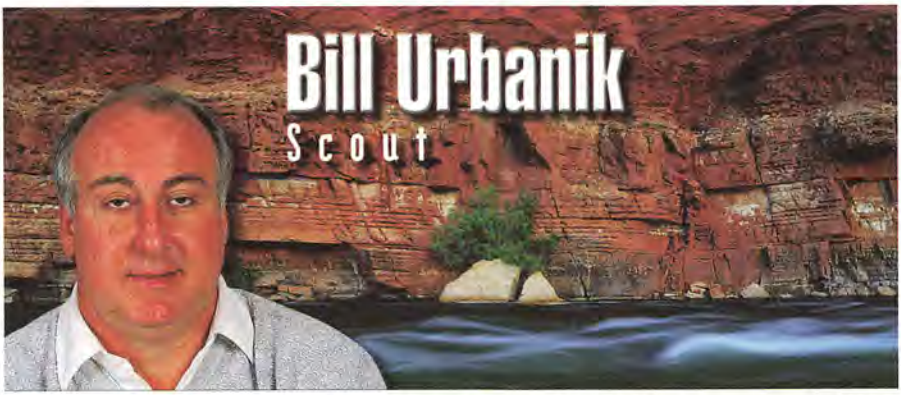
Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1978, compiling a 38–38–2 (.500) composite slate over eight seasons that would have read 44–32–2 (.577) but a player ruled ineligible at the end of the 1981 season dropped that year's 9–2 record to 3–8. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense six times (1978–79, '82–83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference and all-state at tight and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, playing for the U.S. Army service team, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961–62, and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters and a son. They have 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.●



Bill Urbanik, 29-year coaching and front-office veteran, has been named to the Arizona Cardinals' scouting staff.

His area of responsibility will focus on the Western region previously handled by Cole Proctor, who recently was hired by the Tennessee Titans for a similar position.

Urbanik, 52, spent eight years in the Oakland/Los Angeles Raiders' organization, including the past four seasons in coaching and personnel.

Urbanik's coaching career began in 1970 as a student assistant at Ohio State, where he was a three-year letterman under legendary Head Coach Woody Hayes and a two-time honorable mention all-Big Ten Conference defensive tackle. He also was an academic all-America in 1969 and a member of the Buckeyes' 1968 national championship team.

He served as offensive line coach at Marshall for two seasons (1971-72) while earning his master's degree before becoming head coach of Rogers Clark High School in Winchester, Kentucky in 1973. Urbanik returned to Marshall in 1974 as defensive line coach.

Following three years as defensive coordinator at Northern Illinois (1975-77), Urbanik moved to Wake Forest as defensive line and special teams coach (1978-83).

In 1984, Urbanik received his first NFL position as the Cincinnati Bengals' defensive line coach, where he remained for five seasons (1984-88) before two campaigns (1989-90) as the Los Angeles Raiders' defensive line coach.

Following two years as a Raider scout (1991-92), Urbanik spent two seasons as defensive coordinator of the Sacramento Gold Miners (1993-94) of the Canadian Football League before returning to the Raiders in player personnel from 1995-96. He served a second stint as the Raiders' defensive line coach in 1997 before returning to personnel in 1998.

Urbanik, a native of Donora, Pennsylvania, resides in Westlake Village, California with wife Martha and son Urson.●

John Omohundro begins his 33rd season with the Cardinals and his 29th campaign as the team's head trainer. Only Fred Zamberletti (Vikings) and Kent Falb (Lions) boast longer NFL tenures than Omohundro.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, enjoyed a memorable 1993 season when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Gene Freese, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, and performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961–62. He spent 1962–65 in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

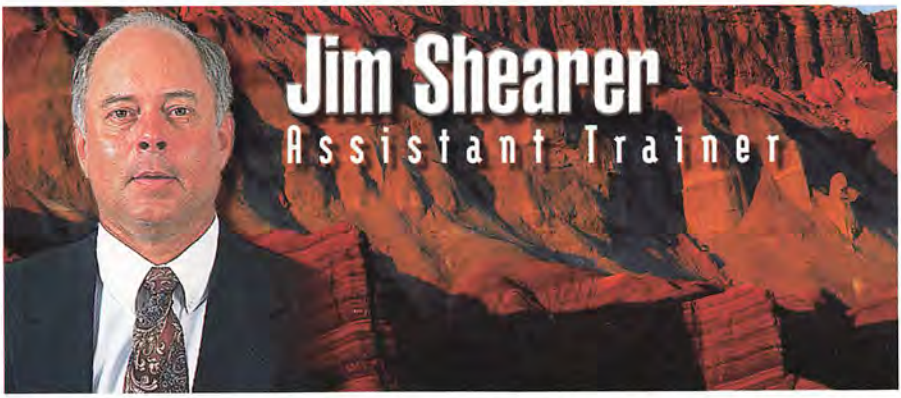
He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967–70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976–82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former chairman of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

Omohundro, 56, wife Martha, sons John (25) and Jim (23), and daughter Neely (18), reside in Tempe, Arizona.

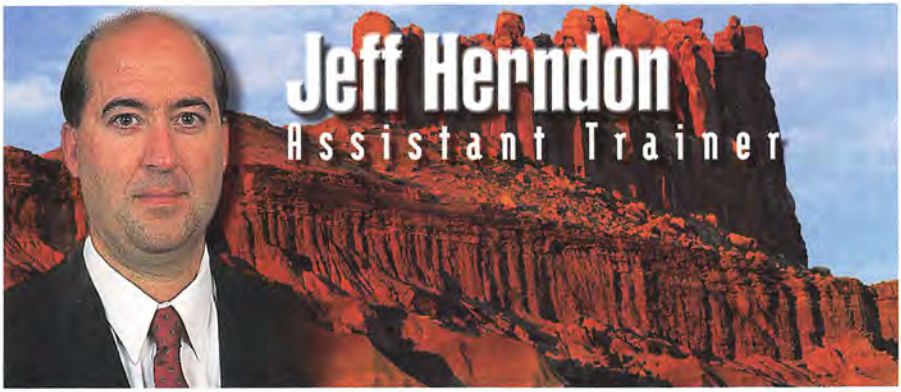


Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 26th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973–74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (22), and a daughter, Sarah (18). They reside in Tempe, Arizona. ●



Jeff Herndon enters his 14th season on the Cardinals' training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

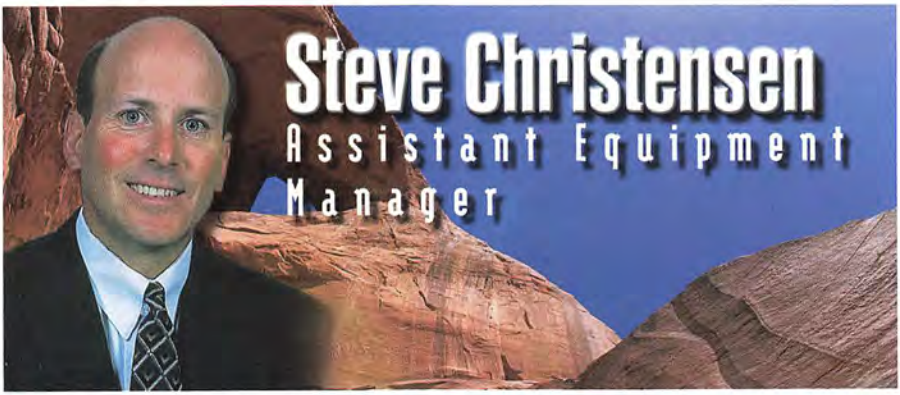
A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 38-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985–86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elsabeth Marie (6). ●

Mark Ahlemeier enters his 13th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding 21-year equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987. He had served as Simmons' assistant for six years.

Ahlemeier, 41, was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Patti, have three children—daughters Mandy (12) and Molly (3), and son Mark (8). They live in Tempe, Arizona.



Steve Christensen enters his 12th year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 40-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

The father of one daughter, Kelsey (7), Christensen resides in Chandler, Arizona.

The 1999 season marks Benny Greenberg's 34th year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 73, owned and operated photography stores until the team's move to Arizona in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work for the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons, Mark and Barry, and four grandchildren.

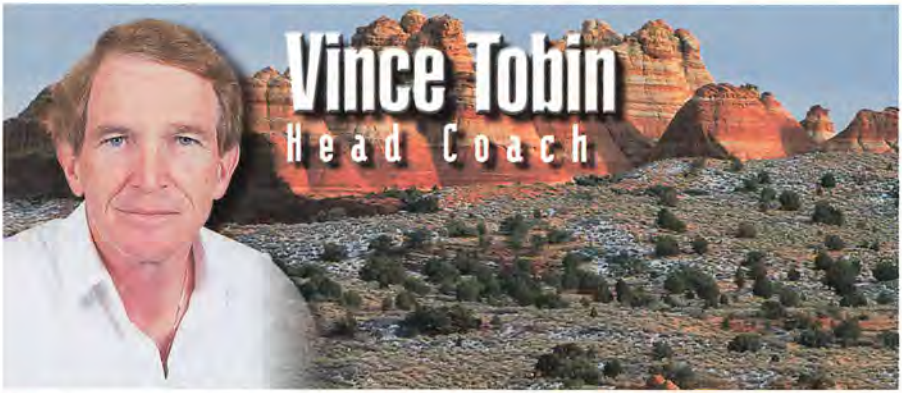
Coaches



Small-town roots. Big-time success. That's Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Vince Tobin.

A product of the small northwest Missouri farming community of Burlington Junction—population 634—Tobin was named the Cardinals' 35th head coach on February 7, 1996.

He arrived in the Grand Canyon State for his first head-coaching position in 1996 armed with respect around the National Football League after coordinating two of the league's finest defenses at Indianapolis and Chicago.

His dossier also included Midwestern breadbasket values—humility, dignity, family, character, dedication, work ethic, and religion.

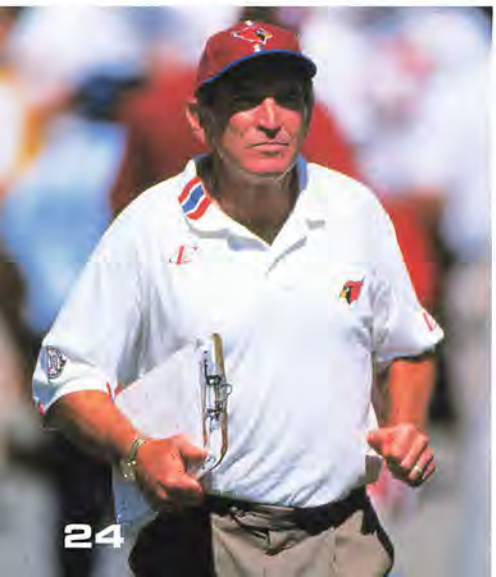
Revival

It took Tobin's steady hand just three seasons to snap the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years when his 1998 Cardinals made the franchise's first postseason appearance since 1982 (its first in a non-strike season since 1975), posted its first postseason victory since 1947, a head-turning 20–7 wild-card triumph at Dallas, and registered the team's first winning season since 1984 with its first 10-victory campaign since 1976.

The season perhaps will best be remembered for its harrowing endings. Seven of the Cards' nine regular-season victories were achieved by three points or less, an NFL record. Four of the seven successes came on game-ending field goals by two different kickers.

Tobin handled the success and energized the community with the same character and grace he displayed during his first two rebuilding seasons. He revived the 4–12 Cardinal squad he inherited in 1996, rallying it from the growing pains of an 0–3 start to a 7–9 record with improvement and promise in evidence in every direction. His resolve and course were sorely tested in 1997 when his second Cardinal squad lost six of nine games decided in the final minute or overtime en route to an exciting but exasperating 4–12 record.

He enters 1999 as the only NFC East Division head coach to author a postseason victory.



Small-Town Roots

Tobin learned life lessons as only a farm can teach. He milked cows before dawn. He baled hay. He tended cattle. He slept in an unheated bedroom. He and his six brothers and sisters never missed church. Chores preceded sports and other activities in the family pecking order.

Burlington Junction's streets did not have names. It didn't have high school football, either, so Tobin and his older brother by two years, Bill, former front-office executive with the Chicago Bears and Indianapolis Colts, commuted over 30 miles round trip to attend Maryville High School—the Spoofhounds—in order to participate in the sport that would shape their lives as adults.

Mizzou

Both eventually earned scholarships to the University of Missouri—Bill as a star running back, Vince as an undersized, overachieving defensive back.

Vince Tobin arrived in Columbia, Missouri in 1961 on a partial football scholarship. After Mizzou varsity Head Coach Dan Devine watched Tobin tackle Kansas Jayhawk running back and future NFL Hall of Famer Gale Sayers three times in the open field during a freshmen game, Tobin had earned a full scholarship.

He also learned how to win. During his four seasons in the Missouri program, the Tigers posted a 28–9–4 composite record. As a starter in 1963–64, Tobin helped Mizzou post back-to-back 7–3 and 6–3–1 campaigns while earning a bachelor's degree in education.

After contemplating the priesthood, Tobin opted for a coaching career, beginning his 29-year journey to the Cardinals at his alma mater in 1965 as a graduate assistant, a position that also eventually led to a master's degree in guidance and counseling. He remained at Missouri as a defensive assistant through the 1976 season, serving as defensive coordinator the final six years.

Coaching stops in the Canadian Football League (British Columbia Lions, 1977–82), the U.S. Football League (Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars, 1983–85), and the National Football League (Chicago Bears, 1986–92; Indianapolis Colts, 1994–95) followed. All told, he served as a defensive coordinator for 18 professional seasons. His teams produced non-losing records in 16 of those 18 campaigns.

Tobin's C.F.L. defenses ranked second overall during his six-year tenure. His USFL schemes helped the Stars rank first defensively in 1983–84 and second in '85 while allowing the fewest points all three seasons. En route, the Stars, coached by Jim Mora, future head coach of the New Orleans Saints and Indianapolis Colts, reached the USFL championship game each season, winning the title the final two times.

Da Bears

As Chicago's defensive coordinator, Tobin tutored a Bears' defense that set an NFL record for fewest points in a 16-game season (187, 1986). His '86 Chicago unit topped the league by allowing just 258 yards total offense per contest. The 1987 Bears ranked first in rushing defense (94.2

yards per game) while holding six opponents under 10 points. The 1988 Bears surrendered the league's fewest points (215) and sported the best rushing defense (82.9 yards per game). Tobin also earned victories over Tampa Bay and Washington in '88 as Chicago's interim head coach for the ailing Mike Ditka.

The Colts

Tobin worked his magic again in Indianapolis in 1994–95, overseeing a Colt defense that was a principal cog in an Indianapolis resurgence. The Colts finished 9–7 during the 1995 regular season before defeating San Diego (35–20) and Kansas City (10–7) in the first two rounds of post-season play. They narrowly missed a trip to Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium in a 20–16 loss to Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game.

Tobin earned credit for rebuilding the Colts' defense. The 1993 unit he inherited ranked last (28th) in overall defense. Tobin's first Indianapolis group improved to 20th in 1994 and tied for seventh with Carolina in 1995 at 314.2 yards per game.

In the four seasons prior to Tobin's arrival, the Colts' defense finished 24th or lower against the run. In 1994, Tobin's first Indianapolis defense ranked 12th against the rush, then improved further to sixth in 1995 at 91.1 yards per game, the second-lowest figure in team history. It also was just the third time in Colt history the opposition averaged less than 100 yards per game on the ground.

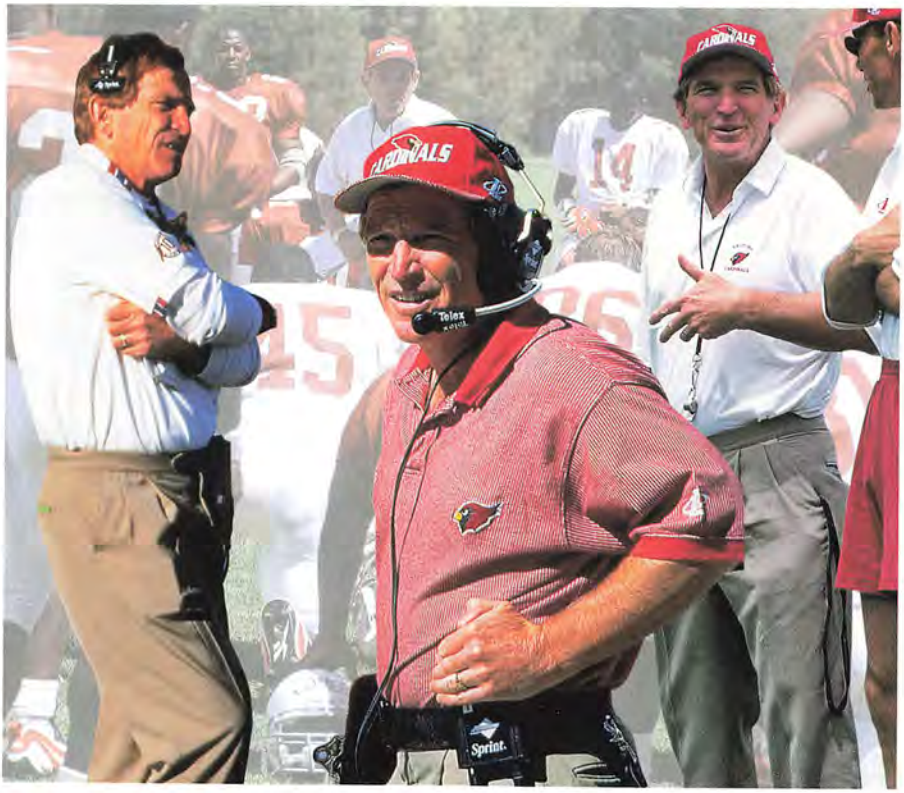
In scoring defense, the Colts improved to 14th (tie) and fifth (19.8), respectively, in 1994 and '95 after ranking 27th in 1993.

Over his last two seasons in Indianapolis, Tobin's defensive unit did not allow an individual to rush for 100 yards in 24 consecutive games (final 13 games of 1994, first 11 games of 1995).

His 1994 Colt defense also boasted the lowest red-zone touchdown percentage (40) in the NFL and did not allow a touchdown at home in the final three games of the season.

Personal

Born September 29, 1943, Tobin is married to the former Kathy Kautzman of Sidney, Montana. They have two children—son Ryan (Aug. 4, 1979), a student at the University of Colorado, and daughter Shannon (Dec. 28, 1981), a high-school student at Xavier Prep in Phoenix.●



Dave McGinnis
Defensive Coordinator

Dave McGinnis, a 26-year coaching veteran, begins his fourth year as the Cardinals' defensive coordinator in his third stint on a Vince Tobin coaching staff.

His 1998 Cardinal defense, fielding 11 different starting lineups in 16 regular-season games, finished with three rookie or first-year starters (end Andre Wadsworth, tackle Rashod Swinger, and cornerback Corey Chavous) and only four 16-game starters (safety Tommy Bennett, cornerback Aeneas Williams, linebacker Jamir Miller, and end Simeon Rice). The unit helped lead the Cardinals into postseason play with 39 takeaways, trailing only NFC champion Atlanta (44) and Seattle (42) and nearly doubling Arizona's total from the previous season.

In 1997, the Cards' third-down success on defense was noteworthy. Arizona's defenders held opponents to just 76 third-down conversions, second in the NFC to Tampa Bay (75), and allowed only one conversion in 27 third-and-long (11 or more yards) tries.

Consequently, the '97 Cardinal defense forced more punts—94—than all but three other teams (Detroit-97, Dallas-95, and Washington-95), and 36 percent more than in 1996 (69 punts).

In addition, Arizona's defense yielded only 4.85 yards per pass on third down, an improvement of over a yard and one-half compared to 1996 (6.46 yards per third-down passing play).

McGinnis' first year (1996) at the Cardinals' defensive controls produced a unit that climbed from 26th overall in 1995 to 21st in 1996, allowed nine fewer touchdowns, and fought its way from last in the NFL against the run (140.6 yards per game) in '95 to 21st (116.4) in '96. In addition, Card opponents gained almost one full yard less per rushing attempt than in 1995 (4.5–3.6) as eight of 16 Arizona opponents failed to crack 100 yards rushing.

McGinnis spent 10 seasons (1986–95) as linebackers coach with the Chicago Bears, a span that included nine playoff games. In his decade with the Bears, the Chicago defense ranked among the top six teams in fewest yards allowed seven times as McGinnis was part of a defensive staff that led the NFL in fewest points allowed in 1986 (NFL-record low of 187) and 1988 and ranked first or second in total defense from 1986–88.

In addition, McGinnis coached Pro Bowl players at all three linebacker positions—outside linebackers Otis Wilson and Wilber Marshall, and middle linebacker Mike Singletary, a 1998 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee who made the Pro Bowl every season under McGinnis' tutelage.

The two players—Dante Jones and Joe Cain—who replaced Singletary following his retirement led the Bears in tackles the next three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, McGinnis spent 13 years coaching at the major-college level. His first assignment was as freshmen coach at his alma mater, Texas Christian University (T.C.U.), in 1973–74. In 1975, he moved to Missouri to coach the linebackers and secondary for Tobin, the Tigers' defensive coordinator. After spending the 1978–81 seasons at Indiana State as secondary coach, McGinnis returned to T.C.U. in 1982 for one season as defensive backfield coach before joining Kansas State as defensive ends and linebackers coach from 1983–85.

McGinnis was a three-time letterman (1970–72) and two-year starter (1971–72) at defensive back at T.C.U. where he earned academic all-Southwest Conference honors twice (1971–72). His five interceptions as a junior tied for the conference lead.

He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Christian.

Born August 7, 1951 in Independence, Kansas, McGinnis attended Snyder High School in west Texas. He resides in Phoenix with his wife, Kim.

Marc Trestman begins his second season as the Arizona Cardinals offensive coordinator.

Trestman, 43, owns a dossier of 11 seasons in the National Football League with Detroit (1997), San Francisco (1995–96), Minnesota (1985–86, '90–91), Cleveland (1988–89), and Tampa Bay (1987) in addition to Arizona (1998).

In 1998, his first Cardinal offense scored 325 points and 37 touchdowns, both club bests since 1993. Included were 18 rushing touchdowns, bettering the combined totals of the two previous seasons (eight in 1996, nine in 1997).

As Trestman's new offensive system began to jell over the final eight regular-season games, the '98 Cardinals averaged 25 points and 392.5 yards per outing.

During his two seasons as offensive coordinator under San Francisco Head Coach George Seifert (1995–96), the 49ers' offense featured the NFL's highest-rated quarterback in Steve Young and the league's leading receiver in Jerry Rice. In 1995, Trestman guided a 49ers offense that led the NFL in scoring and passing, and ranked second in total offense.

Trestman began his coaching career as the offensive backfield coach on Bud Grant's Minnesota staff in 1985. After two years with the Vikings, he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as quarterbacks coach before moving to Cleveland where he coached quarterbacks in 1988 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1989 when the Browns reached the AFC Championship Game against Denver.

Trestman rejoined the Vikings in 1990 for a two-year stint as quarterbacks coach, then left football from 1992–94 to pursue a career in investment banking before his invitation from Seifert to join the 49ers.

A native of St. Louis Park, Minnesota, Trestman began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at the University of Miami in 1982 while attending law school. During his first season with the Hurricanes, he worked with two redshirt quarterbacks—Bernie Kosar and Vinny Testaverde. The following season he was promoted to quarterbacks coach when the Hurricanes won the national championship.

Trestman played quarterback at the University of Minnesota from 1974–76 after earning high school all-America honors. After completing his college career at Moorhead (Minn.) State University, he signed as a free agent defensive back with the Minnesota Vikings in 1978 and '79. The Vikings released him during training camp both seasons.

An owner of a bachelor's degree in political science from Minnesota, Trestman also earned a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Miami. He has been a member of the Florida Bar Association since 1982.

Trestman, his wife Cindy, and their daughters, Sarahanne (7) and Chloe (5), reside in Phoenix.

Cardinals' special teams coach Alan "Al" Everest took a circuitous route to his first coaching position in the National Football League.

The product of a football family, Everest arrived in Arizona for the 1996 season armed with 25 years coaching experience—the Canadian Football League (C.F.L.), Italian Professional Football League, Arena Football League (A.F.L.), and the Pro Spring Football League (PSFL)—as well as domestic and foreign experience at the college and high school levels.

In 1998, kickers Joe Nedney and Chris Jacke booted four game-winning, final-play field goals. Only 7.4 percent (six punts, 81 touchbacks) of Scott Player's punts were touchbacks to rank third in the NFC.

In 1997, Card special teams again were a team positive. Kevin Williams returned 59 kickoffs for 1,458 yards, both team records, for a 24.7-yard average return, the best by a regular Card kick returner since 1975. Williams also set a Card single-season record with 1,920 combined kick return yards. Punter Jeff Feagles ranked second in the NFL in net punting average (36.8 yards), and his 44.3-yard gross average was the Cards' best since 1991. Nedney recorded 16 touchbacks (35 kickoffs) to better the combined Arizona team total of 11 the previous three seasons.

Everest's first season in Arizona, 1996, brought marked special-teams improvement. Kicker Kevin Butler set a franchise single-season field-goal accuracy record of 82.4 percent (14–17). Feagles matched his 43.8-yard average that sent him to the Pro Bowl in 1995, and rookie Leeland McElroy's 54 kickoff returns for 1,148 yards ranked second in Cardinal history.

Everest served as special-teams coordinator for Head Coach Jack Pardee of the C.F.L. Birmingham Barracudas in 1995. His special-teams units ranked among league leaders and were instrumental in the club's 10–8 record and a berth in the C.F.L. playoffs in their inaugural season.

During four years (1988–90, 1993) at the professional level in Italy, Everest, the defensive coordinator, helped lead the Legnano Frogs to two national championships in three Italian title-game appearances and a combined record of 57–9. The Frogs won the European championship in 1989. Everest spent a fifth season in Italy as head coach of the Pesaro Angels in 1991.

Everest began coaching in 1972 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Southern Methodist, under defensive coordinator Bum Phillips. After two seasons as a graduate assistant at North Texas (1973–74) and as defensive backs coach at Cameron (Okla.) University (1974–75), Everest spent the next five years as athletic director at the American School Foundation in Mexico City where he developed the largest and most successful athletic program in the world for an accredited institution outside the United States. He served as head football coach, posting a 46–7 composite record and winning one national championship.

Seven seasons (1981–87) as head baseball coach at U.S. International, where he led the school to its first winning season at the NCAA Division I level, and his tour in the Italian Football League preceded his involvement in the Pro Spring Football League, the first (1991) as a league talent scout under Walt Michaels, the second (1992) as secondary coach for Arkansas Miners Head Coach Darryl Rogers, the former head coach at Arizona State University.

When the PSFL folded in 1992, Everest served as offensive coordinator on Head Coach Dick Nolan's staff with the San Antonio Force of the A.F.L.

Everest spent the next two seasons (1993–94) at Colony High School in Lewisville, Texas, helping lead the school to its first undefeated season and playoff appearance.

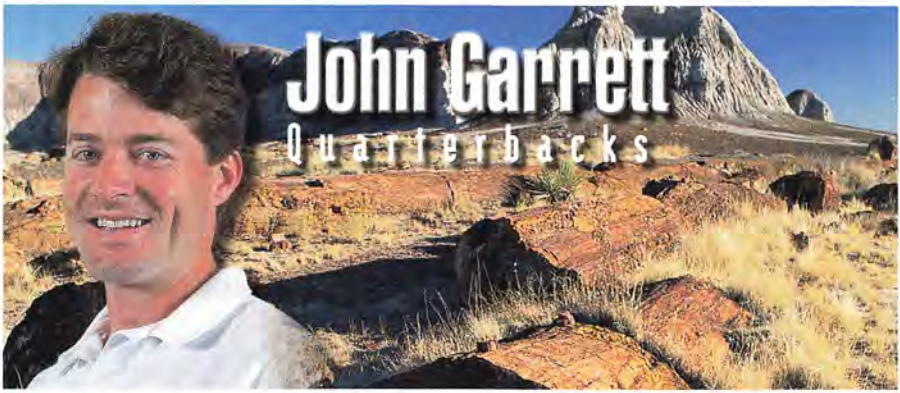
Everest's father, Andy, coached football for over 40 years, including three years with his son in Italy. In addition to American collegiate stops at Stanford, Utah, California-Santa Barbara, Southern Methodist, and North Texas, the elder Everest also served as athletic director for three years and as an assistant on Head Coach Phillips' staff with the New Orleans Saints. The senior Everest also recruited future Cardinal Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson to Utah.

Everest's two brothers—Tom (Cal Poly) and Andy (North Texas)—also played college football.

Born August 22, 1950 in El Paso, Texas, Everest attended San Marcos High School. He was a two-year starter at free safety for Head Coach Hayden Fry at Southern Methodist in 1970–71.

Everest holds a doctorate of education (U.S. International), a master's degree (North Texas), and a bachelor's degree (Southern Methodist).

He and his wife, Melissa "Lee," who was raised in Phoenix, have two daughters, Michelle Katherine (Dec. 10, 1988) and Kaycee Fae (April 11, 1996).●



Former Cincinnati Bengals' assistant coach John Garrett begins his first season with the Cardinals as the team's new quarterbacks coach.

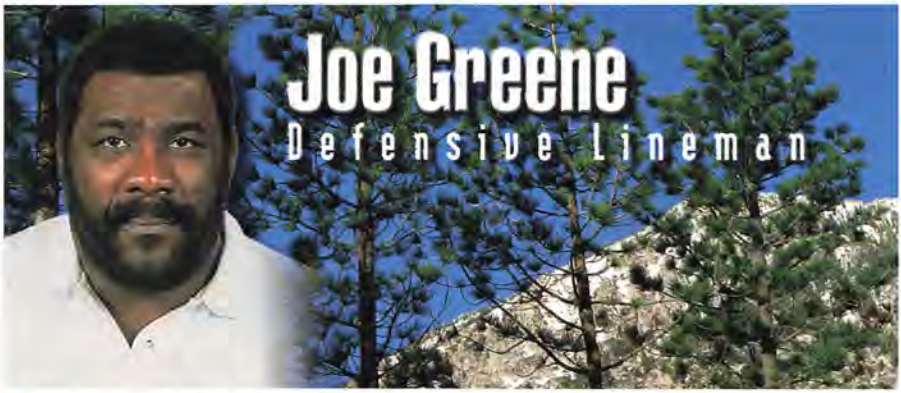
Garrett, who replaces Geep Chryst, the San Diego Chargers' new offensive coordinator, also has responsibility for the Cardinals' offensive quality control.

Garrett, 34, a Bengal assistant the past four years, served as an offensive staff assistant for Cincinnati Head Coach Bruce Coslet and offensive coordinator Ken Anderson the past two seasons. Among his responsibilities were tutoring the Bengals' wide receivers, a group that included standouts Carl Pickens and Darnay Scott, assisting Anderson with Cincinnati's quarterbacks, and overseeing the team's quality-control operation.

A former Bengals wide receiver with three years experience as a pro personnel assistant at Tampa Bay (1992–94), Garrett comes from a football background. His father, Jim, played pro football and coached in the NFL from 1970–84. Younger brother, Jason, has been a quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys for the past seven seasons. Brother, Judd, a former running back for Dallas and in the Canadian Football League, is an offensive assistant for the New Orleans Saints.

John Garrett played collegiately at Columbia and Princeton, where he earned his bachelor's degree. After playing for the Bengals as a free agent in 1989, he was one of the top receivers in the World League in 1991 for the San Antonio Riders. He also was with the Buffalo Bills in 1991.

Garrett and his wife, Honor, have three children—son John Morgan, and daughters Honor and Olivia.●



Charles Edward Greene, known as "Mean Joe" Greene to a generation of football fans and a member of the NFL's all-time team named in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary, is the Arizona Cardinals' fourth-year defensive line coach.

Greene, one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the National Football League, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 to cap his legendary 13-year playing career (1969–81). He was considered the heart of Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense that led the Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. A perennial all-pro tackle for the Steelers who recorded 66 quarterback sacks during his career, Greene was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight consecutively from 1970–77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s."

Greene's defensive linemen, despite two rookie or first-year starters most of the season (end Andre Wadsworth and tackle Rashod Swinger) contributed 29 of Arizona's 39 sacks to the cause in 1998 as the Cardinals charged into territory very familiar to the former Steeler great—NFL postseason play! (The 39 sacks were the Cardinals' best effort since 1988.) The group also was credited with 15 deflected passes.

In 1997, unsung defensive tackle Mark Smith, a seventh-round draft choice from Auburn, surprised with six quarterback sacks to lead all NFL rookie interior linemen. Tackle Bernard Wilson's 66-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. the Eagles on November 2 was the longest six-point pickoff return by a defensive lineman in Cardinal history. And tackle Eric Swann continued his dominant play by registering a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, or deflected pass in 12 of his 13 appearances.

Two of Greene's Cardinal students—Swann and defensive end Simeon Rice—earned numerous post-season accolades in 1996 as Arizona improved from 26th to 21st in total defense from 1995, and from last to 21st against the run. Swann earned his second Pro Bowl berth and assorted all-star honors. Rice was the NFL's runaway defensive rookie-of-the-year, tied a league rookie record for quarterback sacks with 12.5 (Leslie O'Neil, San Diego, 1985), and was voted a Pro Bowl alternate.

Greene is a 12-season NFL coaching veteran. He tutored the Miami Dolphins' defensive line for four seasons (1992–95) following five campaigns (1987–91) as the Pittsburgh Steelers' defensive line coach. During Greene's tenure on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, the Steelers were the AFC's top-rated team in giveaway-takeaway ratio. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five AFC teams in run defense four of Greene's five seasons while also leading the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 1990.

In Miami in 1994, the Dolphins set a club record by allowing only 89.4 yards per game rushing to rank second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL.

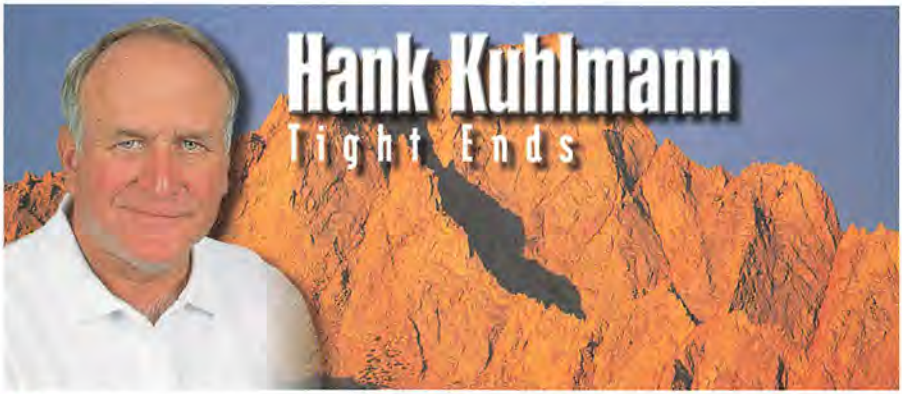
In addition to his numerous awards for accomplishments on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca-Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. The spot recently was named the seventh-best television commercial of all time by TV Guide.

Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area before rejoining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State (now known as the University of North Texas) in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft. He earned NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year honors the following season.

Greene also has served on his alma mater's board of trustees.

Born September 24, 1946 in Elgin, Texas, Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three grown children—sons Major and Delon, who both played football at North Texas, and daughter Joquel.●



Former Cardinal assistant coach and interim head coach Hank Kuhlmann returned to the team following the 1997 season to coach tight ends after four seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (three as special-teams coach).

Kuhlmann, 61, served as the Cards' running backs coach under Head Coach Gene Stallings from 1986–89, and succeeded Stallings as the club's interim head coach for the final five games of the '89 season.

In 1990, he served as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

In 1998, his first season back in the Cards' nest, Kuhlmann's impressive pair of tight ends, Johnny McWilliams and Chris Gedney, combined to catch 48 passes for 555 yards and five touchdowns.

Kuhlmann owns 34 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels.

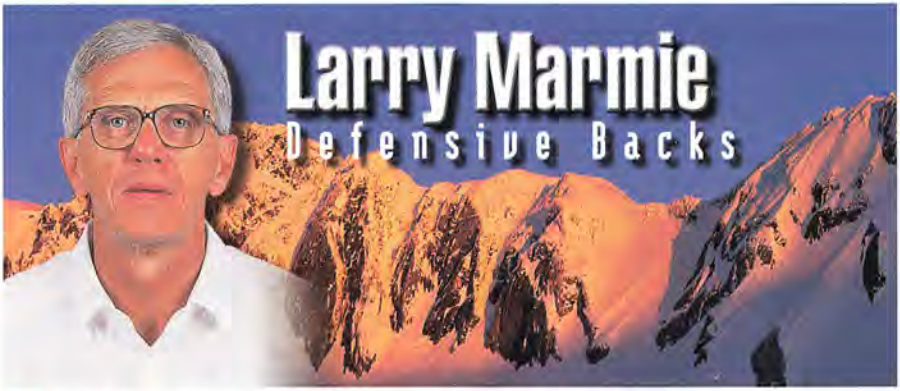
He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Missouri, as freshman coach from 1962–65 before being promoted to running backs coach through the 1971 season.

He received his first professional assignment as special-teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1972–74, then joined Head Coach Dan Devine as running backs and special teams coach at Notre Dame from 1975–77. The Fighting Irish won the national championship in '77.

After returning to the pro ranks from 1978–82 as running backs and special-teams coach of the Chicago Bears, Kuhlmann joined the Birmingham franchise of the USFL from 1983–85 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator before beginning his first stint with the Cardinals in 1986. Following his departure from the Cardinals after the 1990 season, Kuhlmann served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991.

During his tenure in Indianapolis, Kuhlmann coached the Colts' tight ends in 1994, then spent the next three seasons (1995–97) as special teams coach. In '96, his efforts resulted in Pro Bowl berths for both Colt kickers—punter Cary Blanchard and place kicker Chris Gardocki.

Born in Webster Groves, Missouri, Kuhlmann was a running back at Missouri from 1956–59 before spending four seasons as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization from 1959–62.●



Former Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie begins his fourth year as the Cardinals' defensive backs coach.

Marmie brought 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Cardinals in 1996 when he accepted his first professional coaching position.

His star pupil, cornerback Aeneas Williams, was recognized with his third, fourth, and fifth Pro Bowl trips in Marmie's first three seasons with the Cardinals. Williams' two 1997 interception returns for touchdowns led the NFC and raised his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's team mark of five.

Free safety Kwamie Lassiter blossomed last season in his first extended playing time as a starter, equalling the NFL single-game record with four interceptions vs. San Diego in the regular-season finale. Lassiter's eight interceptions for the season led the NFC.

In 1998, Marmie also tutored a secondary that fielded a rookie starter in every game—free safety Pat Tillman for the first 11, cornerback Corey Chavous for the last seven. Tillman became the Cardinals' first rookie opening-day starter at free safety since the team's arrival in Arizona in 1988.

The Barnesville, Ohio native spent the 1995 season tutoring UCLA's defensive backs following three years (1992–94) as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in his second stint at the Knoxville school.

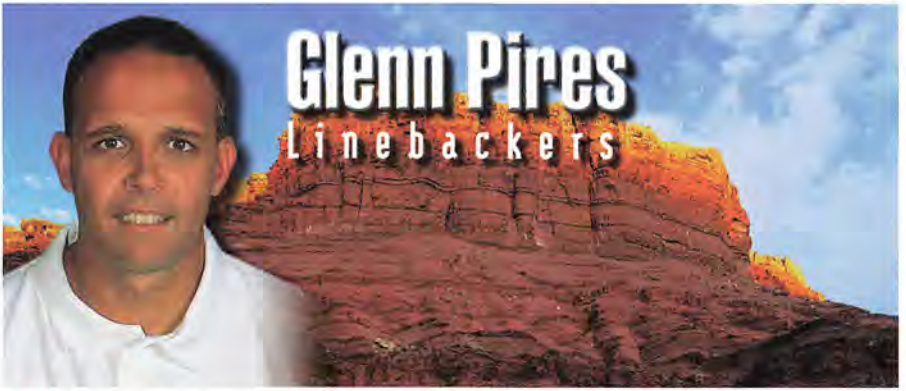
He was head coach at Arizona State from 1988–91, posting a 22–21–1 composite record, after earlier serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator from 1985–87, a span that included ASU's 1986 Pac-10 Conference and Rose Bowl championship team. Marmie's '86 Sun Devil defensive unit led the Pac-10 in scoring defense.

The former Eastern Kentucky (E.K.U.) quarterback (1962–65) entered the coaching ranks at Berea (Ky.) High School (1966) following his collegiate playing career before beginning his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky (1967–68). A four-year stint as secondary and defensive line coach at Morehead (Ky.) State (1968–71) followed before returning to E.K.U. for five seasons (1972–76) to coach the defensive line and linebackers.

Marmie later served as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1977–78), defensive backfield coach at North Carolina (1979–82), and defensive coordinator in his first stay at Tennessee (1983–84) where he was named the Southeastern Conference assistant coach-of-the-year in 1983.

Marmie, born October 17, 1942 in Barnesville, Ohio, holds a bachelor's degree (health, physical education, and recreation) and a master's degree (education) from Eastern Kentucky.

He and his wife, Linda, have three married children—daughters Vicki Ness and Cozy Hays, and son Larry, Jr.—and seven grandchildren.



Glenn Pires, a former assistant at Michigan State and Syracuse, enters his fourth season as the Cardinals' linebackers coach.

In 1998, his two top pupils, outside linebacker Jamir Miller, and middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon, ranked one-two on the Cardinals in total tackles with 150 and 127, respectively. McKinnon's five interceptions, a first by a Cardinal linebacker since E.J. Junior turned the trick in 1985, tied for the NFL lead among linebackers. Three of McKinnon's five pickoffs occurred against Chicago, a single-game Cardinal linebacker record and an NFL first by a linebacker since Minnesota's Jack Del Rio in 1993.

In 1997, McKinnon, in his first season as a starter, led the Cardinals with 145 combined tackles, logged eight or more tackles in 12 of 16 games, and posted a team-high eight double-digit tackle efforts. Miller ranked second with 139.5 total tackles in 1997.

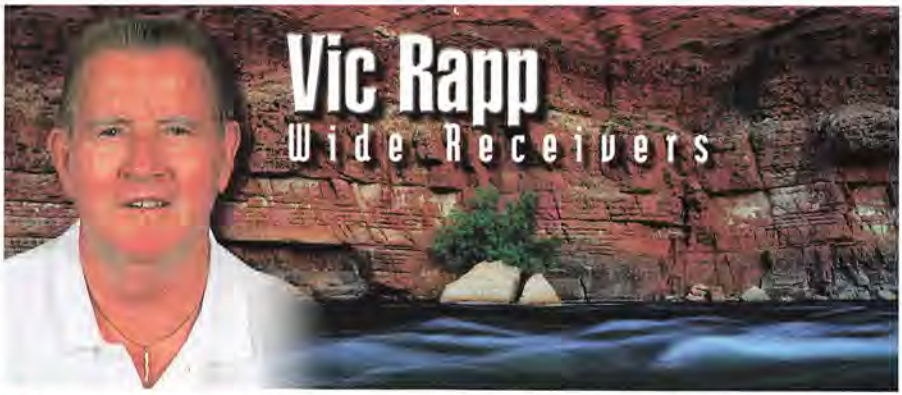
In 1996, the Cardinal linebacker corps of Eric Hill, Seth Joyner, and Miller started all 16 games as Arizona climbed from 26th in defense in 1995 to 21st, yielded nine fewer touchdowns, and improved from last in '95 to 21st against the run in '96. In addition, the Cards allowed 21.4 fewer yards per game and almost one full yard less per rushing attempt (4.5–3.6). Hill enjoyed a monster season as he nearly cracked the 100-solo tackle (97) and 200-combined tackle (196) barriers.

Pires served as outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State in 1995 following six seasons (1989–94) at Syracuse where he was defensive line coach the first two seasons and outside linebackers coach the last four. He also served the Orangemen as assistant recruiting coordinator for one year (1989).

Pires began his coaching career at Melrose (Mass.) High School (1980–82) before matriculating to Syracuse as a graduate assistant (1983–84). He spent four seasons (1985–88) at Dartmouth coaching linebackers and defensive linemen before returning to Syracuse.

He was a four-time letterman in football (offensive line) and track (hammer) at Springfield (Mass.) College where he earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1980. He also holds a master's degree in education from Syracuse.

Born September 13, 1958 in New Bedford, Mass., Pires and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of daughter Jackie (Aug. 8, 1989) and son Michael (July 11, 1991).●



Fourth-year Arizona wide receivers coach Vic Rapp's football career has come full circle, continuing in Arizona where it began. He also has reunited with Cardinal Head Coach Vince Tobin for the third time.

Arizona's starting wide receivers—Rob Moore and Frank Sanders—have prospered the past three campaigns under Rapp's guidance.

In 1996, Moore's 1,016 yards and 17.5-yard average per catch (58 receptions) were his career highs, the latter good for second in the NFC behind Minnesota's Jake Reed (18.3).

Sanders, in his second NFL season, established a personal-best 69 catches, the most in club history by a second-year player that ranked 11th all-time in team annals.

Rapp's pupils were an integral component of the Cardinal offense that climbed from 24th in 1995 to 12th in 1996 and led the NFL with 214 first downs passing.

In 1997, Moore and Sanders outdid their '96 efforts. Moore earned his second Pro Bowl trip with career bests of 97 receptions for 1,584 yards. The former is a single-season record for Cardinal wide receivers and ranked second in the NFC. The latter broke Roy Green's Cardinal single-season mark of 1,555 receiving yards (1984) and led the NFL!

Moore logged eight 100-yard games, more than doubling his previous single-season high. His three touchdown grabs December 7 vs. Washington also were a career high and his 68 first-down receptions led the NFL, too.

Sanders authored his first 1,000-yard season with 75 catches for 1,017 yards. He also ranked first in the league with 31 third-down receptions.

As a tandem, Moore and Sanders (172 combined receptions) ranked second in the NFL to Detroit duo Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton (1984) and became the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,0009-yard barrier in the same season.

Last season, Sanders improved upon his single-season bests with 89 NFC-leading receptions for 1,145 yards.

Rapp's 34 years in the sport began as an assistant at the University of Arizona in 1965. He since has logged seven seasons as a college assistant, 19 as a professional assistant (13 in the NFL), six as a head coach in the Canadian Football League, and one as an advance scout in pro personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, and one as a head coach in Germany.

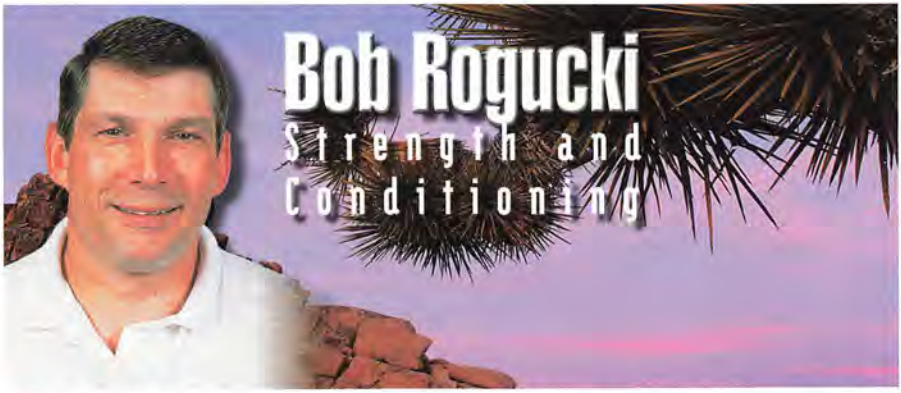
Rapp earned his first NFL assignment as running backs/tight ends coach with Houston in 1983, followed by similar positions with the L.A. Rams (1984), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985–86), and Detroit Lions (1987–88). After four seasons (1989–92) as wide receivers coach for the Chicago Bears' staff that included defensive coordinator Tobin, Rapp took a two-year hiatus from pro football before he was named a pro personnel scout for the Eagles in 1995.

Rapp spent 1994 in the Division A German Football League as head coach of the Erding Bulls, located outside Munich. After assuming the coaching reins of the summer league squad following four early-season losses, he guided the Bulls to the playoffs.

Rapp entered the coaching fraternity in 1965 at Arizona as an offensive line assistant under Head Coach Jim LaRue, then handled the passing game as an assistant at Missouri from 1967–71 when his path first crossed with Tobin. Following five seasons (1972–76) as the offensive coordinator of the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos, he was named head coach of the British Columbia Lions in 1977, compiling a 55–42–4 record in six seasons that included two conference championships. One of his staff assistants with the Lions was Tobin.

Rapp played collegiate football at Southwest Missouri State as a guard and linebacker. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and guidance and counseling from Southwest Missouri State and two master's degrees from Arkansas—one in physical education, the other in guidance and counseling.

Born December 23, 1935 in Marionville, Missouri, Rapp and his wife, Carol, have three grown daughters—Rhonda, Paula, and Marla.



Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key) begins his 10th year as the Cardinals' strength and conditioning coach, a span that covers the tenures of three head coaches—Joe Bugel, Buddy Ryan, and Vince Tobin.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football, involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, midsection, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki served as the strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89 after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

Rogucki also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

The Rosemont, West Virginia native, born September 27, 1953, was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college football player. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia prior to accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki holds a bachelor's degree in health, physical education, and safety from Glenville State College.

He and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie (March 27, 1980), and daughter Katie (Sept. 22, 1984). Charlie Rogucki is a freshman quarterback at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa where his position coach is former Cardinal quarterback Timm Rosenbach.

Johnny Roland
Running Backs

Johnny Roland, Head Coach Vince Tobin's former teammate at the University of Missouri and one of the top running backs in Cardinal history, begins the third season as the Cards' running backs coach.

Last season, the Cardinals averaged 101.7 rushing yards per game, a team high since 1993. Two of his pupils, running backs Adrian Murrell and Mario Bates, achieved rushing milestones. Murrell gained 1,042 yards on the ground to become only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons. Bates set a Cardinal postseason single-game record with three rushing touchdowns at Minnesota in the NFC divisional playoff game.

A Pro Bowl runner for the Cardinals from 1967–68, Roland is a 20-year NFL coaching veteran, including two stints with the Cards.

Roland, 55, owns an impressive NFL coaching resume that includes stops with Green Bay (1974), Philadelphia (1976–78), Chicago (1983–92), the New York Jets (1993–94), and St. Louis Rams (1995–96) with one college stop at Notre Dame (1975).

During 10 seasons in Chicago, his tutelage of running backs Walter Payton and Neal Anderson helped the Bears lead the league in rushing four times, finish second twice, and third once as the Bears were the NFL's leading rushing team in the 1980s, averaging 153.4 yards per game. In a five-year span from 1984–88, the Bears compiled a 62–17 record (.785), made five playoff appearances, and defeated New England 46–10 in Super Bowl XX in New Orleans.

Roland entered the coaching fraternity in 1974 at Green Bay under Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine, for whom he and Tobin played at Missouri. Roland followed his former coach to Notre Dame as an assistant in 1975 before logging three seasons (1976–78) under Dick Vermeil in Philadelphia.

The owner of radio station KIRL (AM 1460) in St. Charles, Mo., Roland spent four years in private business (1979–82) before Chicago Bear Head Coach Mike Ditka summoned him to tutor Payton and Anderson from 1983–92 when the Bears compiled a 10-year record of 103–56, a winning percentage of .648, and won 10 or more games seven times. From 1986–92, Roland and Tobin were assistants on Ditka's staff.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Roland was a teammate of Tobin as a two-way (running back and cornerback) starter at Missouri, then achieved NFL offensive rookie-of-the-year honors in 1966.

Both the Cardinals (fourth round) and the N.Y. Jets (first round) selected Roland as a "future" choice in the 1965 drafts, respectively.

After seven years in St. Louis where he was a teammate of Cardinal Vice President and Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson, Roland concluded his playing career with the New York Giants in 1973.

As a pro running back, Roland collected 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 receiving yards, and scored 34 touchdowns.

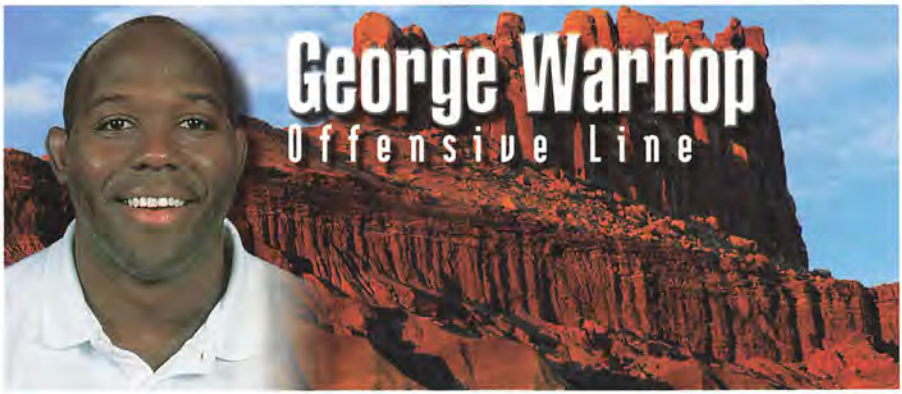
He remains the Cardinals' no. 4 all-time career rusher with 3,608 yards. He also ranks fourth in career rushing attempts (962), fifth (tie with Elmer Angsman) in career rushing touchdowns (27), and fourth (tie with Johnny Johnson) in most career 100-yard rushing games (six).

Roland's 86-yard punt return for a touchdown at Philadelphia on October 2, 1966 is the third longest in team history. He also scored on a 74-yard punt return at Dallas on November 16, 1970.

He authored three of the 44 runs of 50 yards or more in Cardinal history. The longest, a 70-yarder at Washington on November 5, 1967, rates as the 18th-longest jaunt in franchise history, and the seventh longest without scoring a touchdown. He also registered scoring dashes of 54 (vs. New Orleans, December 3, 1967) and 50 yards (at Washington, October 23, 1966).

Roland remains one of only 21 Cardinals to have rushed for 130 or more yards in a game, and one of only five to record 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a single season (10, 1967).

Roland has two sons, Johnny, Jr. and James, and a daughter, Cynnamon.●



George Warhop begins his second season as Arizona's offensive line coach following two campaigns as an offensive line assistant with the St. Louis Rams.

A year ago in his first campaign with the Cardinals, his linemen allowed 50 sacks, a 28-sack improvement over the previous season when Arizona allowed a league-high 78 sacks. The Cardinals also held Dallas and Minnesota sackless in two postseason games.

Warhop's first Cardinal line also merited credit for Arizona's 18 rushing touchdowns, exceeding the combined totals of the two previous seasons (eight in 1996, nine in 1997).

A native of Riverside, California, Warhop played football at Mount San Jacinto College (Calif.) and the University of Cincinnati.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, then served on the offensive line staffs at Kansas (1984–86), Vanderbilt (1987–89), and New Mexico (1990–91).

From 1991–92, Warhop was offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World Football League when the team won the World Bowl in his first season. The following season, Warhop, 37, was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist, then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994–95.

Warhop and his wife, Lori, reside in Phoenix with their children, daughter Olivia (Feb. 23, 1996) and son Jacob (June 24, 1997).

●Pro Career: Sure-handed veteran of four seasons with the Chicago Bears, last two years with Arizona ... sidelined for the 1999 season due to intestinal surgery on July 4, 1999 ... signed with Cardinals as an unrestricted free agent on Feb. 28, 1997 ... played in 28 games (11 starts) for the Bears over four seasons, catching 28 passes for 307 yards (11-yard average) and three touchdowns ... enjoyed first full injury-free seasons the past two years with 32 appearances and six starting roles for Cards plus first two postseason appearances ... injuries previously shortened each of first four pro seasons—1993 (broken collarbone), 1994 (broken left leg), 1995 (ankle sprain), and 1996 (stress fracture in right foot). ●1998: Second consecutive effective season with 22 pass receptions for 271 yards, good for career-best 12.3-yard average ... also caught three passes for 23 yards in postseason play ... started four contests ... after just six catches in first eight games, snared 16 passes for 217 yards in second half of season ... snared two passes for 25 yards, including a 23-yarder over the middle for a touchdown late in game at Seattle (Sept. 13) ... converted third-and-11 play with 15-yard grab from quarterback Jake Plummer in first possession of game vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) ... back into offensive scheme with season-high four catches for 39 yards in 29–27 win over Washington (Nov. 8) ... nifty catch on flare pass in first quarter, but fumbled in mid-air at Redskin 22-yard line to end scoring threat ... nearly scored later in first half with 10-yard reception to the one-yard line as Cards scored on next play, then snared passes of 10 and 12 yards in 10-play,

80-yard scoring drive to open second half ... converted third-and-seven play with 32-yard catch and run to the Cowboy 24-yard line in second quarter vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) ... in third period scoring drive, caught passes of 24 and 11 yards from Plummer, the latter to the Cowboy four-yard line, as Plummer then hit wide receiver Rob Moore on next play to bring Cards within 35–21 at end of period ... caught just one pass at Washington (Nov. 22), but it was good for a 21-yard gain to convert a third-and-two situation near midfield in the third quarter as Cards continued the drive for a touchdown and 38–13 lead in eventual 45–42 victory ... caught only one pass for three yards in first half at Kansas City (Nov. 29), but drew two pass interference calls on Chief defenders in first half to convert third-and-one play, and again in fourth quarter to give Cards the football on the one-yard line as Mario Bates scored on next play to cut Chiefs' lead to 31–24 with six minutes left ... fine catch and run for 27 yards in second quarter to the Giant four-yard line at the Meadowlands (Dec. 6) ... two clutch grabs in fourth quarter scoring drive at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) to tie game at 17–17 with 23-yarder to the Eagle 40-yard line on second down, then five plays later snared 10-yard toss to the Eagle 17-yard line as Cards scored three plays later to tie game and go on to 20–17 victory ... caught one pass for 11 yards in second quarter drive for field goal to narrow Saints' lead to 7–6 in 19–17 win vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... snared two passes for 15 yards in 20–7 wild-card victory at Dallas (Jan. 2), one pass for eight yards in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10). ●1997: Nearly matched his entire four-year career reception total (28) with 23 receptions for 261 yards (11.7-yard average) and four touchdowns, the most scoring grabs by an Arizona tight end since 1988 ... caught at least one pass in all but two contests to finish fourth on team in receptions despite starting just two of 16 games in first injury-free season as a pro ... in first start in Card uniform, caught four passes for 24 yards in second half vs. Dallas (Sept. 7), including key six-yard grab on third-and-two situation in third quarter scoring drive of eventual 25–22 overtime win ... one catch for nine yards at Washington (Sept. 12), and made key play in third period when he took lateral from punter Jeff Feagles on botched punt attempt and bulled his way for 15 yards and a first down ... among two catches for 41 yards vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) was spectacular 33-yarder from quarterback Kent Graham in second quarter ... it marked his first touchdown as a Cardinal and the longest scoring catch by a Card tight end since Rob Awalt snared a 52-yarder from Cliff Stoudt in 1988 at Houston ... caught eight-yarder in first half vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 2) ... snared a 28-yarder from Plummer to the Eagles' 23-yard line and a six-yarder from Kent Graham in the fourth period of 31–21 win ... acrobatic catch for 11-yard touchdown from Plummer in third period to tie game at 17–17 vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... impressive 37-yard scoring grab from Plummer in third period vs. Washington (Dec. 7) to bring Cards within 24–21, his second consecutive game with a touchdown reception and his third of the season ... one pass reception for one yard in season finale vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21), but it was good for a touchdown from Plummer to tie the score at 7–7 in the first quarter as Cards won 29–26. ●1996 (Bears): Projected as a starter entering the season but suffered a stress fracture in right foot during training camp ... returned to practice two weeks later but promptly re-fractured the foot ... spent entire season on injured reserve as the Bears started four players at his position. ●1995 (Bears): Hampered by preseason ankle injury ... entered season as reserve ... utilized as holder and long-snapper on punts in first two games ... first catch of season a nine-yarder at Tampa Bay (Sept. 17) ... caught eight-yard pass at St. Louis (Sept. 24) ... 15-yarder the next week against Carolina (Oct. 8) ... only starting role of season at Jacksonville (Oct. 15) ... inactive the next two games due to ulcerative colitis, a stomach/digestive disorder ... returned to duties as long-snapper for punts and holder vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 5). ●1994 (Bears): Though he played in only seven games as a starter, enjoyed best statistical season with 13 pass receptions for 157 yards and three touchdowns ... started first seven games before breaking right fibula at Detroit (Oct. 23) ... placed on injured reserve Oct. 24 for the remainder of the season and playoffs ... also handled long-snapping duties on punts and served as holder on place kicks ... snared two scoring passes for 47 yards in 21–9 season-opening win over Tampa Bay (Sept. 4), including touchdown grabs of 10 yards to open the game and a 37-yarder in fourth quarter to seal the victory ... it marked the first time in 19 years a Bear tight end caught two touchdown passes in one game (Greg Latta, 1975) ... four grabs for 42 yards vs. Minnesota (Sept. 18) ... two catches for 19 yards in 20–13 win over Buffalo (Oct. 2), including a spectacular one-handed stab on a 13-yard touchdown toss from quarterback Steve Walsh in the second quarter that made numerous highlight clips ... followed with three receptions for 30 yards in 17–7 win over New Orleans (Oct. 9) the next week ... off-season surgery on left foot Feb. 2. ●1993 (Bears): Originally selected by Chicago in third round (61st overall) of 1993 NFL Draft ... suffered a broken collarbone in an intrasquad scrimmage on July 24 ... missed entire preseason and first four regular-season contests ... first pro action included two receptions for 22 yards in 17–6 win at Philadelphia (Oct. 10) ... after an open date, started the next game against Minnesota (Oct. 25) and responded with six receploss to Buffalo on Monday night (Oct. 26) ... snared a 20-yard scoring pass from quarterback Ken O'Brien to spell the difference in 26–14 victory against the Dolphins (Nov. 1) ... caught a 25-yard scoring throw from Nagle the next week at Denver (Nov. 8) ... season-long 48-yard touchdown pass and gained 21 yards on a double reverse at Miami (Dec. 20) ... hit the 50-reception plateau for the season with six grabs for 60 yards in the season finale against New Orleans (Dec. 26). ●1991 (Jets): Snared 70 passes for 987 yards (14.7-yard average) and five touchdowns to crack the Jets' top 10 single-season lists ... 987 yards led the club while 70 receptions ranked second to Al Toon (74) ... caught five or more passes in 10 games and authored four receiving days of 90 yards or more in the first half of the season ... six snatches for 98 yards and a touchdown at Seattle (Sept. 8) ... 94 yards on five catches against Buffalo (Sept. 15) ... countered with 98 yards and a 17-yard scoring toss from O'Brien to open the scoring of a 41–23 triumph over Miami (Sept. 29) ... again helped the Jets dent the scoreboard early the following week with a 16-yard touchdown catch from running back Blair Thomas to finish an 80-yard, 14-play drive in 17–14 victory at Cleveland (Oct. 6) ... recipient of 47-yard scoring toss from O'Brien on a "flea-flicker" play to give the Jets a 7–0 lead en route to a 17–6 win at Indianapolis (Oct. 20) ... snared six passes in consecutive victories at New England (28–21, Nov. 17) and at San Diego (24–3, Nov. 24), including a touchdown pass on the first series against the Chargers ... six catches for 70 yards, highlighted by a 29-yard gain in overtime to set up the winning field goal, in 23–20 victory in the season finale at Miami (Dec. 22) ... four receptions for 70 yards in 17–10 first-round playoff loss at Houston (Dec. 29). ●1990 (Jets): Chosen by Jets in first round of supplemental draft ... cruised to consensus all-rookie notice with 44 receptions for 692 yards (15.7-yard average) and six touchdowns, the latter a Jet single-season rookie record ... led all AFC rookies in receiving and ranked third overall in the NFL ... 44 catches were the third-best total by a Jet rookie, trailing only Matt Snell (56 in 1964) and Toon (46 in 1985) ... 692 yards were surpassed only by Wesley Walker (35–740 in 1977) ... played in 15 games with 14 starting roles ... sporadic playing time early in the season due to shoulder injury ... opened career with four catches for 35 yards at Cincinnati (Sept. 9) ... spectacular performance in 37–13 victory at New England (Sept. 31) with seven catches for 175 yards and a 69-yard scoring strike from O'Brien, the Jets' longest touchdown pass since 1986 ... 175 yards topped only by Walker's 178 yards (four receptions) at Oakland (Oct. 23, 1977) among Jet rookies ... sat out game eight at Houston (Oct. 28) with an ankle sprain ... caught just one pass vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 25), but it was good for a 53-yard scoring play from O'Brien ... touchdown receptions of six and 10 yards vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 16) ... aided a 42–7 victory over New England (Dec. 23) with four grabs for 30 yards and a touchdown ... snared two passes for 36 yards in 16–14 season-finale win at Tampa Bay (Dec. 30). ●College/Personal: Three-year letterman at Syracuse ... set school career receiving marks in yardage (2,122) and touchdowns (22) ... second in catches (106) and average per catch (20 yards) ... junior year produced 53 receptions for 1,064 yards and nine touchdowns ... led the nation with 20.1 yards per catch ... became the school's first single-season 1,000-yard receiver ... all-New York performer in football, basketball, and track at Hempstead High School ... also earned all-conference honors in lacrosse ... won the Long Island triple jump title with a leap of 48'–9" ... father, Charles, was all-America and New York triple-jump champion with a best of 50 feet ... degree in sociology from Syracuse ... raised in Hempstead, just three miles from the Jets' training complex ... community minded ... host of free mini-camp for youth at the Cardinals' training facility in June, 1998 ... named the Jets' 1992 Edge Man-of-the-Year ... voted by his teammates as the 1992 Marty Lyons Award winner as notice of his unselfish community involvement ... has worked with the Ronald McDonald House of New York, the Salvation Army, and was a member of former New York Governor Mario Cuomo's Athletes Against Drugs and Alcohol cause ... named honorary chairman of the Children's Miracle Network ... honored in 1991 as the New York City Council's "Role Model-of-the-Year" ... 1992 recipient of the 100 Black ●Pro Career: Upgraded Arizona's rushing attack in 1998 in first season as a Cardinal ... 1,000-yard rusher each of past three seasons ... acquired from N.Y. Jets on April 7, 1998 along with a seventh-round draft pick in exchange for Cardinals' third-round selection in the 1998 NFL Draft ... 1,042 rushing yards last year made him only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons (Curtis Martin, New England-1997, N.Y. Jets-1998; Terry Allen, Minnesota-1994, Washington-1995; Eric Dickerson, L.A. Rams-1986, Indianapolis-1987; Earnest Jackson, San Diego-1984, Philadelphia-1985; Ricky Watters, Philadelphia-1997, Seattle-1998) ... in five seasons with Jets, rushed for 3,447 yards on 850 carries for a 4.1-yard average per attempt with 15 touchdowns ... also caught 127 passes for 729 yards and three scores ... set Jet single-game rushing mark in Sun Devil Stadium with 199 yards on 31 carries in 31–21 win at Arizona (Oct. 27, 1996) ... originally chosen by Jets in the fifth round (120th overall) and became a "sleeper" of the 1993 NFL Draft class ... has registered the third-best rushing total (4,489 yards) of running backs from the class, trailing only Pittsburgh Steeler Jerome Bettis (7,372) and San Diego Charger Natrone Means (4,938). ●1998: Cardinals' first 1,000-yard rusher since Garrison Hearst in 1995 (1,070 yards) with 1,042 yards on 274 carries and eight touchdowns ... rushing touchdowns three consecutive weeks (games two-four) were a Cardinal first since Ronald Moore in 1995 ... duplicated the feat seven weeks later with rushing touchdowns in games 11–13 ... sparkled in postseason play with 74-yard ramble at Dallas (Jan. 2), the Cards' longest play from scrimmage in 1998 and the longest run by a Cowboy opponent in postseason play ... led Cards with 10 combined touchdowns (eight rushing, two receiving) ... in first game in Cardinal uniform at Dallas (Sept. 6), managed 35 yards on 13 carries and caught one pass for four yards ... held to five carries for 15 yards in first half at Seattle (Sept. 13), then gained 64 yards on 15 carries in second half ... finally put Cards on scoreboard in third period with one-yard dash around left end into the end zone ... later collected a combined 29 yards on three consecutive carries of 9, 11, and 9 yards in fourth-quarter spurt ... after rough first half in home opener vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) with six carries for 18 yards, gained 26 yards on four third-quarter attempts, then exploded for 101 yards on 12 attempts in fourth quarter, including 28-yard burst on Cards' first play in final period of 17–3 victory ... in final drive of game—nine plays, 86 yards—had his number called six times and responded with 56 yards on gains of 3, 9, 12, 6, 1, and a 25-yard romp into the end zone at the two-minute warning to seal the victory ... 145 yards (6.6-yard average on 22 carries) were the third highest of his career and marked the first Card running back to gain 100 yards in 31 games ... after a 6.6-yard average vs. Eagles, tough going against Ram defense with 68 yards on 29 attempts for 2.3-yard average and long of 11 yards at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... scored from four yards out with one minute left in first half as he knifed into the end zone over right guard to give Cards 17–7 lead ... responded in second half with 39 yards on the ground, including the game-ending final possession with runs of 7, 7, –1, and 5 yards as Cards ran out clock ... other than 16-yard run in second quarter, collected just 12 yards on 12 attempts vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) ... returned to form in 20–7 win over Chicago (Oct. 11) with 12 rushing attempts for 51 yards in first half to finish game with 60 yards on 21 carries ... also caught one pass for 24 yards, converting a third-and-six in third period ... slowed during week of practice by calf injury and did not start at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 18) ... received just one carry for no yards in fourth quarter ... inactive at Detroit (Nov. 1) when Mario Bates opened at tailback ... returned healthy vs. Washington (Nov. 8) to churn his way to 107 yards on 23 attempts, including 16 totes for 80 yards in second half for five-yard average ... responded with nine attempts for 57 yards—6.3-yard average—in fourth quarter that included consecutive carries of 11 yards over left tackle and left guard in 60-yard scoring drive that gave Cards 21–17 lead early in final period of 29–27 win ... 34 yards on 14 attempts vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) with three receptions for 16 yards ... with just over three minutes left, cut Dallas lead to 35–28 when he took seven-yard toss from Plummer into the end zone in fourth quarter ... exhibited trademark cutback form at Washington (Nov. 22), bolting 64 yards on 11 first-half carries for 5.8-yard average, including 13-yard run in second quarter as he broke three tackles en route to the end zone ... back-to-back runs of 12 and 17 yards in first quarter to set up Cards' first touchdown, then caught toss from Plummer and turned upfield for 30-yard gain on next possession as Plummer scored two plays later for 17–0 advantage ... nearly scored from seven yards out midway through fourth quarter but was pushed out of bounds at the one-yard line with five minutes left as Cards scored three plays later for 45–35 advantage ... finished with 20 carries for 92 yards and first rushing touchdown in six weeks ... after just six yards on seven rushing attempts in first half at Kansas City (Nov. 29), came back in second half with six carries for 71 yards (11.8-yard average), highlighted by 31-yarder from own 20-yard line to ignite four-play, 80-yard scoring drive that brought Cards within 24–17 with two minutes left in third quarter ... bolted for 20 more yards from own 20-yard line again in fourth period to begin another 80-yard scoring drive, this one capped by Bates' one-yard run nine plays later ... also caught 18-yard pass in first quarter ... scored both Card touchdowns vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) on 20-yard catch and run in first quarter and eight-yard run in second period ... the first score came on a nifty shovel pass from Plummer ... 44 yards on 10 first-half carries, including a 28-yard run from own five-yard line on third-and-17 play as clock was winding down in first half ... finished game with 53 yards rushing on 16 attempts, but just six attempts for nine yards in second half ... 174 yards on 32 carries and two receptions for 15 yards in 20–17 overtime win at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) ... first half produced 97 yards on 13 attempts for 7.5-yard average ... 174 yards included runs of 32 and 23 yards as he collected 118 yards on 20 first-down carries, an average of 5.9 yards on first down ... vaulted over the 1,000-yard mark vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20) with 65 yards on 19 attempts ... in third quarter, took handoff from Plummer and started right, cut back, and with excellent block by Plummer, scooted around the left side into the end zone from 21 yards out to give Cards 13–10 lead ... later in game was hit by Saint linebacker Mark Fields and coughed up the football at the 19-yard line ... Card defense, however, stopped Saints on fourth-and-one on the possession, and Murrell atoned with rushes of eight and three yards on the ensuing possession leading to a field goal and 16–10 lead ... harnessed by San Diego's number-one ranked defense to season-low 25 yards on 18 attempts against Chargers (Dec. 27) ... however, scored from four yards out in first quarter to cap a nine-play, 86-yard scoring drive as he stretched over the goal line after being hit just short of paydirt ... stiff Charger run defense limited him to one yard or less on 15 of 18 carries, including nine carries of one yard ... provided the hammer on the ground and in the air in 20–7 wild card victory at Dallas (Jan. 2) ... 95 rushing yards on 12 attempts for 7.9-yard average, highlighted by a 74-yard dash up the middle on second play of third quarter as Cowboy speedster Deion Sanders was the only player to catch him from behind three yards short of a touchdown ... in first quarter took precisely-executed shovel pass from Plummer for 12-yard touchdown play as Dallas' blitzing defense was caught off guard ... in divisional playoff at Minnesota (Jan. 10), started slowly with six rushing tries for 14 yards in first half ... 31 yards on six third-quarter runs and dashed 39 yards with screen pass in third quarter ... added two more catches for 13 yards and three carries for 17 yards in fourth quarter to finish with 4.1-yard rushing average on 15 attempts for 62 yards and three pass catches for 52 yards, good for 114 yards from scrimmage overall. ●1997 (Jets): The second Jet (Freeman McNeil was the first) to post consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons ... 300 carries amassed 1,086 yards, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history ... finished seventh in the AFC in rushing ... produced 25 runs of 10 yards or more ... rushing proficiency mirrored team's success as he gained 774 yards in nine Jet wins, 312 yards in their seven defeats ... opened season with 131 yards on 24 carries in 41–3 win at Seattle (Aug. 31) ... led NFL in first week with 10 rushes for first downs ... harnessed to just 27 yards on 14 carries by Buffalo (Sept. 7) ... rebounded at New England (Sept. 14) with 18 rushing attempts for 110 yards (6.1-yard average) ... helped seal a 23–22 victory over Oakland (Sept. 21) with runs of 20 and 10 yards late in the fourth quarter, part of his 68 yards on 15 attempts with a four-yard scoring run ... also improvised with quarterback Neil O'Donnell on game-clinching play on fourth-and-seven situation with just over one minute left at the Raiders' 28-yard line ... took short pass from O'Donnell and scampered 14 yards for a first down ... career-high 40 carries (tied for franchise record of Johnny Hector) and gained 156 yards in 31–14 win at Cincinnati (Sept. 28) ... authored five runs of 10 yards or more and a 12-yard touchdown jaunt in second quarter as Jets' offense controlled the football for 42:50 ... continued torrid pace with 99 yards on

30 attempts and a 24-yard touchdown in 16–12 triumph at Indianapolis (Oct. 5) ... 5.8-yard average at Miami (Nov. 9) with 69 yards on 12 carries, including a career-long touchdown run of 43 yards ... fell just short of 100 yards again with 28 carries for 95 yards in 23–21 win over Minnesota (Nov. 23) ... held to 27 yards on nine attempts at Buffalo (Nov. 30) and five for seven yards vs. Indianapolis (Dec. 7) ... opened the Buccaneer defense for 73 yards on 26 carries with a seven-yard scoring run in a 31–0 shutout over Tampa Bay (Dec. 14) ... rushed for 43 yards on 12 carries and scored from 14 yards out in season finale at Detroit (Dec. 21). ●1996 (Jets): In first full season as a starter, set team record with 301 rushing attempts to gain 1,249 yards and six touchdowns ... also caught 17 passes for 81 yards and a score ... first Jet since 1985 (McNeil) to surpass 1,000 yards rushing ... five 100-yard outings ... consecutive 100-yard games with 134 yards on 31 carries at Washington (Sept. 29) and 102 yards on 20 totes vs. Oakland (Oct. 6), a first since McNeil in 1987 ... opened season with 94 yards on 17 carries at Denver (Sept. 1) ... managed a combined 90 yards on 35 attempts over next three games ... broke the slump with back-to-back 100-yard efforts against the Redskins and Raiders ... included in his record-breaking 199-yard effort at Arizona was an NFL season-long 78-yard run late in the fourth quarter to clinch the Jets' only victory of their 1–15 season ... it was the second-longest run by a Card opponent in franchise history ... answered again the following week with 128 yards (28 attempts) and two scores vs. New England (Nov. 10), the first two-touchdown game of his career ... eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark at Buffalo (Nov. 24) with 103 yards on 19 attempts, his fifth 100-yard game of the season ... concluded season with 19 rushes for 69 yards and a touchdown vs. Miami (Dec. 22). ●1995 (Jets): Generated 1,260 combined yards from scrimmage with 192 rushing attempts for 795 yards and 71 pass receptions for 465 yards ... 71 catches most by Jet running back, surpassing team mark of 67 by former Cardinal Johnny Johnson (1993), and ranked eighth on club single-season reception list ... opened season with 47 yards rushing and seven pass receptions for 52 yards at Miami (Sept. 3) ... led Jets in rushing (11–52) and receiving yards (4–68) vs. Indianapolis (Sept. 10), including a career-long 43-yard reception and season-long 30-yard run ... in first NFL start, impressed with 5.9-yard average with 16 rushing attempts for 95 yards vs. Oakland (Oct. 1) ... led club with seven catches (45 yards) at Carolina (Oct. 15) ... accounted for 33 yards of 61-yard game-winning touchdown drive in 17–16 win over Miami (Oct. 22) ... paced ground game at Indianapolis (Oct. 29) with 68 yards on 19 attempts and added five receptions for 22 yards ... 70 rushing yards on just 12 carries vs. New England (Nov. 5) ... led team with 36 yards rushing and 52 yards receiving, including a 41-yard touchdown catch at conclusion of 28–26 loss vs. Buffalo (Nov. 19) ... first career 100-yard rushing effort with 24 attempts for 116 yards and a score in 16–10 win at Seattle (Nov. 26) ... added seven pass receptions for 37 yards vs. Seahawks ... missed outing at Houston (Dec. 17) with shoulder injury ... returned to starting lineup vs. New Orleans (Dec. 24) and managed career-high nine pass receptions in season finale. ●1994 (Jets): Played in just 10 games due to mid-season knee injury ... rushed for 160 yards on 33 attempts and caught seven passes for 76 yards ... 28 yards on 10 attempts in season opener at Buffalo (Sept. 4) ... averaged 6.6 yards per carry over two-game span at Cleveland (Oct. 2) and vs. Indianapolis (Oct. 9) with 4–28 against Browns and 10–65 vs. Colts ... converted third-and-10 situation with 12-yard reception that led to go-ahead score in 16–6 win over Colts ... rushed twice for eight yards vs. New England (Oct. 16) before knee injury caused him to miss next six contests ... on special teams, returned 14 kickoffs for 268 yards (19.1-yard average) with career-long 37-yard return at Miami (Sept. 18). ●1993 (Jets): Fourth on team in rushing with 157 yards on 34 attempts ... also caught five passes for 12 yards ... returned 23 kickoffs for 342 yards ... first extended action from scrimmage vs. New England (Sept. 26) resulted in eight carries for 52 yards, including a 37-yard touchdown run (career first), and three pass receptions for 12 yards ... led ground game vs. Cincinnati (Nov. 21) with 52 yards on nine tries for 5.8-yard average. ●College/Personal: Two-year starter at West Virginia finished career seventh on school rushing offs with five boots that sailed to the goal line, six-yard line, and three into the end zone (–1, –5, and –7) … after Card defensive tackle Bernard Wilson scored on a 66-yard interception return in first quarter, Nedney misdirected an unexpected onsides kick attempt and the ball glanced off teammate Kwamie Lassiter … Eagle Willie Clark scooped the ball and sped 39 yards for a touchdown … four long-range attempts at Dallas (Nov. 9)—46-yarder wide left, converted 42- and 39-yard tries, then missed a 51-yard try wide right … three impressive kickoffs with one touchback and other two returned just 17 and 19 yards by Cowboy return unit that finished fourth in the league … converted from 34 yards to tie game at 10–10 in third quarter at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16) and nailed all three kickoffs deep into the end zone for touchbacks … hero of 16–13 victory at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with field goals of 22 yards (second quarter), 27 yards (third quarter), and a 43-yard game-winner as time expired … also kicked off well with four kickoffs—one touchback—as Raven drives started at their 20-, 2-, 20- and 19-yard lines … converted from 32 and 19 yards in regulation vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30), but missed a 46-yarder near end of game for potential game-winner in eventual 26–20 overtime defeat … sailed five kickoffs into end zone in 29–26 season finale win over Atlanta (Dec. 21), two good for touchbacks, as Atlanta drives after his kickoffs began at their 7-, 27-, 20-, and 20-yard lines. ●1996 (Dolphins): Impressive rookie season for Miami with 89 points … converted 18 of 29 field goals and 35 of 36 points after touchdown … finished first in the AFC and tied with N.Y. Giant kicker Brad Daluiso for NFL lead with 20 touchbacks on kickoffs … signed with Miami on March 29 … in first NFL game, made 34-yard field goal and added three extra points in 24–10 win over New England (Sept. 1) … followed with career-high five extra points and a 36-yard field goal in 38–10 win at Arizona (Sept. 8) … sealed 36–27 win over N.Y. Jets (Sept. 15) with 29-yard field goal with just under two minutes left … missed an extra point vs. Jets to break a string of 120 consecutive successful extra points by Dolphin kickers, the last miss on Dec. 20, 1992 vs. Jets … accounted for all six Miami points in 10–6 loss at Indianapolis (Sept. 23) … converted all five points after touchdown in 37–13 win over Indianapolis (Nov. 10) … booted field goals of 34, 44 (then career long), and 29 yards in 23–20 win at Houston (Nov. 17), the latter a game-winner as the clock expired … three field goals and 11 points vs. Oilers were career single-game bests … followed with three field goals from 29, 41, and 18 yards in 16–14 "Monday Night Football" victory vs. Buffalo (Dec. 16) to earn AFC special teams player-of-the-week honors … it marked first time a Dolphin player won the award since kicker Pete Stoyanovich in 1994 … finished season with 37-yard field goal and four points after touchdown in 31–28 win at N.Y. Jets (Dec. 22). ●1995 (Dolphins): Attended training camp with Green Bay … waived during preseason … signed to Dolphins' practice squad Sept. 21 … waived Oct. 10 after two games. ●College/Professional: Four-year place kicker who also handled punting duties as a senior at San Jose State … finished as school's all-time leading scorer with 236 points on 39 of 70 field-goal attempts and 119 of 132 extra points … averaged 37.8 yards on 70 punts as a senior … football and basketball letterman at Santa Teresa High School in San Jose … awarded degree in recreation administration from San Jose State in May, 1998 after completing an internship in Cards' community relations department … avid golfer … lives in Chandler, Arizona with wife Gina … born March 22, 1973 in San Jose.●

table second quarter with 46-yard interception return for a touchdown by Raider cornerback Charles Woodson with five minutes left in first half ... on next possession, another interception at his own 32-yard line was returned to the Cards' four-yard line as Oakland converted three plays later for 23–14 halftime lead ... finished the game with 23 completions in 29 attempts for 208 yards ... set personal single-game completion mark of 72 percent vs. Chicago (Oct. 11) with 18–25 effort for 157 yards ... outstanding third-down numbers of seven completions in 10 attempts for 67 yards ... twice converted fourth-and-short plays with quarterback sneaks of one and three yards ... the first kept a drive going for eventual touchdown and 10–0 lead in first half ... later converted third-and-seven situation at Chicago 11-yard line with nine-yard throw to Sanders on crossing pattern beneath linebacker to set up running back Mario Bates' second score and 17–0 Card lead in eventual 20–7 triumph ... frustrating, error-filled game at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 18) as he tossed two interceptions, was sacked seven times, lost a fumble, and connected on just 12 of 21 attempts for 139 yards ... frustration on eight first-down plays—five sacks and just one completion in three pass attempts for only 10 yards ... relieved by veteran Dave Brown midway through fourth quarter on Cards' final possession ... weathered inauspicious start at Detroit (Nov. 1) to engineer hard-fought 17–15 victory against pressing Lion defense ... in first quarter, sacked on three consecutive third-down plays, one time after guard Jerome Daniels stepped on his foot, fumbled twice (losing one), and tossed an interception to open second quarter that Detroit converted into a field goal and 3–0 lead. ... regrouped, however, and tossed 16-yard scoring pass to Sanders midway through second period, finishing the first half with five completions in nine attempts for 44 yards with 4 sacks, 1 interception, and 1 lost fumble ... came out in second half throwing with 28-yard completion to Moore on first play after intermission ... on next possession, hit Moore for 21 yards, McWilliams for 19, then found Moore over the middle in the end zone from 36 yards to give Cards a 14–9 lead ... guided team into field goal range in fourth quarter with nine-yard toss to Moore, runs of five and three yards by backs Larry Centers and Bates, a 14-yard completion to Centers, and two four-yard tosses to wide receiver Eric Metcalf to the Lion 35-yard line as kicker Joe Nedney booted home the game-winner from 53 yards with 2:46 left ... finished contest with 15 completions in 25 attempts for 198 yards ... after non-descript first half of only six completions in 13 attempts for 48 yards vs. Washington (Nov. 8), opened second half in record-breaking fashion with 15 consecutive completions to set club record ... 16 completions in 17 attempts for 138 yards in second half, 22 connections, 30 attempts, 186 yards overall for impressive 73.3 completion percentage in 29–27 win ... tossed four-yard touchdown pass to Centers in third quarter, but saved his best for last when he took Cards 50 yards in five plays and 22 seconds to set up the game-winning field goal with two seconds left ... key play occurred in first half on third-and-seven play at Redskin 24-yard line when he ran for 16 yards on quarterback draw up the middle to the Washington eight-yard line as Cards scored three plays later to pull within 10–7 ... also scrambled for 27 yards to Redskin 22-yard line in opening drive of second half to set up another touchdown when he called his own number unbeknownst to his teammates ... playing before a national television audience and sold-out Sun Devil Stadium vs. Dallas (Nov. 15), authored one of the most improbable comeback efforts in recent NFL history ... rallied Cards from 28–0 deficit with 465 passing yards—314 in the second half—in furious comeback to within 35–28 and possession of the football on the Cowboy five-yard line ... had either of the two game-ending end zone incompletions been completed and led to a Cardinal victory, the outcome would have equalled the greatest regular-season comeback in NFL history, matching an effort authored by a quarterback to whom Plummer is frequently compared—Joe Montana, vs. New Orleans, Dec. 7, 1980 when the 49ers overcame a 35–7 deficit and won 38–35 in overtime ... in second half, completed 18 of 33 attempts for 314 yards and two touchdowns ... the 465 passing yards set a Sun Devil Stadium NFL high and ranked third overall in Cardinal history, trailing only 522 yards by Boomer Esiason at Washington (1996) and 468 by Neil Lomax at Washington (1984) ... the 56 attempts rank fourth in team history, 37 completions tie for seventh ... 465 passing yards is just five yards shy of most by second-year player in NFL history behind Dan Marino (470 in 1984), Vinny Testaverde (469 in 1988), and Johnny Lujack (468 in 1949) ... finished first half in non-descript manner with 13 completions in 25 attempts for 151 yards ... down 28–0, came out throwing on scoring drive at end of first half ... marched the Cards 74 yards in 11 plays, capped by two-yard scoring toss to Sanders to shave lead to 28–7 at intermission ... opened second half with consecutive touchdown drives of 60 and 73 yards, the first capped by a two-yard Bates run, the second a four-yard touchdown toss to Moore to cut the Dallas lead to 35–21 ... marched Cards 70 yards in eight plays and only one minute, 30 seconds at 4:39 mark of fourth quarter to pull within 35–28 ... Arizona regained possession of the ball with 52 seconds left at its own 22-yard line with no timeouts left ... connected with Metcalf for 16 yards, and after an incompletion, found Moore deep over the middle for a 57-yard gain to the Cowboy five-yard line as clock ticked down ... a spike stopped the clock with 11 seconds left, and after an incompletion near the back of the end zone toward Sanders, three seconds remained ... lofted a fade to Moore with Dallas defender Kevin Smith's back turned to the play, but a no-call for pass interference ended the storybook comeback ... finished with 31 completions in 56 attempts for 465 yards and three touchdowns ... the next week using a variety of rollouts and scrambling to buy time to find his receivers at Washington (Nov. 22), along with mixing in the no-huddle offense, pushed Cards to 31–0 lead in first half, but saw Redskins stage improbable comeback in wild 45–42 Arizona victory ... connected on eight of 16 attempts for 154 yards and a touchdown in first half, and added scoring runs of 10 and one yards as Arizona vaulted to 31–6 lead at halftime ... found Centers in the back corner of the end zone following a scramble to daylight in third quarter as he evaded a sack attempt by Redskins lineman Kenard Lang for nine-yard scoring pass to give Cards 38–13 lead with 4:01 left in third period ... after Washington scored on next three possessions to come within 38–35 with nine minutes left, took Cards 55 yards in 10 plays, capped by a one-yard sneak for his third touchdown of the game and 45–35 advantage ... key play in that drive was a 35-yard pass to Sanders who eluded three Redskin defenders to shake free ... finished with 17 completions, 28 attempts, 251 yards with two touchdowns and one interception ... three rushing touchdowns were most by an NFL quarterback since Saint Archie Manning vs. Chicago (Oct. 2, 1977) ... completed 20 of 27 attempts for 250 yards with one touchdown plus two interceptions at Kansas City (Nov. 29) as Cards battled poor field position (average drive start was own 21-yard line) and played catch-up the entire game ... fired completions of 13, 11, 18 yards in second quarter scoring drive to get Cards on the board ... then connected on five of six passes for 61 yards in touchdown drive in second quarter, capped by a 10-yard toss to Moore to cut Chiefs' lead to 14–10 at halftime ... found wide open Sanders over the middle for 40-yard gain to set up third period touchdown ... sacked five times, however, and saw winds gusting to 35 mph carry his passes away from open receivers on numerous occasions ... though first play from scrimmage vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) was an aborted play, regrouped in grand fashion with 108 yards passing in first quarter (five completions in nine attempts), including 20-yard shovel pass scoring play to running back Adrian Murrell and another short pass, long run of 54 yards to Centers ... then suffered through stretch of 11 consecutive incompletions before righting the ship in fourth quarter ... finished with 18 completions in 40 attempts for 263 yards ... waved the magic wand again at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) with his seventh fourth-quarter comeback victory in just 23 NFL starts, a 20–17 overtime win ... in first half, completed five of nine attempts for 65 yards, then responded in second half with 13 completions in 17 attempts for 169 yards ... completed eight of final 10 pass attempts in fourth quarter and overtime, including a nine-yard scoring strike to Moore, a 30-yard completion to Moore in overtime, and a perfect fade route to Moore for 16 yards three plays later to set up the game-winning field goal ... celebrated his 24th birthday (Dec. 19) with another impressive comeback effort as he took Cards 73 yards on six plays with just 1:21 left to allow kicker Chris Jacke to nail game-winning 36-yard field goal as time expired in 19–17 win over New Orleans (Dec. 20) ... started game red hot with 22 completions in 30 attempts for 239 yards in first half, including eight connections for 85 yards to Sanders ... but Cards faced 10–6 deficit after New Orleans' Sammy Knight returned a second-quarter interception 39 yards for a touchdown ... rose to the challenge in fourth quarter facing 17–16 deficit with 1:21 to play ... backed up to his own eight-yard line, connected with Sanders over the middle for gains of 25 and 28 yards on consecutive plays ... following a procedure penalty that resulted in a second-and-15 near midfield, scrambled up the middle for 21 yards to the New Orleans 23-yard line, ran a quarterback keeper for four yards with 30 seconds left, then saw Jacke send home the game-winning points ... completed 22 of 30 passes for 239 yards in first half, finishing 32 of 44 for 394 yards ... amazingly, posted first-down numbers of 19 of 24 for 293 yards... honored as NFL player-of-the-week by Miller Lite ... capped improbable season in improbable fashion in finale vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) ... delivered the Cardinal franchise its first postseason berth since 1982 as he completed 10-yard pass to Sanders with three seconds left to set up a 52-yard game-winning field goal by Jacke in 16–13 win ... started game with only one completion for eight yards in first five attempts ... later settled down to connect on 10 of 14 tosses for 150 yards as the half ended with two key plays ... connected with Centers for 23-yard gain on third-and-nine play in first-quarter scoring drive for a touchdown ... later in first half completed 20-yarder to Sanders on third-and-15 play as Cards settled for field goal and 10–0 lead ... started slowly again in second half with four consecutive incompletions and a sack ... after San Diego tied game at 13–13 with fourth-and-20 touchdown pass with 16 seconds left, came through in the clutch on the final toss to Sanders after Metcalf's 46-yard kickoff return to set up Jacke's game-winning kick ... guided Arizona to its first postseason victory in 51 seasons as he led the way in a 20–7 upset victory in the wild card playoff win at Dallas (Jan. 2) ... connected on 19 of 36 pass attempts for 213 yards while avoiding a sack for only the second time in 1998 ... started game with four completions in first six attempts, highlighted by a 59-yard connection with Sanders over the middle to the Cowboy 14-yard line ... completed the scoring drive when he patiently drew the Dallas defense ished third in the NFC ... followed 65-tackle effort in 1996 with 58 tackles, 5 sacks, and career-best 18 hurries in '97, 51 tackles and team-best 10 sacks last year ... University of Illinois teammate Kevin Hardy selected by Jacksonville one slot ahead of Rice (second overall) in the 1996 NFL Draft. ●1998: Returned to rookie-season form to lead club in sacks (10), quarterback pressures (23), and recovered fumbles (4) ... also deflected five passes and forced one fumble ... finished season with 29 solo tackles and 12 assists as 16-game starter ... four two-sack games ... after just five combined tackles in first two games, broke open vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) with 4 tackles, 2 sacks, 1 fumble recovery and 10-yard return, and 4 hurries ... the recovery and return set up the go-ahead touchdown late in 17–3 victory in home opener vs. Eagles ... also had another sack nullified by offsides penalty ... four tackles and a third-quarter sack in 20–17 win at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... frequently played in upright stance at line, dropping into zone coverage as defensive tackle Rashod Swinger came into game at end ... another active game vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) as a down lineman and upright end with four tackles and knocked down a pair of passes ... also added three hurries and four quarterback hits ... three tackles in 20–7 win over Chicago (Oct. 11) and returned a Curtis Enis fumble 29 yards to the Bear 21-yard line to set up 10–0 Card lead ... monster game at Detroit (Nov. 1) with 2 sacks, 4 hurries, and 1 forced fumble and recovery in 17–15 win ... stripped Lion passer Charlie Batch of the football and made the recovery in the first quarter ... also hit Batch and replacement Frank Reich six other times ... another productive game vs. Washington (Nov. 8) with six combined tackles, including his second consecutive game with two sacks as he constantly pressured Redskin quarterback Trent Green and disrupted the Redskin passing game in 29–27 victory ... in rematch with Redskins at Washington (Nov. 22), peppered 'Skins with two sacks, had a third negated by penalty, and posted five hurries in 45–42 win ... key play on Card interception in waning seconds of game as his pressure forced Green to throw high and ball was tipped by Redskin receiver Michael Westbrook and snatched by Card safety Kwamie Lassiter to seal the win ... facing double teams at Kansas City (Nov 29), limited to one solo tackle and two hurries ... two solo tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) but missed majority of defensive snaps in second half after rib injury ... pushed season sack total to 10 vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20) with drop of Saint passer Kerry Collins on final play of third quarter of 19–17 win ... just one solo tackle from scrimmage vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) but made key fumble recovery in third quarter when Charger passer Craig Whelihan mishandled the center exchange ... Cards turned possession into field goal and 13–3 lead in eventual playoff-clinching 16–13 victory ... although just one assisted tackle, pressured Dallas passer Troy Aikman numerous times and registered four hurries in 20–7 wild card playoff win at Dallas (Jan. 2) ... one solo stop in divisional playoff loss at Minnesota (Jan. 10). ●1997: Started all but the season finale ... battled through effects of training-camp virus when he lost 15 pounds and missed the entire preseason ... finished sophomore season with 58 tackles (32 solo), 5 quarterback sacks, team-high 18 hurries, 4 tackles for loss, 1 interception, and 1 forced fumble ... also knocked down six passes at the line of scrimmage ... three sacks in first two games pushed his 20-game total to 15.5 sacks, just one sack short of O'Neal's league best of 16.5 sacks in his first 20 NFL games (1985–86) ... hospitalized in Phoenix with virus two days into training camp ... though stamina was a concern due to the virus, still managed three tackles and a sack in season opener at Cincinnati (Aug. 31) ... eight tackles in 25–22 overtime victory vs. Dallas (Sept. 7), highlighted by two sacks against talented Dallas left tackle Mark Tuinei .... four stops and provided a new wrinkle for the Card defense as he opened the game as a stand-up defensive end at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... Cards' defensive alignment featured three down linemen, two stand-up ends, three linebackers, and three defensive backs as Arizona held Bucs to no first downs rushing and shut down both Warrick Dunn (10–27) and Mike Alstott (8–27) ... notched fourth sack of the season and added two tackles vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... seven tackles and a diving interception in the first quarter at Philadelphia (Oct. 19) when outside linebacker Jamir Miller pressured Eagle passer Rodney Peete into a hurried throw ... productive and active day vs. Tennessee (Oct. 26) with 7 tackles, 4 hurries, and 1 deflected pass ... similar to his play against Tampa Bay four weeks earlier, lined up periodically as a stand-up defensive end and flipped from side to side ... contributed to 31–21 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) with 7 tackles, 1 sack, 2 quarterback hurries, 2 tackles for loss, 1 deflected pass, and 1 forced fumble (Eagle passer Rodney Peete) ... though only two tackles at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16), knocked down three passes at the line of scrimmage ... in a classic battle with Pro Bowl tackle Jonathan Ogden at Baltimore (Nov. 23), posted five overall tackles and logged five hurries of Raven passer Vinny Testaverde in 16–13 Cardinal win ... three assists and a pair of hurries on quarterback Kordell Stewart vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... finished season with no tackles in final three games vs. Washington (Dec. 7), at New Orleans (Dec. 14), and vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21), the first times in his career he had been shut out of the tackle column. ●1996: Named NFL defensive rookie-of-the month for Sept., collecting 18 tackles, 5 sacks, 6 hurries, 2 tackles for loss, 1 forced fumble, and 1 fumble recovery ... season statistics included 37 solo tackles and 28 assists for 65 combined tackles, 12.5 sacks, 11 hurries, 6 tackles for loss, 1 fumble recovery, 2 forced fumbles, and 3 passes defensed ... opened NFL career at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) in grand fashion, nailing Colt running back Marshall Faulk for a two-yard loss on the first play of the game ... added three hurries of passer Jim Harbaugh ... followed with five tackles and his first NFL sack vs. Miami (Sept. 8), a seven-yard loss at quarterback Dan Marino's expense ... another sack at New England (Sept. 15) ... third sack and a fumble recovery to thwart a New Orleans scoring threat in 28–14 victory in the Superdome (Sept. 22) ... ran streak of consecutive games with sacks to four in 31–28 overtime win against St. Louis (Sept. 29), finishing with 2 tackles, 2 assists, 2 sacks for –14 yards, and 1 strip of Ram passer Tony Banks on the final play of regulation as time expired ... four tackles, including one for loss, at Dallas (Oct. 13) ... six stops and two pressures against talented Buccaneer tackle Paul Gruber in 13–9 win over Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) ... four solo tackles and knocked Giant passer Dave Brown out of the game with a first-quarter sack at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) ... followed with two more sacks in return match vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 17), a 31–23 Card victory ... key sack at Cards' 39-yard line vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) that forced Eagles to punt from midfield in 36–30 Arizona win ... one sack at Minnesota (Dec. 1) ... 3 tackles, 1 sack of Dallas passer Troy Aikman, and 1 tackle for loss vs. Dallas (Dec. 8) ... in addition to four tackles and two passes defensed in 27–26 comeback victory over Washington (Dec. 15), collected two sacks of quarterback Gus Frerotte in the third quarter ... managed one solo tackle and one assist in season finale at Philadelphia (Dec. 22), marking the first time in six games he did not register a sack. ●College/Personal: Two-time all-America at Illinois with 45 career quarterback sacks, shattering the previous Illini record of 23 by Scott Davis (1983–87) ... also broke Big Ten Conference sack record of 36 by Michigan's Mark Messner (1985–88) ... consensus junior all-America who opted to return to school for his senior year rather than turn professional ... school-record 16 sacks as a junior and 12 as a senior as he and Hardy terrorized opponents ... recorded five sacks against Washington as a junior ... all-Illinois selection at Chicago's Mt. Carmel High School ... led squad to 26–2 mark and pair of Illinois 5-A titles ... prep track teammate of former Syracuse quarterback and 1999 Eagle first-round (second overall) draft pick Donovan McNabb at Mt. returned two interceptions for touchdowns to raise his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's Cardinal career record of five (1960–72) ... selected 1997 defensive back-of-the-year by NFL Alumni ... also contributed 70 tackles (39 solo), 17 passes defensed, 2 quarterback pressures, and 1 forced fumble ... named NFC defensive player-of-the-week for his work against Irvin following Cards' 25–22 upset win over Dallas (Sept. 7) ... first interception of the season in second quarter ... limited the perennial Pro Bowler Irvin to just four receptions and 18 yards, his lowest average-per-catch mark in a game since 1991, in thrilling 25–22 overtime win over Cowboys ... Irvin caught his final pass with two minutes gone in the third period as Williams shut him out for the final 12 minutes of the third quarter, all 15 minutes of the fourth quarter, and eight minutes of overtime, a combined total of 36 minutes ... returned a third-quarter interception 42 yards for the fifth touchdown of his career at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) and added six tackles and batted away two passes ... third interception of the season with five tackles and a forced fumble vs. Minnesota (Oct. 5) ... left game in first half with jammed neck, but returned in the second half to finish the contest ... returned a second-quarter interception 30 yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 12) for his sixth career touchdown via interception return, breaking the team record held by Wilson ... added four solo stops and a pair of assists ... three tackles in 31–21 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 2) and limited Eagle receiver Irving Fryar to two receptions before leaving the game in the fourth quarter with an ankle/foot injury ... again harnessed Irvin to just two receptions (16 and 20 yards) in return match at Dallas (Nov. 9) with three solo stops ... quiet but effective day in 16–13 win at Baltimore (Nov. 23) with four tackles as Raven passer Vinny Testaverde was held to just 193 yards passing and the leading receiver was fullback Bam Morris (six receptions) ... five tackles and batted away two passes vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30) ... picked off Redskin passer Jeff Hostetler in the first quarter vs. Washington (Dec. 7), collected six tackles, and batted away another pass later in game ... left contest midway in the fourth period with jammed neck and did not return ... thrown at just one time in New Orleans homecoming (Dec. 14) and intercepted in the end zone ... three solo tackles and one assist in 29–26 season finale victory over Atlanta (Dec. 21). ●1996: Forged splendid season with third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance and then career-high 74 combined tackles ... also 20 passes defensed, 6 interceptions, 1 sack, and 1 fumble recovery ... three tackles in opener at Indianapolis (Sept. 1) ... recovered a fumble by Dolphin running back Karim Abdul-Jabbar on first play of second half vs. Miami (Sept. 8) ... in New Orleans homecoming, made two tackles and swatted away two passes in 28–14 win over the Saints (Sept. 22) ... in classic match at Texas Stadium (Oct. 13), went head-to-head with Irvin in the Dallas star's first game following a five-week league-imposed suspension ... held Irvin to 51 yards receiving on five catches and a long reception of 13 yards, pulled down an interception, batted away two passes, and posted seven tackles ... four tackles and four deflected passes vs. Tampa Bay (Oct. 20), including one pass in the end zone to thwart a Buccaneer scoring threat and another on the final play of the game to seal the 13–9 victory ... fourth career double-interception game with a pair of thefts vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 27) ... six tackles at Washington (Nov. 10) and matched favorably with Henry Ellard who managed just one reception for 19 yards ... fine all-round game in 36–30 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 24) with nine tackles, his fifth interception of the season, and a key sack near midfield in the second quarter to force a punt ... in return outing against Dallas (Dec. 8), Irvin answered the call with eight receptions for 198 yards and a touchdown ... five tackles and swatted down two passes in 27–26 win over Washington (Dec. 15) ... placed an exclamation point on his season with a 65-yard interception return for a touchdown in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 22). ●1995: Second consecutive Pro Bowl berth ... consensus all-pro notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly, the Pro Football Writers Association, The Sporting News, and USA Today ... second team choice by Football Digest ... also named all-NFC by Football News and United Press International ... 46.5 solo tackles, 11 assists, 6 interceptions, 12 deflected passes, and 2 recovered fumbles ... scored three touchdowns—interception returns of 28 and 48 yards, and a blocked field-goal return of 72 yards ... six interceptions tied him with nine other players for fifth in the NFL ... five solo stops in the season opener at Washington (Sept. 3) ... four tackles the following week vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 10) ... sustained a mild knee sprain at Dallas (Sept. 24) and left the game in the second quarter ... 4 tackles, 3 deflected passes, and 1 interception return, a 28-yarder off quarterback Gus Frerotte for a touchdown to give the Cards a 10–7 lead in the second quarter of their 24–20 victory over Washington (Oct. 15) ... heroic effort in 20–14 overtime win vs. Seattle (Oct. 29) with a first-quarter interception, fourth-quarter fumble recovery, and two of the season's top hustle plays ... ran down Seahawk running back Lamar Smith from behind after a 68-yard run ... teamed with fellow defensive back Brent Alexander to strip Seattle's Chris Warren of the ball inside the Arizona 10-yard line after a 52-yard fourth-quarter run, preventing what could have been the game-winning points ... Williams recovered Warren's fumble in the Cardinals' end zone ... four tackles and three deflected passes vs. Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... scooped a field-goal attempt blocked by teammate Seth Joyner and raced 72 yards for six points on the final play of the first half at Carolina (Nov. 19) ... authored key play vs. Atlanta (Nov. 26) when he stripped Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski of the ball on a fumbled overtime snap to set the table for a 28-yard game-winning field goal on the next play in Arizona's 40–37 triumph ... four takeaways at San Diego (Dec. 9)—two second-quarter fumble recoveries and interceptions in the third and fourth periods ... added six tackles against the Chargers ... fifth interception of the season at Philadelphia (Dec. 17) but a mild knee sprain limited him to reserve duty in the second half ... returned an interception of Aikman 48 yards for his third touchdown of the season and posted eight tackles in Christmas night season finale vs. Dallas (Dec. 25). ●1994: Earned first Pro Bowl honor when he tied Cleveland safety Eric Turner for the NFL lead with nine interceptions ... nearest competitor among cornerbacks was the trio of San Francisco's Merton Hanks, L.A. Raiders' Terry McDaniel, and New England's Maurice Hurst, all with seven interceptions ... the nine pickoffs matched the Cardinals' entire team total of 1993 ... first team all-pro honors from Sports Illustrated and USA Today ... second-team notice from Associated Press, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football Digest ... all-NFC acclaim by Football News and United Press International ... flourished in new Head Coach Buddy Ryan's pressure-minded defensive scheme that isolated the cornerbacks ... responded to the challenge with the most interceptions (nine) by a Cardinal since safety Ken Stone in 1978 and the most by a Cardinal cornerback since Pat Fischer collected 10 in 1964 ... four interceptions during the months of Oct. and Nov. ... 46 tackles, 1 recovered fumble, and 16 deflected passes ... blocked a fourth-quarter punt in the home opener vs. the N.Y. Giants (Sept. 11) to set up the Cards' final score and close the Giants' lead to 20–17 ... squelched Cleveland's opening drive with his first interception at the Cards' 22-yard line in loss to Browns (Sept. 18) ... added six tackles ... four tackles, batted away one pass, and halted a Minnesota scoring drive at the Cardinal 20-yard line with a 21-yard return of his second interception of the season in 17–7 victory (Oct. 2) ... along with bookend cornerback James Williams, collected two interceptions in 19–16 overtime win at Washington (Oct. 16) to highlight effort that earned NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors ... first halted a Redskin scoring drive at the 16-yard line, then returned his second interception 43 yards to the 22-yard line to set up a fourth-quarter touchdown and bring the Cards within five points ... also recovered a blocked field goal in overtime ... frequently matched against Irvin, posting two tackles, two pass deflections, including an impressive "jump ball" against the taller Irvin in 28–21 loss (Oct. 23) ... set up Cards' opening touchdown with first-quarter interception in 20–17 overtime victory over Pittsburgh (Oct. 30) ... though he posted just two tackles, swatted away two passes as Giants completed just nine of 26 attempts in 10–9 Arizona victory at the Meadowlands (Nov. 13), the Cards' first victory at Giants Stadium since 1983 ... after Eagle receiver Fred Barnett burned the Cardinals for 11 receptions, 173 yards, and two touchdowns in the season's first meeting, Williams covered Barnett one-on-one in the rematch in Arizona, rising to the challenge to harness Barnett to four catches for 24 yards in Cards' 12–6 win over Philadelphia (Nov. 20) ... also pulled down an interception at the goal line to halt an Eagle drive and recovered a Herschel Walker fumble in Cardinal territory with nine minutes left in the game to preserve a 9–3 lead ... snuffed a Chicago drive with his seventh interception of the season at the 26-yard line vs. Bears (Nov. 27) ... eighth theft of the season and knocked away two passes in 30–12 victory at Houston (Dec. 4) ... ended a Redskin scoring threat with a goal-line interception near the end of the first half to preserve a 7–6 lead in 17–15 win over Washington (Dec. 11) ... swatted away four passes in 28–7 victory over Cincinnati (Dec. 18) ... closed season with five tackles at Atlanta (Dec. 24). ●1993: Complemented a steady, reliable performance at left cornerback with big-play ability to generate 42 tackles, 2 interceptions, 15 passes defensed, 2 hurries, and 2 fumble recoveries ... memorable effort against New Orleans with his first two professional touchdowns—a 20-yard fumble return in the first quarter, then a zig-zagging 46-yard return with a second-quarter interception off Saints' quarterback Bobby Hebert ... Williams' 12 points outscored seven NFL teams that day ... also added four tackles and knocked away a pass ... during the course of the season, his unheralded effectiveness was a key to a Cards' defense that allowed just 14 touchdown passes, tying for fourth in the league ... called upon for just 12 tackles and three passes defensed over first six contests ... set up Cards' only touchdown with 41-yard interception return in first quarter of 16–3 victory over Philadelphia (Nov. 7) ... four solo stops and swatted away two passes at Dallas (Nov. 14) ... impressive play came when Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith broke three tackles to turn a seven-yard gain into a footrace, but Williams caught the Dallas Pro Bowler from behind to stop an 86-yard pass play at the two-yard line, running through field judge Don Orr near midfield to make the play ... underscored his "never-say-quit" attitude again the following week at the N.Y. Giants

(Nov. 21) by chasing down New York running back Rodney Hampton after a 62-yard gain, forcing him out of bounds at the 11-yard line ... 2 solo stops, 1 deflected pass, and 1 recovered fumble to stop a Lion scoring drive at the Cards' 25-yard line vs. Detroit (Dec. 12) ... 2 tackles, 1 pass defensed, and 2 hurries on blitzes from his corner spot in 17–6 victory vs. the N.Y. Giants (Dec. 26). ●1992: Rebounded admirably from a trying start during his sophomore season to finish impressively ... started all 16 games at right cornerback, posting 48 tackles, a team-high 13 passes defensed, 3 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery, and 1 forced fumble ... after just 10 tackles (none in two contests) and only three passes defensed in the first five outings, regrouped to collect 38 stops, 3 interceptions, and 10 pass deflections in the last 11 games as a key element in the Cardinals' defensive resurgence ... broke slump with his first interception and three passes defensed at Philadelphia (Oct. 25) as the Eagles managed just nine pass completions ... appeared to be headed for the end zone on the interception but was stopped short when he ran into a roadblock of an Eagle player and a game official near the goal line ... two touchdowns nullified by officials' rulings ... scooped a fumble and raced 61 yards for an apparent game-winning score in fourth quarter at L.A. Rams (Nov. 8), but touchdown was nullified when teammate Eric Swann was flagged for an illegal block during Williams' return ... Cards scored the go-ahead touchdown on the ensuing possession in 20–14 victory ... two weeks later vs. Dallas (Nov. 22), made diving interception and raced 78 yards for another potential touchdown and 14–3 Cardinal lead, but he was ruled down by contact ... also posted seven tackles vs. Cowboys ... played solid game in 19–0 shutout over N.Y. Giants (Dec. 12) with three solo tackles and two passes defensed as Giants completed just nine of 25 pass attempts ... five solo stops and fourth-quarter interception in season finale vs. Tampa Bay (Dec. 27). ●1991: Posted one of the most memorable performances by an NFL rookie cornerback in recent seasons ... named NFC defensive rookie-of-the-year by the NFL Players' Association ... consensus all-rookie selection at cornerback ... six interceptions gave him a share of the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve that notoriety since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1981 ... prior to that, the last rookie to turn the trick was Detroit Hall of Famer Lem Barney (10) in 1967 ... additionally, posted 48 tackles, 17 passes defensed, and 2 forced fumbles ... lined up for 852 of 967 defensive snaps to rank second in playing time to free safety Michael Zordich (861) among Cardinal defensive backs ... in first NFL start, collected 3 tackles, 1 interception, and 4 deflected passes in Cards' 24–14 victory at L.A. Rams (Sept. 1) ... second interception the following week against the Eagles (Sept. 8) plus a fumble recovery in end zone ... both efforts thwarted Philadelphia scoring drives in 26–10 victory at Veterans Stadium ... did not start at Washington (Sept. 15) due to ankle sprain but still saw duty as reserve ... seven tackles and a pass defensed at the N.Y. Giants (Oct. 6) ... played all 55 defensive snaps and collected three tackles and batted away a pair of passes against Atlanta's "Red Gun" offense in 16–10 Cardinal victory (Oct. 20) ... added third theft of season at Dallas (Nov. 3) along with four tackles ... tallied fourth interception of season and swatted away two other passes vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) ... picked off John Elway twice at Denver (Dec. 15), both times setting up Cardinal scores ... finished impressive rookie season with five tackles vs. New Orleans (Dec. 22) in season finale. ●College/Personal: Former walk-on at Southern in 1988 who shared national lead in interceptions with 11 as a senior in 1990 ... ranked second with seven as a junior ... 218 tackles, 20 interceptions, and 25 pass deflections in three collegiate seasons ... as football walk-on during his sophomore year, earned a starting role by the fifth game of the season ... all-district most valuable player at Fortier High School in his native New Orleans, Louisiana ... in talent-rich New Orleans, he played against or with five future NFL defensive backs—Hurst (New England), Kevin Lewis (San Francisco), Garry Lewis (L.A. Raiders), Michael Lindsey (L.A. Rams), and Ashley Ambrose (Indianapolis) ... Ambrose, Hurst, K. Lewis, and Williams attended Alcee Fortier High School together ... father, Lawrence George Williams, a laboratory supervisor for Union Carbide, gave Williams his unusual first name to avoid saddling him, along with his brother, Achilles, with common monikers similar to his own ... declined academic scholarship to Dartmouth to follow his father and brother to Southern ... enrolled at Southern to pursue interest in student government, not football ... a freshman senator and sophomore class vice president at Southern ... earned bachelor's degree in accounting from Southern in four years with a 3.2 grade-point average ... enrolled in graduate school when drafted by Cardinals ... to underscore his conditioning dedication, Williams was the only Cardinal to post a sub-2:00 time when new Arizona Head Coach Buddy Ryan held a mandatory pre-training camp 880-yard run, posting an impressive 1:58 time on July 6, 1994 ... selected by state panel in 1998 as Arizona's Outstanding Professional Athlete ... wife Tracy holds a master's degree of business administration in agricultural economics from the University of Illinois ... became licensed minister during the past off-season ... the couple resides in Phoenix with daughters Saenea (March 26, 1997) and Tirzah (March 7, 1999).●

1998 Review

1998 Review

There was a revival in the desert in 1998! The Arizona Cardinals, fielding one of the National Football League's youngest teams, emerged from the shadow of 13 consecutive non-winning seasons to first energize, then reward their fan base, surprise pundits, and generally impress the nation's football public with one of the season's true feel-good stories.

The Cards, or "Wild Cards" as they would come to be known by season's end, played with style, verve, and an amazing flair for the dramatic.

Harrowing endings became almost routine. Turnabout finally was fair play. After losing six of nine games decided in the final minute or overtime en route to a disappointing 4–12 record in 1997, the '98 Cardinals, a.k.a. the "Cardiac Cards," turned the tables on the close encounters, setting an NFL record with seven victories (in eight decisions) by three points or less. They won four contests on game-ending field goals by two different kickers.

Seven of their nine victories were achieved by 18 combined points.

They emerged from their breakthrough season secure in the knowledge they had gained respect with a significant list of franchise milestones.

•First postseason appearance since 1982, ending the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years.

•First postseason appearance in a non-strike season since 1975.

•First postseason victory since 1947 when the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28–14 for the NFL championship.

•First winning season since 1984.

•First 10-win season since 1976.

•Five-win improvement from 1997, the franchise's best two-season swing since Head Coach Don Coryell took the 4–9–1 Cardinals of 1973 to a 10–4 record in 1974

•Eight victories vs. the NFC, the Cards highest in-conference victory total since 1976.

Quarterback Jake Plummer led the Cardinals to comeback victories in seven of their nine triumphs.

Shaky Start

The season began inauspiciously. Disheartening one-sided losses at Dallas and Seattle saddled the Cardinals with their fifth 0–2 start in seven seasons.

They returned to Arizona for their week three home opener against Philadelphia. The two old rivals fought to a scoreless standoff through three quarters.

As the fourth quarter began, the playoffs seemed a remote possibility. But 17 unanswered points in its final three possessions produced a 17–3 Arizona victory. In hindsight, the rally also salvaged the season.

Righting The Ship

The next week, the Cards weathered the emotion of their first regular-season appearance in St. Louis since departing for Arizona in 1988 with a workmanlike 20–17 victory, the Cards' first triumph of three points or less.

The Cards split their next two assignments, suffering their only setback of three points or less at the hands of the Oakland Raiders and downing the visiting Chicago Bears on the strength of eight takeaways that would share the NFL season single-game lead. Arizona stood 3–3 with an eye on bettering the .500 mark. But the New York Giants, a traditional Cardinal nemesis, had other ideas, and handed Arizona its worst defeat of the season, a never-in-doubt 34–7 setback at Giants Stadium.

Three more victories of three points or less over the next four weeks at Detroit, vs. Washington, and at Washington propelled the Cardinals to 6–5.

The latter success at the nation's capital Nov. 22 capped a hair-raising two-week span. One week after coming within five yards of overcoming a 28–0 deficit against the Dallas Cowboys,

Arizona watched a seemingly insurmountable 31–0 second-quarter lead dissolve to 38–35 and 45–42 in the fourth quarter in the face of a withering Washington comeback that featured touchdowns on six consecutive Redskins possessions, including the first five drives of the second half. The contest also marked the first time in Cardinals' history they allowed 40 or more points and won!

Suddenly, the 6–5 Cardinals were entertaining postseason thoughts. Those lofty hopes quickly subsided with sobering losses at Kansas City to cap Thanksgiving weekend, and again in the rematch with the Giants, the latter setback dropping the Cards to 6–7 with only three games to play.

The Playoff Run

In all likelihood, Arizona would have to run the table in its final three assignments at Philadelphia and at home versus New Orleans and San Diego to reach the playoffs.

That's exactly what the Cards did in their now-patented three-points-or-less style!

In all three exhilarating pivotal victories, the Cardinals prevailed behind comebacks from second-year quarterback Jake Plummer and game-ending field goals by mid-season acquisition Chris Jacke.

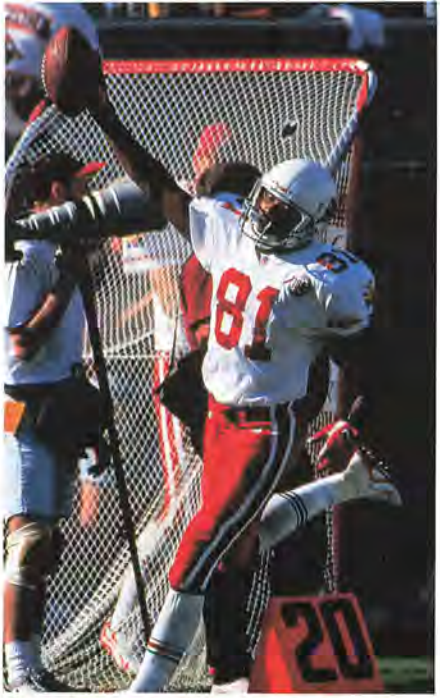
Dec. 13 at Philadelphia, Arizona returned to .500 and earned its first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with a 20–17 overtime triumph at Veterans Stadium.

Plummer recorded his seventh career fourth-quarter/overtime comeback victory by completing eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown after Philadelphia took its first and only lead at 17–10 early in the fourth quarter.

On the Cards' final three possessions, Plummer drove Arizona 66 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 17–17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positioned the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempts with 11 seconds remaining in regulation, and directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal.

Dec. 20 at Sun Devil Stadium, Plummer, one day past his 24th birthday, rallied the Cardinals again in the fourth quarter. Even though the Cards amassed 513 total yards, their highest output in 37 games, a New Orleans touchdown pass with 1:21 to play gave the Saints a 17–16 lead and also set the stage for Plummer's eighth comeback in his 25th NFL game.

Starting the final possession at their own eight-yard line, the Cardinals covered 73 yards in six plays, beginning with pass completions of 25 and 28 yards to wide receiver Frank Sanders and ending with Plummer runs of 21 and four yards following one incompletion.



Frank Sanders led the NFC and ranked second in the NFL with a career-best 89 pass receptions.

Jacke followed with his fourth field goal of the contest, a 36-yarder, his 13th career game-winner.

Dec. 27 at Sun Devil Stadium, free safety Kwamie Lassiter equaled the NFL record with four pass interceptions, but in the end it was Plummer and Jacke again teaming for the heroics.

Arizona clung to a late 13–6 lead despite San Diego's league-leading defense that limited the Cardinals to just two field goals off five turnovers while frustrating Arizona into a season-low 25 yards rushing.

The Chargers' misfiring offense produced a late 10-play, 68-yard drive, culminating with a game-tying 30-yard touchdown pass on fourth-and-20 with only 16 seconds to play and the Cardinals just one defensive stop away from the playoffs.

Kick returner Eric Metcalf, a former Charger, gave Plummer and Jacke their window of opportunity by returning San Diego's ensuing kickoff 46 yards to the Chargers' 44-yard line with eight seconds remaining.

The scene was set for Plummer, who hit Sanders with a quick 10-yard completion to the Chargers' 34-yard line.

Timeout was called with three seconds to play.

Jacke, who earlier missed two field-goal attempts, drilled his third field goal of the game, a 52-yarder and his 14th career game-winner.

"Wild Cards"

The Cardinals, the third and final wild-card team to qualify for the NFC playoffs, opened the postseason where their regular season had begun—at Texas Stadium—a House of Horrors that had housed eight consecutive Cowboy victories over the Cardinals, including the 1998 regular-season opener.

But this outcome was decidedly different!

The Cowboy faithful witnessed Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season that jettisoned the Cardinals to an unexpectedly comfortable 20–7 success, their first postseason victory in 51 years.

The outcome also extended Arizona's overall winning streak to four games, marked the Cowboys' first postseason home-field loss since 1983, and spelled only the Cards' second triumph over Dallas in the past 18 meetings.

The Cardinal defenders produced 3 pass interceptions, 15 deflected passes (6 by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), 4 quarterback sacks, 4 tackles for loss, and 1 forced fumble, stymied Cowboy quarterback Troy Aikman into 22-for-49 passing accuracy (191 yards), and limited Dallas to 260 total yards with just 96 yards rushing.

The Arizona defense carried a shutout deep into the fourth quarter before losing it to a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:33 to play.

"Wild Cards" Reach Divisional Playoff

The Cards' revival ended in Minnesota when Arizona dropped a 41–21 decision to the Vikings and their NFL-best 15–1 regular-season record, succumbing to the prolific Viking offense that turned three turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble) into 17 points.

After the Vikes drove 80 yards in 13 plays on their opening possession to take a 7–0 lead, interceptions of Plummer on the first two Cardinal possessions of the second quarter quickly (four plays both times) turned into another touchdown and a field goal for an insurmountable 17–0 Minnesota lead.

The Vikings, fielding the highest-scoring offense in NFL history, registered 416 total yards in balanced fashion (228 passing, 188 rushing) to crack the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point level for the fifth time during the season.

Burgeoning Offense

The Cardinals turned to Marc Trestman, their fourth offensive coordinator in as many years, and his "West Coast" offense for improvement through innovation and stability.

Growing pains were obvious early; improvement was undeniable late.

Through the season's first eight regular-season games, Arizona averaged 15.6 points and 246.1 total yards per game. In the final eight contests, the Cardinals averaged 25 points and 392.5 yards per game.

The unit's 45-point outburst at Washington (Nov. 22) was the Cards' best scoring barrage in 21 years or 332 games (49–31 vs. New Orleans, Oct. 23, 1977). Arizona's 31-point first half was its best opening-stanza output since logging 37 points vs. San Diego on Nov. 20, 1983.

In the second halves of back-to-back Nov. games vs. Washington (Nov. 8) and vs. Dallas (Nov. 15), the Cardinals gained 266 and 320 total yards, respectively.

Arizona's 480 total yards vs. Dallas on Nov. 15 was the Cards' highest output since a 498-yard explosion vs. the Rams on Sept. 29, 1996 in overtime, a span of 38 games.

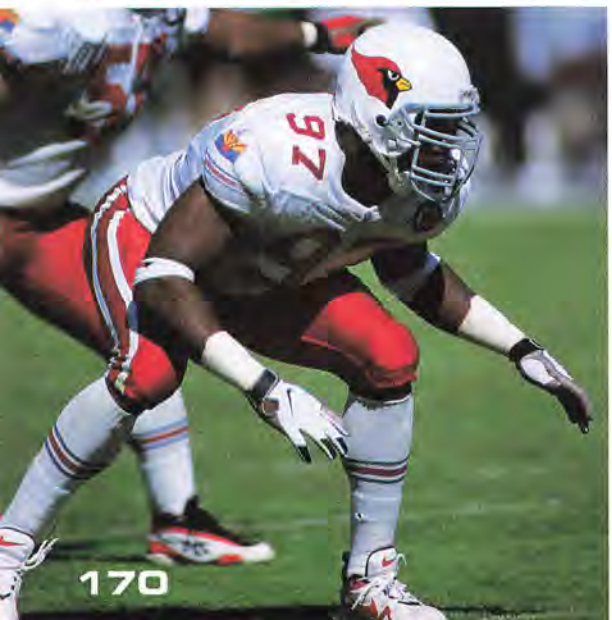
The Cardinals gained more yards rushing (187) than passing (164) against the Redskins on Nov. 8 for the first time since Sept. 14, 1997 at Washington (118 rush-116 pass).

Arizona cracked the 400-yard plateau four times in the season's final seven games.

The offense scored 325 points with 37 touchdowns, both team bests since 1993. Arizona's 18 rushing touchdown were more than 1996 (8) and '97 (9) combined!

Other numbers of improvement abounded: 315 first downs, most since

Simeon Rice led the 1998 Cardinals with 10 sacks and 23 quarterback pressures.



1988 (336); 1,627 yards rushing, most since 1993 (1,809); and, 88 penalties for 758 yards, best since 1993 (77 penalties, 644 yards).

The Cardinals also surrendered 50 quarterback sacks, a 28-sack improvement from 1997 when Arizona had the dubious distinction in leading the NFL in that category.

The Jake Factor

Plummer's emergence as the Cardinals' offensive catalyst and a budding NFL star is undeniable. So is his bond with the Arizona community stemming from his days as a star at Arizona State.

His impact cannot be underestimated.

Elected an offensive co-captain by his teammates during training camp at 23 years of age with just 10 NFL games (nine starts) of experience under his belt, the Boise, Idaho native accepted the leadership role in his typical uplifting manner.

Amazingly, seven of Arizona's nine regular-season victories were Plummer-led comebacks (defined as tied or trailing in the fourth quarter or overtime), raising his career (26 games) comeback total to nine!

Perhaps his most memorable comeback was one that didn't end in victory. Plummer shredded the Dallas defense for 465 yards passing (314 in the second half) on Nov. 15 in a furious comeback from a 28–0 deficit. In the end, the Cardinals were perched on the Cowboys' five-yard line trailing 35–28. Had either of Plummer's two game-ending end zone incompletions been caught and led to a Cardinal victory, it would have ranked as the greatest comeback in an NFL regular-season game.

"Captain Chaos" is what fans and media watchers dubbed Plummer for his uncanny ability to produce amid the mayhem and pressure of NFL clutch situations. He was honored with designation as a Pro Bowl alternate at season's end.

Plummer ranked second in the NFC to Green Bay's Brett Favre with 324 completions in 547 pass attempts. Plummer posted four rushing touchdowns, most by a Cardinal quarterback in over 20 years. His three rushing six-pointers at Washington on Nov. 22 were the most by an NFL quarterback since the Saints' Archie Manning turned the trick in 1977.

He set a team record with 15 consecutive pass completions vs. Washington on Nov. 8.

In the season's final nine games, Plummer completed 193 of 327 (.590) passes for 2,515 yards, 11 touchdowns, and 9 interceptions.

Offensive Cast

Plummer enjoyed a vastly improved supporting cast, starting with first-year running back Adrian Murrell who became only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons with his

Larry Centers became the Cards' career receiving leader.

1,042-yard campaign. In so doing, the former New York Jet joined the heady company of Curtis Martin (New England 1997, N.Y. Jets 1998), Terry Allen (Minnesota 1994, Washington, 1995), Eric Dickerson (L.A. Rams 1986, Indianapolis 1987), and Earnest Jackson (San Diego 1984, Philadelphia 1985), and Ricky Watters (Philadelphia 1997, Seattle 1998) and became the Cardinals' first 1,000-yard rusher since Garrison Hearst in 1995 (1,070).

Murrell also became one of only nine active NFL players to gain 1,000 yards in three or more consecutive seasons (Atlanta's Jamal Anderson, Pittsburgh's Jerome Bettis, Denver's Terrell Davis, Tennessee's Eddie George, the N.Y. Jets' Curtis Martin, Detroit's Barry Sanders, Dallas' Emmitt Smith, and Seattle's Ricky Watters).

Murrell's consecutive rushing touchdowns in games two-four were a Cardinal first since Ronald Moore in 1993. Murrell duplicated the feat seven weeks later with rushing touchdowns in games 11–13.

Murrell also shined in the postseason. He highlighted the Jan. 2, 1999 wild-card game at Dallas with a 74-yard jaunt through the middle of the Cowboys' defense, the Cards' longest play from scrimmage during the 1998 season and the longest run by a Cowboy opponent in postseason play.

Sanders and Rob Moore solidified their standing as one of the NFL's top pass-catching duos.

Sanders posted career-best numbers with 89

receptions for 1,145 yards for the season and 11 grabs for 190 yards Nov. 15 vs. Dallas. The former led the NFC and ranked second in the NFL to Miami's O.J. McDuffie (90). The latter matched the Rams' Isaac Bruce for the NFC lead.

The reliable Sanders' 31 third-down receptions rated second in the NFL to Minnesota's Cris Carter (32). Fifty-seven of Sanders' 89 receptions produced first downs. He also caught 40 percent (31) of Plummer's 83 third-down pass completions and logged five 100-yard eff[illegible]s.

A lingering mid-season pulled hamstring kept Rob Moore from duplicating his 1997 Pro Bowl season when he led the NFL with 1,584 receiving yards, yet he fought through the aggravation to appear in all 18 Cardinal games. He caught 67 passes for 982 yards and five touchdowns during the regular season, then led Arizona with 11 postseason clutches for 132 yards.

Rob Moore's 57-yard reception vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) was the Cards' longest regular-season play from scrimmage.

By season's end, his career receiving yardage total shattered the 8,000-yard barrier at 8,747 yards.

Pass-catching fullback Larry Centers became the Cardinals' career receiving leader on a 24-yard shovel pass from Plummer at Philadelphia on Dec. 13, surpassing previous pacesetter Roy Green's 522 catches (1979–90).

Centers again led NFC running backs in receptions, ranking second in the NFL to the Colts Marshall Faulk (86), extended his streak of catching passes in consecutive games to 89, and registered his longest career reception, a screen pass he turned into a 54-yard gain against the Giants on Dec. 6.

For the season, he caught 69 passes for 559 yards and two touchdowns to raise his career totals to 535 catches for 4,539 yards and 19 touchdowns. Additionally, one of his nine postseason receptions was a touchdown at Dallas, too.

Former Arizona State running back Mario Bates, a former New Orleans Saint, also contributed as Murrell's back-up. Bates, who assumed the Cards' short-yardage role, took advantage of his opportunities to post six rushing touchdowns, plus three more Jan. 10 at Minnesota in the divisional playoff game against the Vikings.

His two rushing touchdowns Oct. 11 vs. Chicago was a first by a Cardinal runner in 34 games. Two more rushing six-pointers vs. Washington on Nov. 8 gave Bates the distinction of being the first Cardinal to record multiple games with multiple rushing touchdowns since Moore in 1993.

Handy Eric Metcalf, acquired in a trade with San Diego, capably filled the role of third wide receiver, punt returner, and kickoff returner. He recorded his 500th career reception Sept. 20 vs. Philadelphia. Oct. 4 vs. Oakland, Metcalf combined 194 kickoff-return yards with 57 punt-return yards and one reception for two yards for 253 combined yards, his 13th career 200-yard total-yardage game and the second highest of his career.

Adrian Murrell dashed for over 1,000 yards in his first year as a Cardinal.

The only player in NFL history to return 11 punts and kickoffs for touchdowns, Metcalf pushed his career all-purpose yardage total past the 15,000-yard plateau by season's end.

Solid tight ends Johnny McWilliams, the starter, and Chris Gedney combined to contribute 48 receptions for 555 yards and five touchdowns. McWilliams' four touchdown grabs were his career high and matched Gedney's touchdown total of 1997, the most six-pointers by a Cardinal tight end since 1988.

Veteran left tackle Lomas Brown, who played in his 200th NFL game Oct. 11 against Chicago and made his 200th career start the next week against the Giants, anchored the improved offensive line that missed only five starts in 18 games. Besides Brown, right guard and first-year Cardinal Lester Holmes and right tackle James Dexter did not miss a start. Center Aaron Graham and left guard Chris Dishman missed two and three starts, respectively, due to injuries. Holmes, Graham, and Dishman were new to the starting lineup.

Defensively Speaking

The Arizona defense welcomed the arrival of highly-touted end Andre Wadsworth, the third overall selection of the 1998 NFL Draft and the first non-quarterback chosen, to a unit that already boasted the likes of end Simeon Rice, Pro Bowl tackle Eric Swann, linebackers Jamir Miller and Ronald McKinnon, and perennial Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams.

The unit regrouped following the midseason loss of Swann (knee) to play an instrumental role in the Cards' late-season playoff run.

Arizona registered 39 takeaways (20 pass interceptions, 19 fumble recoveries) to rank third in the NFL and nearly double its 1997 total of 20. As a matter of fact, the Cards recovered five enemy fumbles through the season's first three games to equal Arizona's team total of 1997.

The group's eight-takeaway performance (versus Chicago on Oct. 11 tied Seattle for the NFL season high.

At Detroit on Nov. 1, the Cardinals intercepted two passes and recovered a fumble in the Lions' first 15 plays from scrimmage.

On Oct. 4 against the Raiders, the Cards limited Oakland to 222 total yards, forced and recovered two fumbles, intercepted a pass, posted three quarterback sacks, and held the Raiders scoreless in the second half.

Of course, the Cardinal defense saved its best for Jan. 2 in its near shutout in the wild-card match at Dallas.

Williams was voted to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl. Despite only one regular-season interception, he sparkled in coverage. On Nov. 15, Williams shut down Dallas wide receiver Michael Irvin, snapping his streak of consecutive games with at least one reception at 117. (Irvin's previous blanking occurred Dec. 23, 1990 at Philadelphia.)

In two postseason games, Williams intercepted three passes, all momentum turners. The first two at Dallas helped set the tone for the Cardinals' upset victory; the third, a 47-yard return out of the Cards' end zone, gave Arizona new life after falling behind 7–0 at Minnesota.

Williams also found a promising partner at the opposite corner in rookie Corey Chavous. The former Vanderbilt star was inserted into the starting lineup over the final five regular-season games and both postseason tilts after beginning his freshman NFL season as a safety. He responded with interceptions in his first two starting roles at Kansas City on Nov. 30 and vs. the Giants on Dec. 6. The former was the first pickoff by a starting Cardinal cornerback other than Williams in 39 games.

Outside linebacker Miller and his inside complement McKinnon were the heart and soul of Arizona's defense. They led the Cards in total tackles with 150 and 127, respectively. Miller's figure was his career single-season best and included 87 team-leading solo stops.

McKinnon didn't limit his impact to stuffing ball carriers. He also made five pass interceptions, most by a Cardinal linebacker since E.J. Junior in 1985, to tie for the league lead among linebackers.

He recorded one of the finest individual defensive efforts in recent memory Oct. 11 versus the Bears. Three interceptions were a team linebacker record and a first for an NFL linebacker since Minnesota's Jack Del Rio accomplished the feat in 1993. McKinnon also returned a blocked Cardinal punt 31 yards for an Arizona first down on special teams and forced a fumble that produced a field goal.

McKinnon had a hand in 10 of Arizona's first 27 forced turnovers (5 interceptions, 3 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries).

Not to be upstaged, free safety Kwamie Lassiter, who replaced rookie Pat Tillman as the starter at Kansas City on Nov. 29, intercepted four Charger passes in the postseason-clinching regular-season finale victory versus San Diego on Dec. 27 to equal the NFL single-game record he now shares with 16 other players. Lassiter, who snared one pass in each quarter, also intercepted four passes as a non-starter primarily in "nickel" situations early in the season. He eventually led the Cardinals with eight interceptions.

Kwamie Lassiter equalled the NFL single-game interception record with four pickoffs vs. San Diego in the regular-season finale.

Strong safety Tommy Bennett, an 18-game starter, logged two of the season's most memorable plays, a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown at Philadelphia on Dec. 13 to earn NFC defensive player-of-the-week honors, and a 42-yard interception return for a near touchdown to seal the wild-card appearance at Dallas.

Wadsworth and Rice provided stability to the line.

Wadsworth missed all of training camp and agreed to contract terms after protracted negotiations the day prior to the Cards' Sept. 6 regular-season opener at Dallas. He played in his first NFL game the next day in a reserve role without practicing.

He quickly became a bellwether for the defense. He posted consecutive two-sack games (Sept. 27 at St. Louis, Oct. 4 vs. Oakland) to tie the NFL rookie mark of many players (most recently by New England linebacker Chris Slade in 1993).

Rice returned to his rookie form to lead the Cardinals in sacks (10), quarterback pressures (23), and recovered fumbles (4) while also deflecting five passes and forcing one fumble. Along the way he posted four two-sack games (Sept. 20 vs. Philadelphia, Nov. 1 at Detroit, Nov. 8 vs. Washington, and Nov. 22 at Washington).

Tackle Mark Smith missed most of Dec. with a severe ankle sprain, but continued to exhibit big-play potential. He combined eight team-leading tackles for loss with 9 sacks, 11 quarterback pressures, 2 deflected passes, 2 forced fumbles, and 1 recovered fumble.

Rashod Swinger capably replaced Swann and led Arizona's defensive linemen with 82 total tackles.

Special Teams

Place kicking took center stage for the Cardinals in 1998.

Irony placed two veteran kickers—left-footed Joe Nedney, whose season ended at Kansas City on Nov. 29 with a knee injury, and right-footed Chris Jacke, the former Green Bay Packer who saved Arizona's bacon repeatedly in the late going—into the hero's role.

Four times the pair booted game-winning field goals on the final play. On two other occasions, late fourth-quarter three-pointers provided leads the Cardinals held.

Chris Jacke won the final three regular-season games with final-play field goals.

Nedney ended the Nov. 8 Cardinal-Redskin game at Sun Devil Stadium with a 47-yard field goal as time expired. He also provided the margins of victory in two other contests. On Sept. 27 at St. Louis, he connected on a 29-yard field goal with 4:04 remaining in Arizona's 20–17 "homecoming" success. He orchestrated a similar scenario at Detroit on Nov. 1 with a career-long 53-yard field goal with 2:46 left in the Cards' 17–15 triumph.

Jacke played in the final four regular-season games and won the last three with field goals on the final plays, the 12th, 13th, and 14th game-winners of his career. He was named NFC special teams player-of-the-week for his four-field goal effort in the Cards' 19–17 victory over New Orleans on Dec. 20 that included his 36-yard game-winner. He booted seven field goals in the final two regular-season games.

Twenty-eight-year-old rookie punter Scott Player was steady, finishing the regular season with 41.7-yard gross and 35.9-yard net averages with 12 punts inside-the-20. He also made the first kickoff of his career (any level) at Kansas City on Nov. 29 following Nedney's injury.

Metcalf saved his best for last in the return department. His 46-yard kickoff return to the Chargers' 44-yard line on Dec. 27 with eight seconds left and the score knotted at 13–13 set the table for a 10-yard pass completion and Jacke's game-winning field goal to send Arizona to the playoffs.

The Blood Flows

The football fans of Arizona embraced the Cardinals in record numbers as the season drew to its dramatic conclusion.

The Cardinals sold 31,000 tickets to their postseason-clinching Dec. 27 regular-season finale against San Diego in one week to sell out the game.

That contest with the Chargers and the two playoff appearances at Dallas and Minnesota provided the largest viewing audiences in the history of three Phoenix television stations.

And when the Cardinals returned to Arizona from their postseason victory at Dallas, airport authorities estimated at least 10,000 fans greeted them on the tarmac.●

Cowboys 38, Cardinals 10

September 6, 1998 • Texas Stadium (63,602)

Two late second-quarter Dallas touchdowns ended a defensive struggle to lead the Cowboys to their ninth consecutive triumph over the Cardinals at Texas Stadium and hand Arizona its most one-sided loss in 30 outings (31–0 at New England, Sept. 15, 1996). The Cards struggled offensively, posting eight series of four plays or less, including five consecutive "three-and-outs" in the first half, failing to log a third-down conversion in 10 attempts, and gaining only 45 yards rushing. The Cards' 205 total yards were their lowest offensive output in 28 games (178 at Dallas, Oct. 13, 1996). Dallas found the range after scuffling through three punts, an interception, and a lost fumble on its first five possessions. Led by its veteran trio of quarterback Troy Aikman (22-for-32 for 256 passing yards and two touchdowns, plus two rushing touchdowns), running back Emmitt Smith (28 att., 122 yards), and wide receiver Michael Irvin (9 rec., 119 yards), the Cowboys' offense kicked into gear to tally three touchdowns in a span of four second- and third-quarter possessions. Eventually, the Cowboys gained 444 total yards, the most allowed by Arizona in 26 games (454 vs. N.Y. Jets, Oct. 27, 1996). Middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon was prominent with a pass interception, a fumble caused, and a fumble recovered in addition to 11 team-leading tackles (9 solos) on defense. Twenty-eight-year-old punter Scott Player also fared well in his first NFL game with a 46-yard average on eight boots, including a long of 55 yards.

Seahawks 33, Cardinals 14

September 13, 1998 • Kingdome (57,678)

Interception returns for touchdowns by Seattle's starting cornerbacks—Willie Williams (28 yards) and Shawn Springs (56 yards)—and a 72-yard pass interference-aided touchdown drive propelled the Seahawks to a 33–14 victory. Cardinal statistical advantages in total yards (274–244), first downs (17–16), passing yards (163–121), and third-down efficiency (33–27 percent) belied the final score. The verdict was never in doubt when Seattle raced to a 20–0 halftime lead on a first-possession field goal by former Cardinal Todd Peterson, Williams' pickoff and return on the Cards' next possession, the 72-yard drive that included a 41-yard pass interference flag at the Cards' four-yard line on Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams that led to the first of two Seahawk offensive touchdowns two plays later, and another Peterson field goal on the first half's final play. Seattle's defense successfully pressured Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer throughout the game, forcing three interceptions and seven sacks. Running back Adrian Murrell tallied his first Cardinal touchdown, and the first of the season against the Seahawks,at 9:37 of the third quarter, a four-yard end run to cap a nine-play, 62-yard drive. The Cards also dented the scoreboard when tight end Chris Gedney grabbed Plummer's first touchdown pass of the season, a 23-yarder, with 4:07 to play. Fullback Larry Centers caught seven passes, his highest total in his past 13 games. Defensive tackle Eric Swann, cornerback Tom Knight, and outside linebacker Jamir Miller each posted a sack.

Cardinals 17, Eagles 3

September 20, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (36,717)

The Cardinals earned their first victory of the season by cracking a three-quarter scoreless defensive struggle with 129 second-half rushing yards and 17 unanswered fourth-quarter points on their final three possessions. The Cardinal defense withstood favorable Philadelphia field position throughout the first half—the Eagles' eight possessions began between their 32- and 49-yard lines and crossed midfield on six occasions—without allowing a point. Arizona's failure to score spelled the first two-way scoreless first half in a Cardinal game in 154 outings (Oct. 30, 1988 vs. Dallas). Two key forced second-half turnovers—a third-quarter fumble forced by outside linebacker Patrick Sapp that thwarted an Eagle scoring threat at the Cardinals' five-yard line, and a fourth-quarter sack and fumble (–19 yards) forced by middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon in Philadelphia territory that defensive end Simeon Rice recovered and returned another 10 yards to the Eagles' 18-yard line—changed the game's momentum. The latter led to quarterback Jake Plummer's go-ahead seven-yard touchdown pass to tight end Johnny McWilliams five plays later. Running back Adrian Murrell's 145 rushing yards included 101 yards on 12 carries in the pivotal fourth quarter, highlighted by a game-clinching 25-yard touchdown jaunt with 1:52 to play. It was the Cardinals' first 100-yard rushing effort in 31 games (LeShon Johnson's team-record 214 yards at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). Rice's two sacks (–12 yards) spelled his first multiple-sack game in 17 outings. In addition to his key sack/forced fumble, McKinnon also led Arizona in tackles for the third consecutive game with 15 combined stops (11 solos). The Cards also were flagged for only three penalties for 14 yards. The latter was their lowest penalty yardage total in 41 games (minus five yards vs. Minnesota, Nov. 12, 1995). Arizona's first three points came on a 47-yard field goal by Joe Nedney, his career long.

Cardinals 20, Rams 17

September 27, 1998 • Trans World Dome (55,832)

The Cardinals' first regular-season appearance in St. Louis since departing for Arizona in 1988 was their second workmanlike victory in as many weeks, fueled by a 17-point second quarter, Arizona's initial first-half points of the season. The triumph improved the Cardinals' record to 2–2 for the first time since 1991 and propelled them into a share of first place in the NFC East Division. The Cards claimed the game's momentum by scoring on their three second-quarter possessions—22-yard Joe Nedney field goal, 13-yard Frank Sanders touchdown reception from quarterback Jake Plummer, and four-yard Adrian Murrell touchdown run. The latter marked the third consecutive game Murrell posted a rushing touchdown, a Cardinal first since Ronald Moore accomplished the feat in 1994, a span of 59 games. The Arizona defense limited the Rams to 264 total yards and just 15 pass completions without benefit of a turnover, providing the Cardinals their first road victory on artificial turf without a defensive turnover since the 1989 season opener at Detroit, a span of 147 contests. Arizona's 17–7 lead shrank to 17–10 on the final play of the first half when Rams' kicker Jeff Wilkins launched a 57-yard field goal, the longest three-pointer in Rams' history, the longest by a Cardinal opponent, and the 12th longest in NFL annals. Following a scoreless third quarter, St. Louis tied the game at 17–17 on rookie running back Robert Holcombe's second rushing touchdown, a four-yarder with 9:52 to play. But Arizona marched to Nedney's 29-yard game-winning field goal on its ensuing possession, a 10-play, 75-yard drive aided by a 43-yard pass interference call to the Rams' 10-yard line. The Cards' defense then stopped St. Louis three-and-out and turned the ball over to the Arizona offense, which ate the game's final 3:11 with eight plays and two first downs on four consecutive Murrell rushes, a seven-yard third-down Plummer-to-Sanders conversion pass, and three Plummer kneel-downs.

Raiders 23, Cardinals 20

October 4, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (52,178)

The Raiders prevailed in a battle of dueling defenses. Three crucial Oakland pass interceptions of Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer turned the tide. The first two, pilfered within the span of four second-quarter Arizona offensive plays, produced two quick Raider touchdowns, turning a 14–9 Cardinal lead into a 23–14 Oakland advantage. The first was a 46-yard touchdown return by Raider cornerback Charles Woodson, the 1997 Heisman Trophy winner. The second, a 28-yard return to the Arizona four-yard line by defensive back Marquis Walker, set the table for relief quarterback Donald Hollas' one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later. Arizona's third-quarter bid to regain the game's momentum was thwarted by Oakland's third interception. One play after recovering a Hollas fumble at the Raiders' 16-yard line, Plummer threw into the Oakland end zone toward fullback Larry Centers. The pass was intercepted by Eric Allen, the other Raider starting cornerback. The Arizona defense was spectacular, holding Oakland scoreless in the second half by forcing four punts and two fumbles. Overall, the Cardinal defenders held the Raiders to just 222 total yards (112 rushing, 110 passing) while registering 2 recovered fumbles, 1 interception, and 3 sacks. First-round draft choice Andre Wadsworth collected two of the three sacks and forced one of the two fumbles, the latter a key play that gave the ball to Arizona at its 31-yard line with 1:52 to play. The Raider defense limited Arizona to 236 total yards (187 passing, 49 rushing) and two-of-13 (15 percent) third-down conversion success. Eric Metcalf cracked the 15,000-yard career total yardage mark with his 13th 200-yard combined yardage day (194 kickoff return yards, 57 punt return yards, 2 yards receiving). Wide receiver Frank Sanders equalled his career high with 10 receptions for 118 yards, his fifth career 100-yard game.

Cardinals 20, Bears 7

October 11, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (47,860)

The Cardinals rode stellar collective (NFL season-high eight takeaways—four interceptions, four fumble recoveries) and individual (middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon—three interceptions, one forced fumble, five combined tackles) defensive performances to their third victory in four outings, a 20–7 triumph over the Chicago Bears in a battle of the NFL's two charter franchises that first met in 1920. Arizona tallied its 20 points off four of Chicago's eight turnovers—Joe Nedney's career-long 49-yard field goal (cornerback Aeneas Williams' first 1998 interception), a two-yard Mario Bates run (ex-Bear defensive end Carl Simpson forced fumble, defensive end Simeon Rice fumble recovery), another two-yard Bates run (Bates and safety Kwamie Lassiter kickoff return forced fumble, Lassiter fumble recovery), and a 40-yard Nedney field goal (McKinnon fumble caused, defensive end Andre Wadsworth fumble recovery). Bates tallied his touchdowns with his first three rushes as a Cardinal in a span of five second-quarter offensive plays. Bates' scores were the first multiple rushing touchdown effort by a Cardinal running back in 34 games (LeShon Johnson, 2 at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). McKinnon, whose three interceptions set a Cardinal record for linebackers, also returned a blocked Arizona fourth-quarter punt 31 yards for a first down. Chicago logged only 12 first downs, 66 yards rushing, and ran just 52 plays. The Bears' lone score, a 79-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Erik Kramer to wide receiver Bobby Engram with 2:30 to play, spoiled the Cardinals' bid to post their first shutout over the Bears since 1927. Arizona also enjoyed a 12-minute time-of-possession advantage (36:00–24:00). Tackle Lomas Brown played his 200th NFL game.

Giants 34, Cardinals 7

October 18, 1998 • Giants Stadium (70,456)

The Giants were methodical in their 14th home-field triumph over the Cardinals in the past 15 Giants Stadium meetings, playing balanced, error-free offensive football while their defense muffled the Cardinals' offense. New York's offense, ranked last in the NFL (239 total yards per game) entering the contest, amassed 390 total yards—141 rushing, 249 passing—without a turnover against a Cardinal defense that posted eight takeaways the previous week. New York's defense posted 8 sacks, 2 interceptions, and 1 fumble recovery while limiting Arizona to a season-low 194 total yards (62 rushing, 132 passing), allowing only one offensive play over 20 yards (25-yard reception by tight end Johnny McWilliams), no rushes over eight yards, and just one sustained drive, a seven-play, 58-yard march that produced the Cards' only touchdown, a 14-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to McWilliams. New York's four touchdowns—one in each quarter—were produced by four lengthy (66, 79, 80, 52 yards) drives. Quarterback Dave Brown made his first appearance as a Cardinal against his former teammates in the fourth quarter in relief of pressured starter Plummer. Giant quarterback Danny Kanell threw for three touchdowns and a career-high 259 yards. Tackle Lomas Brown made his 200th NFL start.

Cardinals 17, Lions 15

November 1, 1998 • Silverdome (66,087)

The Cardinals reached .500 at midseason for the first time since 1991 on the strength of six Lion turnovers (Arizona's defense produced three takeaways—two interceptions and a fumble recovery—on Detroit's first 15 plays from scrimmage), two touchdown passes by quarterback Jake Plummer, and kicker Joe Nedney's career-long 53-yard game-winning field goal with 2:46 to play. Both teams squandered early scoring opportunities (two interceptions and a fumble by Detroit, a fumble and a blocked field-goal attempt by Arizona) in the scoreless first quarter. The turnovers continued in the second quarter, but the offenses began to capitalize. Detroit struck first on a 28-yard Jason Hanson field goal following a Bryant Westbrook interception of Plummer. Then Zack Walz recovered a fumbled punt return by Lion Terry Fair at Detroit's 14-yard line. Three plays later, Plummer found wide receiver Frank Sanders for a 16-yard touchdown pass. Two more Hanson field goals staked Detroit to a 9–7 third-quarter lead before Plummer hit wide receiver Rob Moore with a 36-yard touchdown pass, the Cards' longest scoring play of the season, and a 14–9 Arizona advantage. Detroit regained the lead at 15–14 early in the fourth quarter with a nine-play, 85-yard touchdown drive, capped by fullback Tommy Vardell's one-yard run, followed by a failed two-point conversion attempt. The two teams exchanged punts before Arizona marched 39 yards on eight plays to reach the Detroit 35-yard line, setting the stage for Nedney's first career field goal over 50 yards. On Detroit's second play from scrimmage on its ensuing (and final) possession, tackle Mark Smith sacked Lion relief quarterback Frank Reich, who fumbled. Outside linebacker Tony McCombs, who also made his first career interception on the game's second play from scrimmage, recovered at Detroit's 16-yard line. Fullback Larry Centers made the 500th reception of his career. Defensive end Simeon Rice recorded two quarterback sacks (–6 yards) and forced a fumble he also recovered.

Cardinals 29, Redskins 27

November 8, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (43,159)

Joe Nedney kicked a long (47 yards), pressure-packed, game-winning field goal for the second consecutive week to cap Arizona's 22-point second half and a palpitating comeback victory. The win pushed the Cardinals over the .500 mark for the first time since 1994 (8–7). The Cards turned a 17–7 halftime deficit into a 26–17 lead with 19 unanswered points to open second-half scoring. Quarterback Jake Plummer fueled Arizona's 266-yard second half by completing his first 15 pass attempts following intermission to set the franchise record for consecutive connections (14, Kent Graham vs. St. Louis, 1996; Steve Beuerlein at Atlanta, 1994). A late nine-point Arizona lead appeared safe until Washington scored 10 points in 64 seconds—35-yard touchdown pass with 1:39 to play, and a 54-yard field goal with 35 seconds remaining after recovering its onsides kickoff—to take an improbable 27–26 lead. But it took Plummer only 27 seconds to drive the Cardinals 50 yards in five plays—pass completions of 15 (Larry Centers), 11 (Eric Metcalf), 18 (Frank Sanders), and 6 (Metcalf) yards—to set the table for Nedney's dramatic field goal with two seconds to play. Arizona's 351 total yards were its first 300-yard game of the season. The Cardinals posted more rushing yards (187) than passing yards (164) for the first time since Sept. 14, 1997 at Washington (118 rush-116 pass). The 187 rushing yards, led by Adrian Murrell's 107-yard day, his second 100-yard game as a Cardinal and the 10th of his career, were the highest Arizona team rushing total since Sept. 22, 1996 at New Orleans (267), a span of 38 games. Mario Bates scored two one-yard rushing touchdowns, his second two-touchdown effort of the season, a Cardinal first since 1993 (Ron Moore).

Cowboys 35, Cardinals 28

November 15, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (69,923)

The Cardinals' furious Jake Plummer-led rally fell five yards and seven points short in Arizona's first locally-televised home game since 1995 and the highest-scoring Cardinal-Cowboy meeting since 1967. Trailing 28–0 in the second quarter, the Cards began their comeback with a late second-quarter touchdown, then tallied six-pointers on three of their first four second-half possessions to cut the Dallas advantage to 35–28 with 3:09 to play. After forcing a Cowboy punt, Arizona regained possession of the ball at its own 22-yard line with no timeouts and 52 seconds to play. Plummer drove the Cards to the Dallas five-yard line with 11 seconds remaining on two pass completions—16 yards to Frank Sanders and 57 yards to Rob Moore. The final two plays of the game, Plummer throws into the Cowboy end zone, fell incomplete as time expired. Plummer's 465-yard passing day ranked third in team annals and second by a Cowboy opponent. The Cowboys raced to their commanding lead by scoring touchdowns on their second, third, fourth, and sixth possessions of the first half. The second (Sanders fumble on a reverse recovered at the Cardinals' 32-yard line) and fourth (Deion Sanders' 22-yard return of Plummer interception to Arizona's two-yard line) Dallas touchdowns primarily were the work of Arizona offensive turnovers. F. Sanders enjoyed career single-game bests with 11 receptions for 190 yards. Dallas wide receiver Michael Irvin's streak of 117 consecutive games with receptions ended. The Cardinal defense, which entered the game leading the NFL in takeaways, failed to force a fumble or make an interception or sack, also allowed 354 total yards, including 118 yards rushing by Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith.

Cardinals 45, Redskins 42

November 22, 1998 • Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (63,435)

Turnabout was fair play in the Cardinals' best scoring effort in 21 years. One week after coming within five yards of surmounting a 28–0 deficit against the Dallas Cowboys, Arizona watched a seemingly insurmountable 31–0 second-quarter lead dissolve to 38–35 and 45–42 in the fourth quarter in the face of a withering Washington comeback that featured touchdowns on six consecutive Redskin possessions, including the first five drives of the second half. Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer accounted for five of Arizona's six touchdowns, rushing for three (1, 10, 1 yards) and throwing for two (6, 9 yards), in the Cards' 45-point effort, their best scoring barrage in 332 games (49–31 vs. New Orleans, Oct. 23, 1977). The contest also marked the first time in team history it has allowed 40 or more points and won. Arizona, which had tallied just 10 first-quarter points through the season's first 10 games, logged 17 in the opening period for a 17–0 lead. When Washington scored a seemingly insignificant touchdown on its final first-half possession, the first of three Michael Westbrook touchdown receptions, the Cards' halftime advantage was 31–6. The madcap second half featured fast-break football. Washington's comeback was fueled by a successful onsides kickoff following its second touchdown of the second half, and safety Leomont Evans' 54-yard return of Plummer's only interception following the third touchdown to set the table for the fourth. The Cardinals weathered the storm by answering two of the Redskins' second-half touchdowns with six-pointers—Plummer's nine-yard third-quarter touchdown pass to fullback Larry Centers, and the second-year signal-caller's third rushing touchdown, a one-yard sneak midway through the fourth quarter, to pad the Arizona lead to 45–35.

Chiefs 34, Cardinals 24

November 29, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium (69,613)

Kansas City ended its six-game losing streak by winning the battle for field position on an unseasonably warm 73-degree Thanksgiving weekend afternoon. The Chiefs' 42-yard line was the average starting point of their 13 possessions, a statistic aided principally by a 21-yard first-quarter James Hasty interception return to the Cardinals' four-yard line. Two plays later, K.C. running back Bam Morris rammed into the end zone from the two-yard line, giving the Chiefs a lead they would not relinquish. Arizona, on the other hand, faced long fields all day, beginning six of their 12 possessions at or inside their own 20-yard line, including the first three (19-, 5-, 14-yard lines, respectively). After the Chiefs padded their lead to 24–10 with a second half-opening 80-yard, six-play drive, capped by a 30-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Rich Gannon to wide receiver Derrick Alexander, the Cardinals never were able to cut the deficit to seven points or less and regain possession of the ball. Gannon guided the balanced Chiefs' offense with 21-for-28 passing accuracy for 231 yards and three touchdowns with just one interception, a diving pickoff at the Arizona four-yard line by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous, the first interception by a starting Cardinal cornerback other than Aeneas Williams in 39 games (Ronnie Bradford at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). Wide receiver Frank Sanders collected 100 receiving yards on six catches, his third 100-yard game of the season. Running back Adrian Murrell's 31-yard third-quarter dash was the Cardinals' longest run in 36 games (LeShon Johnson, 31 vs. N.Y. Jets, Oct. 27, 1996).

Giants 23, Cardinals 19

December 6, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (35,474)

A bludgeoning 200-yard New York rushing attack that feasted on the Cardinals' injury-depleted defense and Arizona's inefficient "red-zone" offense provided the Giants their fourth consecutive victory over the Cardinals in wet, 41-degree weather, the coldest day in history for a Cardinal home game in Arizona. After taking command in the first half with leads of 7–0, 14–7, and 17–7, the Cards began to succumb to New York's relentless ground game in the second half when the Giants amassed 118 rushing yards. Three Arizona drives that reached New York's three- (first quarter), one- (third quarter), and six-yard lines (fourth quarter) registered just three points. Chris Jacke's first Cardinal field goal (21 yards). The latter two possessions ended with an end-zone interception and on downs, respectively. The Giants' running game overcame 13 penalties for –100 yards and quarterback Kent Graham's eight-for-23 passing accuracy for only 144 yards and one touchdown, an 87-yard screen pass to running back Tiki Barber for New York's only first-half touchdown. Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer also struggled with 18-for-40 marksmanship for 263 yards, 1 touchdown, 2 critical interceptions, and 2 fumbles, losing the second that led to New York's second and final touchdown, Charles Way's eight-yard third-quarter run seven plays (all rushes) later. Giant running back Gary Brown administered most of the damage with a 1998 Arizona opponent-high 124 rushing yards on 25 carries. Wide receiver Frank Sanders maintained his share (with S.F.'s Jerry Rice) of the NFC receiving lead with five receptions for 62 yards, raising his season total to 69. Rookie cornerback Corey Chavous intercepted a pass for the second consecutive week in his second NFL start. Middle linebacker Mark Maddox led the Cards with 14 total tackles (four solos) in his first Cardinal start. Fullback Larry Centers' 54-yard screen pass reception leading to Arizona's first touchdown was his career long.

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17 (OT)

December 13, 1998 • Veterans Stadium (62,176)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years (30–12 at Houston, Dec. 4, 1994). After Arizona took a quick 10–0 first-quarter lead on a 28-yard opening-drive Chris Jacke field goal and strong safety Tommy Bennett's 70-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Cardinals repeatedly were poised to take command of the contest, but continually misfired, going scoreless on five drives that reached the Eagles' 33- (third-down quarterback sack), 12- (fumble), 11- (fourth-down tackle for loss), 27- (third-down quarterback sack), and 17-yard lines (missed field goal), respectively. The Cards used a 43-carry, 204-yard rushing attack to keep their injury-depleted defense off the field. Running back Adrian Murrell led the ground assault with his Cardinal-high 174-yard effort on 32 carries. Quarterback Jake Plummer recorded his seventh career fourth-quarter/overtime comeback victory by completing eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown after Philadelphia took its first and only lead at 17–10 early in the fourth quarter on a 26-yard touchdown pass. On the Cards' final three possessions, Plummer drove Arizona 66 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 17–17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positioned the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining in regulation, and directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz. Moore gained 109 receiving yards on seven catches, his second 100-yard game of the season and the 21st of his career. Larry Centers' second reception raised his career total to 523, breaking Roy Green's franchise career receiving record of 522.

Cardinals 19, Saints 17

December 20, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (50,271)

Quarterback Jake Plummer, one day past his 24th birthday, rallied the Cardinals in the fourth quarter and Chris Jacke booted a final-play, game-winning field goal for the second consecutive week. The Cardinals amassed 513 total yards, their highest output in 37 games (650 total yards at Washington, Nov. 10, 1996), and exceeded 400 total yards for the fourth time in six outings. The New Orleans defense, nevertheless, kept the Cardinals from seizing the game's momentum on consecutive second-quarter Arizona possessions—free safety Sammy Knight's 39-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Saints' ninth defensive six-pointer of the season, and cornerback Alex Molden's end zone fumble recovery following a Plummer pass completion to wide receiver Frank Sanders near the goal line. The Cardinal defenders returned the favor in the fourth quarter, stuffing New Orleans' fourth-and-one rush from Arizona's nine-yard line. A 13-yard touchdown pass from Saint quarterback Kerry Collins to tight end Cameron Cleeland gave New Orleans a 17–16 lead with 1:21 to play, setting the stage for Plummer's heroics, the eighth fourth-quarter comeback victory in his 25th NFL game. Starting the final possession at their own eight-yard line, the Cardinals covered 73 yards in six plays, beginning with pass completions of 25 and 28 yards to Sanders and ending with Plummer runs of 21 and 4 yards following one incompletion. Jacke followed with his fourth field goal of the contest, a 36-yarder, his 13th career game-winner. Running back Adrian Murrell's 65 rushing yards pushed him past the 1,000-yard plateau for the third consecutive season. Sanders logged 10 receptions for 138 yards, his fourth 100-yard game of 1998 and the eighth of his career. Plummer, who completed 32 of 44 passes for 394 yards, was 19-for-24 for 293 yards on first down. The Cardinals did not allow a quarterback sack for the first time since the 1997 season opener at Cincinnati, a span of 31 games. The victory was the Cardinals' eighth vs. NFC opposition, their highest in-conference total since 1976.

Cardinals 16, Chargers 13

December 27, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium (68,650)

Chris Jacke's game-ending, game-winning field goal for the third consecutive week capped quarterback Jake Plummer's ninth fourth-quarter comeback in his 26th NFL game to propel the Cardinals into postseason play for the first time since 1982 (1975 in a non-strike season) with their first winning season in 14 years (9–7 in 1984). The postseason berth also ended the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years. Cardinal free safety Kwamie Lassiter starred in the defensive struggle with four pass interceptions, equalling the NFL record shared with 16 others, including Cardinals Jerry Norton (twice, 1960, '61) and Bob Nussbaumer (1949). Lassiter finished the season with an NFC-leading eight pickoffs. Defensive end Simeon Rice recovered a Charger fumble. San Diego's staunch league-leading defense limited the Cards to just two field goals off the five turnovers while frustrating Arizona into a season-low 25 rushing yards. The Chargers' misfiring offense produced a late 10-play, 68-yard drive, culminating with a 30-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Craig Whelihan to wide receiver Ryan Thelwell on fourth-and-20 with the Cardinals just one defensive stop away from their playoff berth, to tie the game with 16 seconds remaining. Kick returner Eric Metcalf, a former Charger, gave Plummer and Jacke their window of opportunity by returning San Diego's ensuing kickoff 46 yards to the Chargers' 44-yard line with eight seconds remaining. Plummer hit wide receiver Frank Sanders with a quick 10-yard completion to the Chargers' 34-yard line. Timeout was called with three seconds to play. Jacke drilled his third field goal of the game, a 52-yarder and his 14th career game-winner. The victory was the Cardinals' seventh by three points or less, an NFL single-season record. Sanders' eight receptions for 106 yards, his fifth 100-yard game of the season, raised his season total to an NFC-best 89 catches. Arizona was penalized just twice for only nine yards, the lowest totals in 31 (2 at Cincinnati, Aug. 31, 1997) and 54 (nine yards vs. Minnesota, Nov. 12, 1995) games, respectively.

Postseason Game Summaries

Cardinals 20, Cowboys 7

January 2, 1999 • Texas Stadium (62,969)

Arizona's finest defensive performance of the season rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years (28–21 vs. Philadelphia in 1947 NFL championship game) in their first postseason appearance in 23 years (1975) in a non-strike season, a 20–7 victory over the Cowboys, the Cardinals' first success at Texas Stadium after nine consecutive setbacks and only their second overall triumph over Dallas in 17 meetings. The contest also extended Arizona's winning streak to four games and marked the Cowboys' first postseason home-field loss since 1983. The Cardinal defenders produced 3 pass interceptions, 15 deflected passes (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), 4 quarterback sacks, 4 tackles for loss, and 1 forced fumble, stymied Cowboy quarterback Troy Aikman into 22-for-49 passing accuracy (191 yards) and limited Dallas to 260 total yards (96 yards rushing). Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles, including 12 solos, both team season bests, and two of the sacks. Defensive end Andre Wadsworth authored the other two sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two of the three interceptions, safety Tommy Bennett the other. The unit also turned the early tide. After Arizona jumped to a 7–0 lead, principally due to a 59-yard pass completion from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders and a 12-yard shovel-pass touchdown to running back Adrian Murrell three plays later, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. But Cardinal linebacker Mark Maddox dropped Dallas running back Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss. Before the first half ended, the Cards added a 37-yard Chris Jacke field goal to take a 10–0 lead. Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys' three-yard line on the second offensive play of the third quarter. Plummer followed with a three-yard touchdown pass to fullback Larry Centers on the next play for a 17–0 Arizona lead that never was threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards padded the lead to 20–0 in the fourth quarter. The Cardinal defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard touchdown pass from Aikman to wide receiver Billy Davis.

Vikings 41, Cardinals 21

January 10, 1999 • Metrodome (63,760)

Arizona's revival season ended in Minneapolis when the Cardinals succumbed to the prolific Viking offense that turned Arizona's three turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble) into 17 points. After the Vikes drove 80 yards in 13 plays on their opening possession to take a 7–0 lead on running back Leroy Hoard's first rushing touchdown, interceptions of Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer on the first two Arizona possessions of the second quarter quickly (four plays both times) turned into 10 points for a 17–0 Viking advantage by the time the Cards ran five offensive plays. Minnesota, fielding the highest-scoring offense in NFL history, registered 416 total net yards (228 passing, 188 rushing), cracking the 400-yard plateau for the ninth time and the 40-point level for the fifth time during the season. It also converted eight of 11 third-down plays. Running backs Hoard and Robert Smith caused the most damage. The former tallied three touchdowns while the latter accumulated 124 rushing yards. Record-setting rookie wide receiver Randy Moss posted the other Minnesota touchdown. Viking safety Robert Griffith recorded both pass interceptions. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams gave the Cards, trailing 7–0, early life with an end-zone interception and 47-yard return on the first play of the second quarter to thwart a Minnesota drive that reached Arizona's seven-yard line. Short-yardage back Mario Bates scored all three Arizona touchdowns on one-yard runs to set the team postseason single-game rushing touchdowns record. Arizona held the opposition sackless for the second consecutive postseason game and for the third time in four weeks. The Cards were flagged for a season-high 13 penalties. Running back Adrian Murrell contributed 15 rushes for 62 yards and three receptions for 52 yards. The Cardinals finished the season with 10 wins for the first time since 1976 (10–4).

History

Franchise History

The Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League holding the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation, celebrated the 100th anniversary of their 1898 founding in 1998.

The Early Days

Founded in 1898, the team boasts a colorful history. Its fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club over the 100-year span.

The team began as a neighborhood group which gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's south side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

Cardinal founder Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football who also coached the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career during the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween's claim to fame, however, would occur many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer, who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian! He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park on Chicago's south side.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the

The 1947 Chicago Cardinals won the NFL championship with a 10–3 overall record. They bettered the Philadelphia Eagles 28–21 at Comiskey Park in Chicago in the NFL's 15th title contest.

Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record. (NFL postseason play began in 1933.).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in a historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh but failed to win a game in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

The 1947 Championship Season

In the resurrectional flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's spearhead since taking over as owner in 1933 who helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression," deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000, that finally put the Cardinals over the top, winning their one and only NFL championship via a title game.

To appreciate the accomplishment of the 1947 squad, some perspective is necessary.

Just two seasons earlier, in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110–98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinals history, the omni-talented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the desolate wilderness to a 6–5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Paul Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding churning Wisconsin fullback Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s—versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31–7 trouncing of their hated crosstown rivals, the Chicago Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after an appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy with a 47.4-yard average.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were on the heels of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns (two by Trippi) and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the arch-rival Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's north side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would get the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the stratagem would isolate Bears left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

The biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

Game day dawned!

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection. Dimancheff ran a flair pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman and converted two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win.

Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with all the old Big Red was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated a spark. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped on tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating, back-breaking, long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards.

The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

New Direction

Violet Bidwill, with her husband's passing, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in Jan. of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC East Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular-season record.

The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35–23, ending the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC East title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC East Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Three coaching changes and a name change have altered the face of the Cardinals since their Arizona arrival. Following their first two seasons in the desert, long-time Washington assistant Joe Bugel arrived as head coach, a position he held for four seasons until Buddy Ryan was named head coach and general manager on February 3, 1994. Vince Tobin succeeded Ryan as head coach on February 7, 1996.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as the host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on Jan. 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad, one of the NFL's youngest teams, ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought and notched the Cardinals' first postseason victory since 1947.

Heritage

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame grew to 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a CBS-TV NFL color analyst, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971–83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson, who currently serves the Cardinals as a vice president.

Nevers-Neversland

For today's football fan to have any understanding of the magnitude of 1920s star Ernie Nevers, they must start with the word icon, something so much larger than life that it defies belief; a relic that has deistic proportions. That's a necessary starting place, for deeply ingrained in every modern-era fan's mind is the erroneous assumption that any athlete from the old days is inferior in every way to today's specimens.

To begin, Ernie Nevers was the best two-way player who ever lived, a complete player, the full 60-minute man! Chuck Bednarik you say? Deion Sanders perhaps. Charles Woodson, or possibly Champ Bailey? Think again.

In translation, try to fathom that in Nevers' rookie year in the NFL, 1926, he played in 29 exhibition and regular-season games for the Duluth Eskimos. Of the 1,740 total minutes of playing time Nevers conceivably could have logged that year, he played in 1,713 of them—all but 27 minutes—in a season of eternity that began in September and ended in late Jan.. Oh, yes, and all but one game was on the road. That's 19,000 miles over five months—all by train. No jets, no special attention, just pack your damp, wet uniform into that duffel bag and grab the next train for the next town (five games in eight days at one stretch).

After a rain game, Nevers once said, "Your gear weighed 50 pounds. You'd get into a wet uniform that hadn't dried out from the previous game."

Now you're beginning to get an idea of what big-time pro football was like in the golden age of sports.

It would not have done Nevers, or this article about him, the slightest justice to have simply opened with, "This year celebrates the 70th anniversary of the most fabled single-game individual mark in NFL history—Ernie Nevers' record for most points scored in a game." Naysayers would say that was back in those infantile days of pro football and everyone knows they weren't any good back then.

All right, strap on your five-belt harness. As Peter Pan once said, "We're going to Nevers-Neversland."

The legend begins in 1924, Nevers' junior year at Stanford. Future coaching immortal Glenn "Pop" Warner had just come to the Palo Alto, California school and, after one look at Nevers, pulled his young prospect aside.

"You're going to play deep man in my double-wing," Warner declared. "Brush up on your passing and kicking. You'll be doing most of it."

Former Cardinal Ernie Nevers, the most prolific single-game scorer in NFL history.

But in preseason of that 1924 campaign, Nevers broke his left ankle in a scrimmage against a naval team. On crutches until early November, Nevers returned for the Indians' second-to-last regular-season game against Montana. In the opening moments, during a huge pileup, a Montana player fell heavily on Nevers' right ankle, breaking it as well. Stanford still managed to remain undefeated with one tie to earn a Rose Bowl berth opposite college football's most glamorous team—Knute Rockne's Fighting Irish of Notre Dame with its hallowed Four Horsemen backfield.

Ten days before the big game, Nevers' right ankle was still in a cast. With Warner turning into an Edison-like inventor, a handmade truss and support were jerry-rigged around Nevers' broken right ankle, including an extraordinarily creative use of an inner tube that, when taped to the back of Nevers' leg, acted as a mechanical Achilles tendon. The left ankle was heavily taped.

On Jan. 1, 1925, Nevers limped out onto the historic turf in Pasadena.

What followed has become legend. Nevers rushed a record 34 attempts to gain 114 yards. He played all 60 minutes and, though it was in a losing cause, he came away with the Rose Bowl most valuable player award for his incredible performance on what amounted to two broken ankles. The famous Four Horsemen collectively managed only 13 more yards than the Stanford warrior.

Nevers made every all-America team the following season. Then, just as Red Grange had done several months earlier, he signed to play professionally without waiting to complete his senior year in the classroom. Nevers' signing by a loose aggregate called the Jacksonville All-Stars paid him $25,000 for playing in just two games, one of which was against Grange and the Chicago Bears on the Galloping Ghost's famous barnstorming tour of 1925–26. Nevers once said he felt guilty taking the money.

Nevers then headed for spring training with the American League baseball's St. Louis Browns, where he eventually would log three seasons of fairly forgettable work on the pitcher's mound. Baseball ignominy did not completely ignore him, however. He did manage to serve up Babe Ruth's eighth and 41st home runs along the Sultan's majestic march to 60 in 1927.

Capitalizing on his all-round athleticism, Nevers also played pro basketball with Chicago in the league that was the forerunner of the NBA. He is credited with being the first player to use the hook shot, and as recently as 1962, Nevers was called one of the two greatest basketball players to wear the Stanford red by the university's publicity department. The other was the legendary Hank Luisetti.

But for the 1926 regular season, his first full year in pro football, Nevers signed a glitzy $15,000 annual contract with the Duluth Eskimos—a staggering sum for that era. In that near-incomprehensible 29-game season mentioned earlier, Nevers set five of his six NFL records, including five field goals in a single game (a mark which stood for 38 years) and longest scoring pass from scrimmage, a 62-yarder to teammate Joe Rooney to beat Milwaukee 7–6. In that game, Nevers sat out his 27 minutes for the season, all in one clump.

What did it take to bench the man legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice dubbed the "Iron Man of Football?" An appendicitis attack two days earlier proved the culprit. Even at that, with his team down 6–0, Nevers grimly entered the game and posted the aerial heroics. Another passing mark set that same season was his phenomenal 17 consecutive completions against Pottstown. Remember, we're talking about a prolate spheroid that resembled a beach ball more than the pointy-ended football of today.

But it was his obliterating line-smashing power as a running back that awed opponents and fans alike. According to the late master of sports journalism, Red Smith, Nevers was "a smasher of the Jim Brown type, a terror going straight ahead and fast enough to pull away from pursuers in the open."

Writer Jim Scott added, "Nevers was a great fullback largely because of his ability to cut once he'd broken the line of scrimmage. Blending speed with power, he also picked his way over a broken field better than today's runners who go largely by patterns. There was a crushing authority in his every rush."

Every story that's ever been written about Nevers has mentioned the shocking accolade delivered by Warner, his old coach, who once stirred national headlines when he chose Nevers over the legendary Jim Thorpe as the best player he ever coached. On another occasion, Warner analyzed a singular gift that stamped Nevers' great ability.

"What got him through those lines stacked to meet him," said Warner, "was the most amazing reflexes I've ever seen in a man. Ernie could spot an opening and instantaneously shift or cut to slice through that opening. So, instead of two yards, he'd gain 11. I do not believe any player since (Pudge) Heffelfinger has equalled Nevers in sheer projectile force."

In a 14–13 loss to the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in New York in 1926, Nevers slammed nine consecutive times into the teeth of the Giants league-leading defense, not stopping until he had landed in the New York end zone. Another time against the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1931, Nevers was knocked unconscious. After an obligatory two-minute injury timeout, two teammates dragged him toward the sideline. Nevers revived just as they reached the edge of the field.

"Hey, what's going on?" Nevers groggily demanded. When told he had been knocked out and was being taken out of the game, the indefatigable Nevers wrenched free and stumbled back to the huddle. He then stunned players on both sides of the ball when he called his own number 16 straight times until he had reached the Brooklyn end zone. The ensuing touchdown won the game.

After a second season with the Eskimos, Ernie had to quit football, and all sports, because of a broken transverse process. In a stroke of good fortune, he was introduced to a Los Angeles osteopath who was successful in relieving the pressure in Nevers' back. In the interim, the Eskimos became defunct after the 1927 season. Nevers was sold to the Chicago Cardinals. Hired as the team's player/head coach, it was in these three brief years with Chicago that Nevers gained his status as an immortal.

On November 28, 1929, in the traditional Thanksgiving Day match between

Ernie Nevers, "The Blond Blizzard."

Chicago's two NFL clubs—George Halas' Bears and the Cardinals—Nevers deeply etched his name into pro football's record books. So deeply ingrained is the mark that it still stands today, 70 years later, as the oldest individual single-game record in NFL annals—the venerable all-time single-game scoring standard of 40 points.

"Give The Ball To Nevers!"

That was the chant emanating from a meager 8,000 chilled spectators huddled in dank Comiskey Park. Little did they suspect that a major sports feat was swirling amidst the wind gusts and falling temperatures inside the stadium as the Cardinals battled their bitter crosstown rival.

Due to field conditions, Nevers elected to hammer straight ahead at the intracity foes. From the double-wing formation, he rushed an average of three out of every four of his team's offensive plays.

"I wasn't even conscious of it at the time," Nevers later recalled. "It was on a frozen field and everything was a power play between the tackles. I doubt that I had a longer run than 20 yards, but I ground out six touchdowns and added four extra points."

The one-man wrecking crew smothered the Bears, 40–6.

Previous to the trouncing, the largest margin of victory recorded by the South Siders over a Halas-led team was a pair of 9–0 wins in both 1922 and '25. Nevers obviously had help in establishing his timeless mark. Fellow running back Mickey McDonnell ripped through huge holes in the Bears' line for several long-gainers in the contest, and quarterback Gene Rose, after replacing Cobb Rooney, added more yardage off tackle and as a receiver on short passing plays. The Chicago Tribune's Wilfrid Smith noted the exceptional line play of the Cardinals.

"The Cardinal line was the foundation on which these ball carriers built their successes," he wrote in the following day's edition. "There was no question of its superiority. And it played no favorites. From end to end, the Bear line wavered and retreated before massed interference. The guards carried on through to sweep aside the Bears' secondary defense."

Nevers added, "What about the horses up front? They made it all possible."

Baseball enthusiasts may recall that Joe DiMaggio hit safely in 16 consecutive games after his all-time mark of hitting safely in 56 consecutive games had been halted. So, too, Nevers owns an intriguing tandem near-record, though it's not likely ever to be officially recognized in the NFL record book. The feat, nonetheless, is astonishing. Just the week before his record-setting 40-point outburst against the Bears, Nevers scored all of the Cardinals' points in a 19–0 win over the Dayton Triangles. Nevers 59, Opposition 6 in back-to-back games.

Ernie Nevers sporting his Chicago Cardinals sweater jersey.

How does the historic Nevers mark compare against other landmark records in sports?

Well, Ruth's hold on 60 home runs in a single season lasted 34 years. The man who broke it, Roger Maris, kept the title for 37 years, until Mark McGwire obliterated the mark in 1998. Wilt Chamberlain's epic 100-point scoring night against the New York Knicks in 1962 has ruled the NBA record book for 37 years, while Maurice "The Rocket" Richard's once thought-to-be-unbreakable 50 single-season NHL goals lasted 37 years until shattered by the "Great One," Wayne Gretzky, in 1982. The lowest round of golf (18 holes) ever played on the PGA tour, a 59, was first fashioned by Al Geiberger in 1977.

Nevers gets the nod!

As with all the esteemed marks mentioned above, not many legitimate assaults have been made on Nevers' legendary record. Only two have come close.

The most "recent" threat, a memorable six-touchdown creation by Gale Sayers at muddy Wrigley Field in the brilliant Bear's rookie season with Chicago, was an "ancient" 34 years ago. The other challenger was a fleet halfback/wingback for Paul Brown's mighty Cleveland Browns dynasty in the late 1940s/early-to-mid-1950s named Dub Jones, better known to modern-day followers of the game as the father of 1970s Baltimore Colts standout quarterback Bert Jones. On November 25, 1951, Jones, Sr. scorched the Chicago Bears for six touchdowns.

Ironically, Halas' Bears figured in all three occasions where the record was set or challenged.

Nevers, a.k.a. "The Blond Blizzard," regrettably, had the shortest career of any player enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame—just five years. Students of Nevers claim its brevity was the result of his refusal to let up. In his last appearance, a 1931 postseason exhibition in San Francisco matching the Nevers All-Stars against the (Frank) Carideo All-Stars, Nevers broke his left wrist on the last play of the game. With Nevers' team earning a 26–14 win, the begging question was why Ernie was playing at all at that point.

His answer says it all.

"The game wasn't over yet," he claimed. "It was promoted as the Ernie Nevers All-Stars, so every fan who paid to watch had the right to see me in action as long as I could stand on my feet."

Then came the real truth.

"And besides," he added, "I wanted to play some more."

Nevers saved the best for last. In his third and final year as a Chicago Cardinal, the 1931 campaign, he made the NFL's first official all-league team at fullback. And that season, his reputation as the indomitable "Iron Man" was further solidified when he played all 1,140 minutes of the Cardinals' 19-game season.

Then, all too soon, the golden gladiator was gone from the gridiron. When Nevers retired, he was just 28 years of age!

Most of the players, coaches, and members of the press who saw him play say he played 10 years in five. If ever a man left it all on the field, it was Nevers.

Hall of Famer and two-time Cardinal Head Coach Jimmy Conzelman noted Nevers always played with "lousy teams" (Duluth was 7–13–3 in official league games; Chicago went 16–16–3 during the Nevers years of 1929–31), but declared, "He was able to lift them beyond their capacities."

The praise and tributes from his contemporaries, though long in their graves, still ring loudly today, thanks to print archives.

"I used to think of him more as a crusader with a flaming sword," ace passer Benny Friedman of the New York Giants once colorfully recollected. "I never saw anyone who epitomized the idea of a will to win more so than Ernie."

Luther Burbank, the prominent horticulturist of Burbank, California fame, once astounded the great star when he said, "Nevers is a specimen that our world sees about once in a 100 years."

Ernie Nevers during his 1963 induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Would the blond-headed marvel take to today's game?

"I wouldn't care for it," Nevers remarked in 1970, six years before his death at age 73. "All the clubs have two teams—one for offense, the other for defense. In my day, 11 men were about enough. No, I wouldn't like it. I couldn't stand to spend half the time on the bench."

Notes

NFL approves Cards' move from Chicago to St. Louis on March 13 ... team plays in 34,000-seat Sportsman's Park ... with no regular practice site, the team practices at an open field at a city park ... running back John David Crow breaks Ollie Matson's single-season rushing mark with 1,071 yards ... Crow sets franchise single-game mark that stood for 35 years with 203 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18 ... Cards lead NFL in rushing with 2,356 yards (196.3 yards per game), and in rushing defense allowing 1,212 yards (101 yards per game) ... defense also leads league allowing 252.4 yards-per-game, 158 first downs, and just 56 first downs rushing ... wide receiver Sonny Randle leads NFL with club-record 15 touchdowns receiving on 62 receptions ... little-known Utah halfback Larry Wilson, selected in seventh round of draft, converts to safety due to injuries.

Notes

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry, and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7–7 ... Head Coach Frank 'Pop' Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Willsey take over ... during the season Drulis and his prized pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfect the safety blitz.

Notes

Alabama all-America quarterback Joe Namath is Cards' first-round draft pick, but the flashy passer opts to sign with rival AFL's New York Jets ... Cards win four of first five games, but injuries to quarterback Charley Johnson, starting running backs Prentice Gautt and Joe Childress, and defensive backs Larry Wilson and Larry Stovall take a toll and the team slides to 5–9 ... Wilson sets team mark with 96-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. Cleveland on Dec. 19 ... a few weeks earlier, with casts on both hands, Wilson intercepts a Bill Nelsen pass against Pittsburgh on Nov. 7 ... Wally Lemm announces after the final game he will not return as head coach.

Notes

Charley Winner named head coach ... team begins play in newly-opened Busch Memorial Stadium, featuring artificial turf and a seating capacity of 51,392 ... record crowd of 50,673 views 10–10 tie with Dallas on Oct. 16, an attendance mark that would stand for four seasons ... Cards begin season 7–1–1, but another injury to quarterback Charley Johnson, and subsequent injuries to wide receiver Sonny Randle, cornerback Pat Fischer, and offensive linemen Bob DeMarco, Ken Gray, and Irv Goode result in an 8–5–1 mark ... safety Larry Wilson leads NFL with 10 interceptions and ties another mark with thefts in seven consecutive games ... Cardinals score just 52 points in final five games ... Cards are victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16–10 Falcon win on Dec. 11.

Notes

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, fewest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets still-standing team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium on Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

Notes

Bob Hollway named head coach ... Cards draft cornerback Norm Thompson, offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, and wide receiver Mel Gray ... Thompson will start for seven seasons, Dierdorf becomes six-time Pro Bowler and member of Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Gray logs a dozen seasons, highlighted by a stretch of catching a pass in 121 consecutive games from 1973–82 ... Eagles' kicker Tom Dempsey sets then Card opponent record with 54-yard field goal on Dec. 12 ... Gray completes rookie season with eye-popping averages of 28 yards on two rushing attempts, 29.7 yards on 18 pass receptions with four touchdowns, and 24.7 yards on 30 kickoff returns.

Notes

The Cards, with the NFC East title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 halftime deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown ... Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, quarterback Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... wide receiver Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

Notes

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro running back Ottis Anderson injured, Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... quarterback Neil Lomax sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian kicker Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

Notes

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history ... quarterback Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice on Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting defensive tackle Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on cornerback Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... linebacker Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season opener at L.A. Rams on Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries that day.

Notes

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... cornerback Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl punter Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

Notes

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie running back Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory on Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

Notes

Cards lose seven of final eight games to drop to 4–12, costing Head Coach Buddy Ryan his job ... defense ranks last against the run and in scoring defense despite league highs of 42 takeaways and 23 fumble recoveries ... Arizona's offense leads NFL with 43 turnovers (24 interceptions, 19 lost fumbles) ... lowlight of season at expansion Carolina on Nov. 19 as Cards gain just 96 total yards, their lowest amount in 40 years ... fullback Larry Centers earns first Pro Bowl honor as first running back in league history to eclipse 100-pass reception plateau with 101 catches, a franchise record ... Garrison Hearst owns dubious distinction of becoming first running back in NFL history to score only one rushing touchdown during a 1,000-yard (1,070) season.

Notes

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th on defense and from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach ... running back LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards on Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards ... quarterback Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 ... 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win over Arizona on Oct. 27 ... first-round draft pick Illinois defensive end Simeon Rice sets Cardinal mark and equals league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

Notes

Cards go 3–6 in nine games decided in the final minute or overtime (four), including the first five outings and six of the first seven assignments ... quarterback Jake Plummer, with starts in final nine games, sets team rookie passing records by completing 157 of 296 passes (53 percent) for 2,203 yards and 15 touchdowns ... also sets NFL rookie passing mark on Nov. 15 at the N.Y. Giants with 388 yards ... WR Rob Moore sets club single-season record with NFL-leading 1,555 receiving yards ... Moore (97 receptions) and WR Frank Sanders (75 receptions, 1,017 yards) become the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season ... defensive tackle Mark Smith leads NFL rookie interior linemen with six sacks ... 66-yard interception return for a touchdown by Bernard Wilson on Nov. 2 vs. Eagles is the longest in team history by a defensive lineman ... Cards' improbable 25–22 overtime win against Dallas on Sept. 7 snaps Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak ... Aeneas Williams returns two interceptions for touchdowns to push career total to club-record six.

Notes

Cardinals' first postseason appearance since 1982, ending the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years ... first postseason appearance in a non-strike season since 1975 ... first postseason victory since 1947 ... first winning season since 1984 ... first 10-win season since 1984 ... five-win improvement from 1997 the franchise's best two-season swing since 1973–74 ... eight NFC victories highest in-conference total since 1976 ... flair for the dramatic by setting NFL record with seven victories (in eight decisions) by three points or less, winning four of those contests on game-ending field goals by two different kickers ... seven of nine victories achieved by 18 combined points ... dubbed the "Wild Cards" by season's end ... 45-point outburst at Washington on Nov. 22 the Cards' best scoring output in 21 years or 332 games (49–31 vs. New Orleans, Oct. 23, 1977) ... offense averages 25 points and 392.5 yards per outing over the final eight games of the regular season ... seven of nine victories are quarterback Jake Plummer-led comebacks, raising his career total to nine in just 26 career outings ... Plummer's four rushing touchdowns are the most by a Cardinal quarterback in over 20 years ... his three rushing touchdowns at Washington on Nov. 22 are the most by an NFL quarterback since the Saints' Archie Manning in 1977 ... first-year Card running back Adrian Murrell becomes the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons with his 1,042-yard campaign ... Murrell is one of nine active NFL players to gain 1,000 yards in three or more consecutive seasons ... wide receiver Frank Sanders leads the NFC (NFL runner-up) with 89 receptions ... his 89 catches for 1,145 yards were career bests ... fullback Larry Centers becomes the Cardinals' career receiving leader, finishing the campaign with 535 grabs ... in his only season as a Cardinal, versatile Eric Metcalf, son of former Card running back Terry Metcalf, makes his 500th career reception on Sept. 20 vs. Philadelphia ... left tackle Lomas Brown makes his 200th career appearance and 200th career start on consecutive October Sundays (4, 11) vs. Oakland and Chicago, respectively ... eight defensive takeaways Oct. 11 vs. Chicago tie Seattle for NFL season best ... free safety Kwamie Lassiter intercepts four San Diego passes in the post-season-clinching regular-season finale victory on Dec. 27 to equal the NFL single-game record he shares with 16 other players ... kickers Joe Nedney (1) and Chris Jacke (3) combine to boot four game-winning field goals on final plays... Jacke's come in the final three regular-season assignments ... the regular-season finale vs. San Diego and the two playoff appearances at Dallas and Minnesota provide the largest viewing audiences in the history of three Phoenix television stations—the CBS, ABC, and FOX affiliates, respectively.

There were many reasons to wave flags over the Cardinals' 1998 season.

Overtime Games

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17

December 13, 1998 ● Veterans Stadium (62,176)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years (30–12 at Houston, Dec. 4, 1994). After Arizona took a quick 10–0 first-quarter lead on a 28-yard opening-drive Chris Jacke field goal and strong safety Tommy Bennett's 70-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Cardinals repeatedly were poised to take command of the contest, but continually misfired, going scoreless on five drives that reached the Eagles' 33- (third-down quarterback sack), 12- (fumble), 11- (fourth-down tackle for loss), 27- (third-down quarterback sack), and 17-yard lines (missed field goal), respectively. The Cards used a 43-carry, 204-yard rushing attack to keep their injury-depleted defense off the field. Running back Adrian Murrell led the ground assault with his Cardinal-high 174-yard effort on 32 carries. Quarterback Jake Plummer recorded his seventh career fourth-quarter/overtime comeback victory by completing eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown after Philadelphia took its first and only lead at 17–10 early in the fourth quarter on a 26-yard touchdown pass. On the Cards' final three possessions, Plummer drove Arizona 66 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 17–17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positioned the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining in regulation, and directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz. Moore gained 109 receiving yards on seven catches, his second 100-yard game of the season and the 21st of his career. Larry Centers' second reception raised his career total to 523, breaking Roy Green's franchise career receiving record of 522.

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20

November 30, 1997 ● Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute or overtime. Pittsburgh's relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51. Pittsburgh's run game also led to a lopsided 39:22–26:12 time-of-possession advantage. The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal Pittsburgh's mark, limited Arizona to 48 yards rushing, and stopped the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts. Card rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's 12-for-17, 217-yard second-half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20–20 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Joe Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard game-winning field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining. Wide receiver Rob Moore padded his NFL-leading receiving yardage total to 1,348 yards with eight receptions for 188 yards. The Cardinal offense recorded its first multiple-touchdown effort in four games, while the Arizona defense failed to record a turnover for the third consecutive week. Bettis notched his ninth 100-yard rushing effort of the season, while Cardinal rushers failed to reach 100 rushing yards for the 25th straight time, the NFL high.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10

October 19, 1997 ● Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's unimaginable run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles handed the Cardinals a 13–10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. The Cardinals' offense, behind first-time starting quarterback Stoney Case, sputtered to a scoreless first half despite excellent field position. (Arizona began its first three possessions at its own 48 and 42-yard lines and the Eagles' 42 without scoring.) Four of the Cards' seven first-half possessions gained one yard or less; Arizona gained only 80 total net yards in the opening stanza. New kicker Joe Nedney cut the Eagles' advantage to 7–3 with a 23-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The tight-vested affair became a sparring match the rest of the way with neither side scoring in the game's ensuing five possessions. Rookie Jake Plummer replaced Case at 10:26 of the fourth quarter with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line. In his first NFL action, Plummer drove the Cardinals 98 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams, giving Arizona a 10–7 lead with 3:07 to play. It was Williams' first touchdown reception as a Cardinal. A 38-yard Chris Boniol field goal with 26 seconds left sent the game into overtime. Plummer had the Cardinals on the march again with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal. Arizona enjoyed a turnover advantage for only the second time in seven outings with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries against just one lost fumble. Wide receiver Rob Moore posted his fourth 100-yard receiving game (6–101), his career single-season high. Defensive end Simeon Rice recorded his first NFL interception.

Redskins 19, Cardinals 13

September 14, 1997 ● Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle the two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington. Both offenses sputtered, combining to gain only 562 total net yards, committing three turnovers, converting just 11 of 37 third-down attempts, posting 18 possessions of four plays or less, and punting 17 times. The Cardinals took a 7–3 first-quarter lead when J.J. McCleskey blocked a Redskin punt and Tommy Bennett fell on the ball in the Redskin end zone. The play marked the Cards' first touchdown on a blocked punt in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972). A five-yard touchdown reception by the Redskins' Michael Westbrook and a 32-yard Kevin Butler field goal deadlocked the game until late in the fourth quarter when the Redskins drove 75 yards in 15 plays to take a 13–10 lead with 1:13 to play on a 19-yard Scott Blanton field goal. The Cardinals then drove 37 yards in eight plays following Kevin Williams' 22-yard kickoff return to set the table for a 47-yard game-tying field goal with two seconds to play by Butler, who beat the Redskins twice in 1996 with last-play three-pointers. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals' Leeland McElroy fumbled on Arizona's second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Frerotte found a stumbling Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game.

Cardinals 25, Cowboys 22

September 7, 1997 ● Sun Devil Stadium (70,060)

One week after watching a 21–3 lead evaporate into a 24–21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak. Trailing 22–3 in the third quarter after allowing one defensive touchdown by Dallas and five field goals by Cowboy kicker Richie Cunningham, Arizona quarterback Kent Graham led the furious rally with two touchdown passes—seven yards to wide receiver Frank Sanders and one yard to tight end Pat Carter. The latter pulled the Cards within two points with 1:06 to play. Wide receiver Rob Moore, whose 47-yard reception keyed the eight-play, 70-yard drive leading to Carter's touchdown, knotted the game with a two-point conversion reception from Graham. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively—to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under Head Coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21–6 lead in the Cards' 27–24 success on Oct. 4, 1992, and marked the first time Arizona held Dallas without an offensive touchdown since the first 1990 meeting.

Cardinals 37, Redskins 34

November 10, 1996 ● RFK Stadium (51,929)

The Cardinals rode a record-setting passing effort by quarterback Boomer Esiason to shock NFC East Division-leading Washington in overtime. Esiason's personal best 522 passing yards were the third most prolific total in NFL history while also setting Cardinal and Redskin opponent single-game records. Arizona's defense came to the rescue, too, holding Washington pointless following all five Cardinal turnovers. New Cardinal kicker Kevin Butler, signed five days earlier, sealed the pulsating victory with his third field goal, a 32-yarder, after he and Redskin kicker Scott Blanton traded overtime misses. The Cards were sledding uphill throughout the second half after Washington snapped the 13–13 halftime tie with two third-quarter touchdowns. A one-yard Larry Centers touchdown plunge cut the deficit to 27–20, but the Redskins answered with Terry Allen's second one-yard touchdown run. Facing a 34–20 hole with 10:37 remaining, Esiason led a furious comeback. He drove the Cards 80 yards in eight plays, a drive culminated by rookie tight end Johnny McWilliams' first NFL touchdown, a 13-yard reception. Esiason had the Cards poised to strike again at the Redskin 25-yard line on the next Arizona possession but tossed his fourth interception. The Card defense held, and Esiason had the ball again at the Arizona 34-yard line with 1:24 to play following Washington's punt. Seven plays, 66 yards, and 1:04 later, the score was tied when Esiason found wide receiver Anthony Edwards with a 12-yard scoring pass. Arizona's 615 total yards were the first 600-yard outing in franchise history and the highest total in the NFL in six years (676, Washington vs. Detroit, Nov. 4, 1990).

Cardinals 31, Rams 28

September 29, 1996 ● Sun Devil Stadium (33,116)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31–28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 66 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Although the St. Louis line of scrimmage never advanced farther than the Cards' 34-yard line, Arizona was victimized by four long Ram scoring plays—66-yard punt return and 34-, 46-, and 49-yard touchdown passes. The Cards methodically marched to two clock-eating fourth-quarter touchdown drives (93 yards on 19 plays in 10:22, and 62 yards on 12 plays in 3:38) that both culminated in five-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Kent Graham to fullback Larry Centers and wide receiver Frank Sanders, respectively. The latter tied the score with 11 seconds remaining. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson raced 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Graham established personal bests with 37-for-58 passing for 366 yards and four touchdowns and equalled two team single-game records—37 completions (Neil Lomax, 1984) and 14 consecutive completions (Steve Beuerlein, 1994). Graham also became the 11th Cardinal to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Ottis Anderson, 75 yards). Centers' 13 receptions were his single-game best. Arizona also set a franchise record with 23 first downs passing.

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995 ● Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Special teams punctuated the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked, and a 46-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to tight end Oscar McBride with 1:57 to play, followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an interception by Card linebacker Seth Joyner on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play. Krieg's 413 passing yards surpassed 400 yards for only the fifth time in team history.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995 ● Sun Devil Stadium

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail abruptly ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. An early Viking field goal and two second-quarter Moon touchdown passes of 32 and five yards to wide receivers Jake Reed and Cris Carter, respectively, gave Minnesota 17 halftime points. The Cards answered with a nine-yard Dave Krieg-to-Rob Moore touchdown pass and the first of three Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals inched closer at 17–16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged early fourth-quarter touchdowns—Minnesota on a two-yard Moon-to-Carter connection, Arizona on a two-yard Krieg-to-tight end Wendall Gaines toss. The Cardinals also successfully completed a two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Moore to knot the game at 24–24 with 8:36 to play. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest. Leading to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995 ● Sun Devil Stadium

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14–0 halftime lead on two first-quarter touchdowns—an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble. Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime and eventually knotted the score on two touchdown passes to fullback Mack Strong. The Seahawks flirted with late leads on two of their final three possessions, the first ending when running back Chris Warren fumbled inside the Cards' 10-yard line after rambling 52 yards. Card cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered in the end zone for a touchback. After Cardinal running back Larry Centers fumbled at the Arizona 23-yard line, a 43-yard Seattle field-goal attempt four plays later was blocked by defensive tackle Eric Swann. The Seahawks returned the favor on Arizona's overtime-opening possession when Greg Davis' 27-yard three-point attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return for a score in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 ● Giants Stadium

Late turnovers and a missed field goal punctuated a see-saw overtime battle that ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Neither team held more than a four-point lead until late in the third quarter when Cardinal quarterback Dave Krieg completed his second touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders, a six-yard toss the pair followed with a two-point conversion pass, to take a 21–14 advantage. After the Giants knotted the struggle at 21–21, the pulsating ending began with New York poised to take the lead at the Cards' six-yard line with just over three minutes to play, but Arizona linebacker Eric Hill caused a fumble that safety Terry Hoage recovered. A 47-yard Krieg-Sanders completion put the Cards in position to win, but Greg Davis missed a 50-yard field-goal attempt with 23 seconds left. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

Nov. 27, 1994 ● Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19–16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession, but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

Oct. 30, 1994 ● Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 ● R.F.K Stadium

Both teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with 4:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 ● Kingdome

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Place kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27–27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 ● Veterans Stadium

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10–10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10–3 deficit with only 2:39 left in regulation with a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. Included in the Cards' season-high 461 yards total offense were 390 passing yards (30-of-48) by Lomax. Green (6 rec., 100 yards) and J.T. Smith (10 rec., 131 yards) enjoyed outstanding efforts. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard field-goal attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McFadden pushed a 43-yard field-goal try wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 ● Cleveland Stadium

Neil O'Donoghue kicked a 35-yard field goal with 5:27 gone in overtime to give the Cardinals a 27–24 win over the Browns. The Cards jumped to a 17–3 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown by Lionel Washington. Cleveland stormed back in a torrential rain to score 21 points on its next three possessions to take a 24–17 advantage with just 38 seconds remaining. With the ball on the Cards' 37-yard line, quarterback Neil Lomax connected with Ottis Anderson on a middle screen for 41 yards, found Stump Mitchell for another 15 yards, then tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley to tie the game at 24–24 with four seconds to play. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for O'Donoghue's game-winner.

Cardinals 20, Giants 20

October 24, 1983 ● Busch Stadium

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line yard prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed a 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 ● Busch Stadium

The Cardinals jumped to a 24–6 halftime lead. Atlanta roared back with 21 points after halftime to win 33–27. Quarterbacks Jim Hart of the Cardinals (344 yards passing) and the Falcons' Steve Bartkowski (378 yards) combined for 722 aerial yards as the teams compiled 978 yards total offense—Cardinals 415, Falcons 563. Hart connected on a pair of long touchdown tosses to Ray Combs (38 yards) and Pat Tilley (50 yards) in the first quarter, and Ottis Anderson scored on an eight-yard run in the second stanza before the Falcons' defense stiffened. Atlanta limited the Cards after halftime to minus five yards rushing, 109 yards total offense, and finished the day with five interceptions. Falcon running back Lynn Cain scored twice on runs of five and 10 yards, the latter forcing the overtime period. Atlanta won the coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33–27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 ● Candlestick Park

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21–21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. San Francisco opened the scoring when running back Paul Hofer scored on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Steve DeBerg in the second period. The Cards answered with touchdown passes from Jim Hart to running back Theotis Brown (13 yards) and tight end Doug Marsh (five yards) to take a 14–7 lead. After a 49er score tied the game, the Cards drove 75 yards in eight plays to lead 21–14, but allowed San Francisco to drive 80 yards in 53 seconds in the last two minutes, capped by Hofer's second touchdown run, a 26-yarder with 58 ticks left in regulation. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted following their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 ● Busch Stadium

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field-goal attempt glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24–21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired. The Cardinals took a 14–7 halftime lead on scoring runs of two and one yards by Jim Otis. Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach connected with wide receiver Tony Hill from 37 and six yards to give the Cowboys a 21–14 third-quarter lead. The Cards tied the game with a one-yard touchdown pass from Hart to running back Wayne Morris early in the fourth period. Hart suffered a separated left shoulder on a sack by Cowboy lineman Harvey Martin late in the game and the following week saw his streak of consecutive starts end at 64 games.

Cardinals 23, 49ers 20

October 31, 1976 ● Busch Stadium

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a field goal in the extra period for a 23–20 Cardinal victory. With the Cards nursing a 14–13 lead entering the fourth period due to a missed 49er extra point, San Francisco's Delvin Williams, who logged 194 yards rushing, scored the third of his three rushing touchdowns from one yard to give his club a 20–14 lead. Card quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown toss with eight minutes left in the game, but Bakken's conversion was blocked and the score remained tied at 20–20. The Cards won the coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 6:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 ● Busch Stadium

In one of the most memorable finishes in franchise history, the Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead with a 7–2 record following a thrilling 20–17 win. Washington took a 14–3 lead into the fourth quarter and held a 17–10 advantage with 1:43 to play before the Cardinals took possession on their own 39-yard line. Quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Earl Thomas for 19 yards to give the Cards a first-and-goal situation at the Washington six-yard line with 50 seconds remaining. After three incompletions, Hart faced fourth-and-goal with 25 ticks left. Speedy wide receiver Mel Gray lined wide right against Redskin cornerback Pat Fischer and ran a quick slant. The two Pro Bowlers ran stride for stride. Hart delivered the ball to the end zone, and Gray emerged from a tangle of arms, legs, and elbows with the ball, then dropped it when Fischer stripped him. After one official ruled incomplete pass and another touchdown, a conference ensued. Referee Fred Silva emerged and signaled touchdown. Jim Bakken converted the extra point to send the game into overtime. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 ● Texas Stadium

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

Last Meeting
December 21, 1997 • Sun Devil Stadium • Cardinals 29, Atlanta 26
The Cardinals "left 'em laughing" by scoring touchdowns on their final two possessions to cap a day-long uphill struggle and post a 29–26 come-from-behind victory over Atlanta in Arizona's third victory in nine 1997 contests decided in the final minute or overtime. Two first-quarter touchdown passes by Falcon quarterback Chris Chandler staked Atlanta to leads of 7–0 and 14–7. Four field goals by record-setting Falcon kicker Morten Andersen extended Atlanta's lead to 26–14 with 8:41 to play. The Cardinals rallied with touchdown drives of 69 and 80 yards. The former featured four pass completions (13, 12, 21, and 21) from quarterback Jake Plummer to Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore, including a 21-yarder for the touchdown. Atlanta's ensuing possession stalled at Arizona's 38-yard line. The Falcons punted into the Arizona end zone, and the Cardinals took possession at their own 20-yard line with no timeouts. Only 1:52 remained. It took Plummer 12 plays to march the Cards to their game-winning touchdown, a one-yard pass to fullback Larry Centers with five seconds to play. Plummer followed with a scramble for the two-point conversion. Moore's 91 receiving yards (seven receptions) raised his league-leading season total to 1,584 yards, breaking Roy Green's franchise single-season record of 1,555 yards (1984). Moore and Frank Sanders (1,017 yards) became the Cards' first pair of wide receivers in team history to crack 1,000-yards receiving. Defensive tackle Mark Smith registered two quarterback sacks to bring his season total to a team rookie record of six.

Series Notes
Arizona holds a 13–6 overall advantage ... the Cards were victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16–10 defeat on December 11, 1966 ... at one stretch in the series, the Cardinals won five consecutive games (1971–76) ... Arizona owns a 7–1 mark at home against Atlanta ... 1999 will mark the ninth time in the past 11 seasons the teams have met during the regular season.

Last Meeting
November 11, 1990 • Rich Stadium • Buffalo 45, Cardinals 14
Inclement Rich Stadium and the Bills were too much to handle as the Cards fell for the fourth straight week to a division leader. After the Cardinals converted a fumble recovery into a 7–0 lead and Buffalo drove 75 yards to tie the game, the Cards yielded a quick score following a bobbled center snap by punter Rich Camarillo that gave Buffalo the ball at the Card six-yard line. The Bills later covered 71 yards in three plays in the first half's final 57 seconds to turn a tight contest into a 21–7 lead. The Bills later turned short fields resulting from a pass interception, a fumble, and a wind-blown 12-yard punt into 21 more points. The miserable weather conditions and stout Buffalo defense stymied the Cards into season lows in total net yards (127), net yards passing (46), offensive plays (43), pass attempts (10), completions (5), and time of possession (21:58).

Series Notes
The abbreviated series is tied at 3–3 ... the three Cardinal victories in the series were a 28–23 win in the initial encounter between the teams in 1971, a 24–0 shutout in St. Louis in 1981, and a 37–7 triumph in 1984 ... Buffalo won by counts of 32–14 in 1975, 17–10 in 1986, and in the most recent meeting won a 45–14 decision in Rich Stadium in 1990

Last Meeting
January 2, 1999 • Texas Stadium • Cardinals 20, Dallas 7
Arizona's finest defensive performance rewarded the Cardinals with their first postseason victory in 51 years in their first postseason appearance in 23 years in a non-strike season, a 20–7 victory over the Cowboys, the Cardinals' first success at Texas Stadium after nine consecutive setbacks and only their second overall triumph over Dallas in 17 meetings. The contest also extended Arizona's winning streak to four games and marked the Cowboys' first postseason home-field loss since 1983. The Cardinal defenders produced 3 pass interceptions, 15 deflected passes (six by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous), 4 quarterback sacks, 4 tackles for loss, and 1 forced fumble, stymied Cowboy quarterback Troy Aikman into 22-for-49 passing accuracy (191 yards), and limited Dallas to 260 total yards (96 yards rushing). Outside linebacker Jamir Miller led the defense with 15 total tackles, including 12 solos, both team season bests, and two sacks. Defensive end Andre Wadsworth authored the other two sacks. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams grabbed two of the three interceptions, safety Tommy Bennett the other. The unit also turned the early tide. After Arizona jumped to a 7–0 lead, principally due to a 59-yard pass completion from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders and a 12-yard shovel-pass touchdown to running back Adrian Murrell three plays later, the Cowboys were poised to tie the game, facing a fourth-and-one situation at Arizona's seven-yard line midway through the second quarter. But Cardinal linebacker Mark Maddox dropped Dallas running back Emmitt Smith for a one-yard loss. Before the first half ended, the Cards added a 37-yard Chris Jacke field goal to take a 10–0 lead. Murrell raced 74 yards to the Cowboys' three-yard line on the second offensive play of the third quarter. Plummer followed with a three-yard touchdown pass to fullback Larry Centers on the next play for a 17–0 Arizona lead that never was threatened. Another Jacke field goal from 46 yards padded the lead to 20–0 in the fourth quarter. The Cardinal defense's shutout bid ended with 3:33 remaining on a six-yard touchdown pass from Aikman to wide receiver Billy Davis.

Series Notes
Arizona atoned for recent frustrations with a 20–7 upset win at Texas Stadium in last season's wild card playoff action, the Cowboys' first postseason home-field loss since 1983 ... Dallas holds a 49–24–1 series lead, including victories in 15 of the past 17 regular-season meetings ... from 1967–86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games and enjoyed one home stretch of 13–2 against the Cardinals ... the Cards are 10–26 all-time at Dallas and have won only five of the last 27 meetings in Texas ... six of the last seven Sun Devil Stadium meetings have been decided by seven points or less ... the Cardinals' thrilling 25–22 Sun Devil Stadium overtime win in 1997 broke a series streak of 13 consecutive Dallas victories and six consecutive season sweeps ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 ... the Cowboys prevailed 17–14 ... the Cowboys drew the largest home crown in Arizona franchise history when 73,025 packed Sun Devil Stadium to witness a 17–10 Cardinal loss on September 19, 1993.

Last Meeting
November 5, 1995 • Mile High Stadium • Denver 38, Cardinals 6
The Broncos scored the first five times they had the ball—four touchdowns, one field goal—to take an insurmountable 31–6 lead en route to a 38–6 victory, equalling the most points allowed by the Cardinals under Head Coach Buddy Ryan. The Broncos pounced quickly, scoring two touchdowns in the game's first 6:04 to take a 14–0 lead. In becoming the fourth Cardinal opponent to reach 400 total yards, the Broncos accumulated 188 of their 406 total yards on six big plays over 20 yards, including two touchdown passes of 47 and 23 yards. Denver quarterback John Elway stole the spotlight with 16-of-21 accuracy for 256 yards and three touchdowns with one interception to become the seventh NFL quarterback to surpass 40,000 career passing yards. Arizona's rushing defense succumbed to a 148-yard effort by the Broncos, principally authored by rookie running back Terrell Davis, who became the fifth Card opponent of the season to crack 100 yards rushing (135 yards).

Series Notes
The clubs have played just five times during the regular season with the Cardinals still searching for their first victory ... the first contest ended in a 17–17 tie in 1973, the second a 7–0 Bronco win in 1977, the third a 37–0 shutout by Denver at Sun Devil Stadium in 1989, the fourth a 24–19 come-from-behind Broncos' win in 1991, and most recently a 38–6 Denver shellacking of the Cards in 1995 ... in preseason play, the teams faced each other five consecutive seasons (1990–94) and 11 times overall ... the Cards are 4–7 against Denver in preseason play.

Last Meeting
November 1, 1998 • Silverdome • Cardinals 17, Detroit 15
The Cardinals reached .500 at midseason for the first time since 1991 on the strength of six Lion turnovers (Arizona's defense produced three takeaways—two interceptions and a fumble recovery—on Detroit's first 15 plays from scrimmage), two touchdown passes by quarterback Jake Plummer, and kicker Joe Nedney's career-long 53-yard game-winning field goal with 2:46 to play. Both teams squandered early scoring opportunities (two interceptions and a fumble by Detroit, a fumble and a blocked field-goal attempt by Arizona) in the scoreless first quarter. The turnovers continued in the second quarter, but the offenses began to capitalize. Detroit struck first on a 28-yard Jason Hanson field goal following a Bryant Westbrook interception of Plummer. Then Zack Walz recovered a fumbled punt return by Lion Terry Fair at Detroit's 14-yard line. Three plays later, Plummer found wide receiver Frank Sanders for a 16-yard touchdown pass. Two more Hanson field goals staked Detroit to a 9–7 third-quarter lead before Plummer hit wide receiver Rob Moore with a 36-yard touchdown pass, the Cards' longest scoring play of the season, and a 14–9 Arizona advantage. Detroit regained the lead at 15–14 early in the fourth quarter with a nine-play, 85-yard touchdown drive, capped by fullback Tommy Vardell's one-yard run, followed by a failed two-point conversion attempt. The two teams exchanged punts before Arizona marched 39 yards on eight plays to reach the Detroit 35-yard line, setting the stage for Nedney's first career field goal over 50 yards. On Detroit's second play from scrimmage on its ensuing (and final) possession, tackle Mark Smith sacked Lion relief quarterback Frank Reich, who fumbled. Outside linebacker Tony McCombs, who also made his first career interception on the game's second play from scrimmage, recovered at Detroit's 16-yard line. Fullback Larry Centers made the 500th reception of his career. Defensive end Simeon Rice recorded two quarterback sacks (–6 yards) and forced a fumble he also recovered.

Series Notes
Two of the NFL's oldest rivals, the teams first met in 1934 when Detroit prevailed 6–0 ... Detroit leads the series 28–16–3, but prior to two 1993 encounters, the clubs had met just three times since 1980 ... in the most recent meeting, the Cards won a 17–15 thriller as Joe Nedney kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal with under three minutes remaining ... the series has been marked by streaks, primarily while the teams were members of the NFL's Western Division ... the Lions defeated the Cardinals nine consecutive times from 1935–39 and six straight times from 1942–45 ... the Cardinals produced a six-game winning streak from 1946–48 and won four of five meetings prior to the Lions' two-game sweep in 1993 ... the Cards have won the last two meetings (1995, '98).

Last Meeting
November 18, 1990 • Sun Devil Stadium • Green Bay 24, Cardinals 21
The Cardinals suffered a bitter loss as Green Bay rallied for two touchdowns in the final 6:20 to turn a 21–10 deficit into a 24–21 victory. The Pack struck quickly on a 54-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Don Majkowski to wide receiver Sterling Sharpe on the game's fifth play. They increased their lead to 10–0 with a second quarter field goal. The Cards seemingly took command by scoring touchdowns on their last possession of the first half and first two drives of the second stanza. But Green Bay rallied with two touchdowns to earn the dramatic victory. Its final opportunity began with good field position at the Packer 44-yard line with 2:10 remaining after the Cardinals failed to convert a fourth-and-inches rushing attempt. The Cardinal offense impressed with 441 total yards. Johnny Johnson cracked 100 yards rushing for the third time.

Series Notes
The Packers hold a 42–22–4 advantage in the Cardinals' second-oldest rivalry that dates back to 1921 ... Green Bay figured in two Cardinal playoff appearances in the past 50 seasons, handing the St. Louis Cardinals a 41–16 loss in the 1982 Super Bowl Tournament ... the Cards also faced the Packers in the 1965 Playoff Bowl (a non-advancing postseason game), earning a 24–17 victory ... the series has been one of streaks ... the Cardinals claimed victory in four-, five-, and six-game winning skeins, while Green Bay authored victory streaks of 17, 5, and 4 (twice) games (1937–46) ... Green Bay has won the most recent two encounters, 26–17 in 1988 and 24–21 in 1990.

September 8, 1996 • Sun Devil Stadium • Miami 38, Cardinals 10
Touchdowns climaxed three of Miami's first four possessions to propel the Dolphins to an insurmountable 21–0 second-quarter lead in their first visit to Arizona. Miami dominated the battle for field position. Four of its 13 possessions began in Cardinal territory—blocked punt, 11-yard shanked punt, fumble recovery, and pass interception. Three resulted in touchdowns. The Dolphins' 44-yard line was the average starting point of their 13 possessions. After the Cardinals cut the deficit to 24–10 midway through the third quarter, the Dolphins extinguished Arizona comeback hopes with eight-play touchdown drives on their next two possessions. The Cardinals' 27-yard rushing team total was their lowest since a 22-yard game vs. Denver on December 16, 1989, a span of 100 games.

Series Notes
The Dolphins are one of four teams the Cardinals have yet to defeat in regular-season play ... Denver, Carolina, and Jacksonville are the others ... Miami holds a 7–0 advantage in the series, and all wins have been convincing—31–10 (1972), 55–14 (1977), 24–10 (1978), 20–7 (1981), 36–28 (1984), 23–3 (1990), and 38–10 (1996).

Last Meeting
September 15, 1996 • Foxboro Stadium • New England 31, Cardinals 0
The Cardinals suffered their second one-sided defeat in as many outings and their first shutout in 32 games (32–0 at Cleveland, Sept. 18, 1994) in their first trip to New England since 1984. The Patriots tallied three first-half touchdowns to take command quickly at 20–0. The New England-dominated statistics were as lopsided as the final score: First downs, 26–9; total yards, 384–170; rushing yards, 163–46; offensive plays, 62–48; time of possession, 39:21–20:39; and turnovers, 4–0. Ten of Arizona's 13 possessions ended in three plays or less. Its first seven possessions produced only one first down. The Cardinals didn't reach Patriot territory until Arizona's 12th (or next to last) possession. Patriot running back Curtis Martin tallied three touchdowns—receptions of 13 and seven yards from quarterback Drew Bledsoe, and a one-yard run. Martin posted 92 yards rushing and 33 yards receiving. Bledsoe complemented Martin with 21-for-35 marksmanship for 221 yards and three touchdowns without interception. For the second consecutive week, starting Cardinal quarterback Boomer Esiason yielded to Kent Graham in the second half. The pair combined for a sub-par 13-of-31 accuracy for 133 yards and three interceptions.

Series Notes
The Cardinals hold a 6–3 advantage in the series, but New England has won the past two contests ... the Cards won the first two games by scores of 31–0 in 1970 and 24–17 in 1975 ... after New England's 16–6 win in 1978, the Cards rattled off four consecutive victories ... in the most recent meetings, New England won 23–21 in 1993 at Sun Devil Stadium and 31–0 at Foxboro in 1996.

A bludgeoning 200-yard New York rushing attack that feasted on the Cardinals' injury-depleted defense and Arizona's inefficient "red-zone" offense provided the Giants their fourth consecutive victory over the Cardinals in wet, 41-degree weather, the coldest day in history for a Cardinal home game in Arizona. After taking command in the first half with leads of 7–0, 14–7, and 17–7, the Cards began to succumb to New York's relentless ground game in the second half when the Giants amassed 118 rushing yards. Three Arizona drives that reached New York's three- (first quarter), one- (third quarter), and six-yard lines (fourth quarter) registered just three points, Chris Jacke's first Cardinal field goal (21 yards). The latter two possessions ended with an end-zone interception and on downs, respectively. The Giants' running game overcame 13 penalties for –100 yards and quarterback Kent Graham's eight-for-23 passing accuracy for only 144 yards and one touchdown, an 87-yard screen pass to running back Tiki Barber for New York's only first-half touchdown. Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer also struggled with 18-for-40 marksmanship for 263 yards, 1 touchdown, 2 critical interceptions, and 2 fumbles, losing the second that led to New York's second and final touchdown, Charles Way's eight-yard third-quarter run seven plays (all rushes) later. Giant running back Gary Brown administered most of the damage with a 1998 Arizona opponent-high 124 rushing yards on 25 carries. Wide receiver Frank Sanders maintained his share (with S.F.'s Jerry Rice) of the NFC receiving lead with five receptions for 62 yards, raising his season total to 69. Rookie cornerback Corey Chavous intercepted a pass for the second consecutive week in his second NFL start. Middle linebacker Mark Maddox led the Cards with 14 total tackles (four solos) in his first Cardinal start. Fullback Larry Centers' 54-yard screen pass reception leading to Arizona's first touchdown was his career long.

Series Notes
One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 26–10–1 advantage in the series since 1980 and 74–37–2 overall dating to 1926 ... the Giants have won seven of the past eight contests, including sweeps the past two seasons ... the Cardinals snapped a 10-game losing streak at Giants Stadium with a dramatic 10–9 victory at the Meadowlands in 1994 ... a 19–0 shutout at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992 broke the Giants' eight-game series winning streak ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game of the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14–0 halftime deficit for a 26–14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... the Giants also were the Cardinals' foe in the club's final game in St. Louis, a 27–24 Cardinal victory on December 13, 1987.

October 27, 1996 • Sun Devil Stadium • N.Y. Jets 31, Cardinals 21
The 0–8 N.Y. Jets rode running back Adrian Murrell's team-record 199-yard rushing effort, 454 yards total offense, and 71 percent third-down efficiency (10–14) to post their only victory of the season. The Jets, leading 17–0 at halftime, withstood a furious second-half Arizona rally that included touchdowns on three consecutive possessions. The Cardinals appeared to have gained the game's momentum in the third quarter when they recovered a Murrell fumble on the Jets' first play from scrimmage following the Cards' first touchdown. Four plays later, fullback Larry Centers caught his second touchdown pass, a two-yarder, to slice the deficit to 17–14. The Jets drove 90 yards in 13 plays for a one-yard Murrell touchdown plunge, but Leeland McElroy returned the ensuing kickoff 92 yards. Two plays later, quarterback Kent Graham tossed his third touchdown pass, a six-yarder to ex-Jet wide receiver Rob Moore. New York led 24–21 and the team exchanged punts. Murrell broke the contest open on the Jets' next possession by dashing 78 yards to Arizona's two-yard line, the second-longest run in history by a Cardinal opponent. Running back Reggie Cobb posted the clinching touchdown on the next play. Cornerback Aeneas Williams posted his fourth career double interception outing.

Series Notes
The two relative strangers have met just once since 1978 ... the most recent encounter, a 31–21 Jet victory in 1996, marked the New York club's only victory in a 1–15 season after entering the game with an 0–8 mark ... in four contests overall, the teams are knotted with two wins apiece ... in the first two meetings, the Cardinals came away with a 17–10 victory at Busch Stadium in St. Louis in 1971 and a 37–6 thrashing of the Jets at Shea Stadium in 1975 ... the Jets' victories were a 23–10 win at home in 1978 and the 31–21 triumph at Sun Devil Stadium in 1996.

October 4, 1998 • Sun Devil Stadium • Oakland 23, Cardinals 20

The Raiders prevailed in a battle of dueling defenses. Three crucial Oakland pass interceptions of Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer turned the tide. The first two, pilfered within the span of four second-quarter Arizona offensive plays, produced two quick Raider touchdowns, turning a 14–9 Cardinal lead into a 23–14 Oakland advantage. The first was a 46-yard touchdown return by Raider cornerback Charles Woodson, the 1997 Heisman Trophy winner. The second, a 28-yard return to the Arizona four-yard line by defensive back Marquis Walker, set the table for relief quarterback Donald Hollas' one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later. Arizona's third-quarter bid to regain the game's momentum was thwarted by Oakland's third interception. One play after recovering a Hollas fumble at the Raiders' 16-yard line, Plummer threw into the Oakland end zone toward fullback Larry Centers. The pass was intercepted by Eric Allen, the other Raider starting cornerback. The Arizona defense was spectacular, holding Oakland scoreless in the second half by forcing four punts and two fumbles. Overall, the Cardinal defenders held the Raiders to just 222 total yards (112 rushing, 110 passing) while registering 2 recovered fumbles, 1 interception, and 3 sacks. First-round draft choice Andre Wadsworth collected two of the three sacks and forced one of the two fumbles, the latter a key play that gave the ball to Arizona at its 31-yard line with 1:52 to play. The Raider defense limited Arizona to 236 total yards (187 passing, 49 rushing) and two-of-13 (15 percent) third-down conversion success. Eric Metcalf cracked the 15,000-yard career total yardage mark with his 13th 200-yard combined yardage day (194 kickoff return yards, 57 punt return yards, 2 yards receiving). Wide receiver Frank Sanders equalled his career high with 10 receptions for 118 yards, his fifth career 100-yard game.

Series Notes
The teams have met just four times in regular-season play with Oakland holding a 3–1 advantage ... the Cards' lone triumph was a 34–24 win at the L.A. Coliseum in 1983 ... the Raiders won 17–10 at Busch Stadium in St. Louis in 1973, 16–14 at the Coliseum in 1989, and 23–20 last year in Sun Devil Stadium ... in preseason play, the Raiders were victors in 1976 (20–9) and 1996 (26–3), while Arizona won last year's preseason encounter 21–14 ... the 1976 preseason contest, played before a crowd of 33,216 at Sun Devil Stadium, marked the first professional football game played in the stadium that would become the Cardinals' home 12 years later.

Dec. 13, 1998 • Veterans Stadium • Cardinals 20, Philadelphia 17 (OT)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years. After Arizona took a quick 10–0 first-quarter lead on a 28-yard opening-drive Chris Jacke field goal and strong safety Tommy Bennett's 70-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Cardinals repeatedly were poised to take command of the contest, but continually misfired, going scoreless on five drives that reached the Eagles' 33- (third-down quarterback sack), 12- (fumble), 11- (fourth-down tackle for loss), 27- (third-down quarterback sack), and 17-yard lines (missed field goal), respectively. The Cards used a 43-carry, 204-yard rushing attack to keep their injury-depleted defense off the field. Running back Adrian Murrell led the ground assault with his Cardinal-high 174-yard effort. Quarterback Jake Plummer recorded his seventh career fourth-quarter/overtime comeback victory by completing eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown after Philadelphia took its first and only lead at 17–10 early in the fourth quarter on a 26-yard touchdown pass. On the Cards' final three possessions, Plummer drove Arizona 66 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 17–17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positioned the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining in regulation, and directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz. Moore gained 109 receiving yards on seven catches, his second 100-yard game of the season and the 21st of his career. Larry Centers' second reception raised his career total to 523, breaking Roy Green's franchise career receiving record of 522.

Series Notes
The 102-game series between the teams dates to 1935 ... knotted at 50–50–2 ... the teams have split six of the past nine years (1990–91, '93–94, '96–97) ... Philadelphia swept both contests in 1992 and '95, while the Cardinals took both contests last year by scores of 17–3 in Arizona and a 20–17 overtime victory in Philadelphia ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the 1940s ... the 1997 season marked the 50th anniversary of the 1947 Chicago Cardinals' championship season ... they edged the Eagles 28–21 at frozen Comiskey Park on December 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7–0 victory at Shibe Park in Philadelphia on December 16 to earn the 1948 crown.

October 24, 1993 • Candlestick Park • San Francisco 28, Cardinals 14

The Cardinals trailed 28–0 before denting the scoreboard with a 65-yard Steve Beuerlein-to-Anthony Edwards touchdown pass in the fourth quarter of a 28–14 loss. Three 49er interceptions of Beuerlein passes proved critical. Six plays after San Francisco took a 7–0 lead on a 91-yard drive, an interception gave the 49ers the ball at midfield. The first of two Jerry Rice touchdown receptions followed five plays later. Just before halftime, the Cards drove the ball to the 49ers' 10-yard line, but a Beuerlein pass was pilfered at the goal line. On the first Cardinal possession of the second half, the Cards drove to the San Francisco 33-yard line before a tipped Beuerlein pass was smothered by ex-Cardinal safety Tim McDonald. A scoreless third quarter left the Cardinals within shouting distance at 14–0, but Rice's second scoring grab padded the lead to 21–0 early in the fourth quarter. Ricky Watters added the final touchdown on a 19-yard run. Ricky Proehl ended the day's scoring with a touchdown reception in the fifth consecutive game to equal the Cardinal record.

Series Notes

The 49ers hold a 10–9 advantage in the series that lists only 19 meetings since 1951 ... after the Cards evened the series at nine wins apiece with a 24–14 victory at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992, San Francisco regained the lead with a 28–14 win at Candlestick Park in 1993 ... in the past four meetings, the home team has been victorious ... San Francisco has come away with triumphs of 14–10 in 1991 and 28–14 in 1993, while the Cards won Sun Devil Stadium encounters by scores of 24–23 in 1988 and 24–14 in 1992 ... the Cards' one-point win over the 49ers in 1988 was characterized by a come-from-behind effort after facing a 23–0 deficit in the second half ... the Cardinals are 4–4 at home against the 49ers and 2–0 in Arizona.

Interception returns for touchdowns by Seattle's starting cornerbacks—Willie Williams (28 yards) and Shawn Springs (56 yards)—and a 72-yard pass interference-aided touchdown drive propelled the Seahawks to a 33–14 victory. Cardinal statistical advantages in total yards (274–244), first downs (17–16), passing yards (163–121), and third-down efficiency (33–27 percent) belied the final score. The verdict was never in doubt when Seattle raced to a 20–0 halftime lead on a first-possession field goal by former Cardinal Todd Peterson. Williams' pickoff and return on the Cards' next possession, the 72-yard drive that included a 41-yard pass interference flag at the Cards' four-yard line on Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams that led to the first of two Seahawk offensive touchdowns two plays later, and another Peterson field goal on the first half's final play. Seattle's defense successfully pressured Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer throughout the game, forcing three interceptions and seven sacks. Running back Adrian Murrell tallied his first Cardinal touchdown, and the first of the season against the Seahawks,at 9:37 of the third quarter, a four-yard end run to cap a nine-play, 62-yard drive. The Cards also dented the scoreboard when tight end Chris Gedney grabbed Plummer's first touchdown pass of the season, a 23-yarder, with 4:07 to play. Fullback Larry Centers caught seven passes, his highest total in his past 13 games. Defensive tackle Eric Swann, cornerback Tom Knight, and outside linebacker Jamir Miller each posted a sack.

Series Notes

The Cardinals have been defeated just once in six outings against Seattle, a 33-14 loss to the Seahawks in the Kingdome last year ... Card victories have come by scores of 30–24 in 1976, 33–28 in 1983, 34–24 in 1989, and overtime triumphs of 30–27 in 1993 and 20–14 in 1995 ... in preseason play, the Seahawks hold an 8–3 advantage, most recently a 31–24 win last August in Sun Devil Stadium.

The Cards' sixth consecutive loss was the product of seven Arizona turnovers (four interceptions, three fumbles), their highest total in 88 games (Dec. 22, 1991 vs. New Orleans), that led to five Tennessee touchdown. The Oilers overwhelmed the Cardinals in rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's first NFL start. The Oilers tallied the game's first 27 points, but led only 13–0 late in the first half after two field goals by former Cardinal Al Del Greco and cornerback Denard Walker's 39-yard interception return for a touchdown. Oiler quarterback Steve McNair capitalized on two Card turnovers to seize the game's momentum. On Tennessee's sixth play following a fumble by Cardinal wide receiver Frank Sanders with 52 seconds remaining in the first half, McNair sprinted 35 yards for a touchdown. On Arizona's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Plummer was intercepted by Oiler safety Marcus Robertson, whose 39-yard interception return took the ball to the Cards' three-yard line. McNair covered the final two yards two plays later to pad Tennessee's lead to 27–0. The Oilers gained over one-half of their 283 total yards on four offensive plays—McNair's 35-yard touchdown run, his 55- and 20-yard touchdown passes to wide receiver Chris Sanders, and H-back Frank Wycheck's 34-yard reception from McNair. Plummer completed 21 of 40 passes for 195 yards, 2 touchdowns, and 4 interceptions. He also rushed for 34 yards on six carries. He was sacked six times. Wide receiver Rob Moore tallied both Arizona touchdowns with receptions (12, 2 yards) to equal his then career single-game best. F. Sanders' 10 receptions were his career single-game high.

Series Notes
The Cardinals and Oilers have played just seven times since the AFL-NFL merger in 1970 ... the Cards won the first contest between the clubs, a 44–0 shutout in St. Louis in 1970, followed by two victories at the Astrodome—31–27 in 1974 and 24–17 in 1979 ... Houston won the next two games—20–10 at Busch Stadium in 1985 and 38–20 at the Astrodome in 1988 ... Arizona won 30–12 in the Astrodome in 1994, while the relocated Tennessee Oilers won the most recent encounter, 41–14 in Sun Devil Stadium in 1997.

Last Meeting
Nov. 22, 1998 • Jack Kent Cooke Stadium • Cardinals 45, Washington 42
Turnabout was fair play in the Cardinals' best scoring effort in 21 years. One week after coming within five yards of surmounting a 28–0 deficit against the Dallas Cowboys, Arizona watched a seemingly insurmountable 31–0 second-quarter lead dissolve to 38–35 and 45–42 in the fourth quarter in the face of a withering Washington comeback that featured touchdowns on six consecutive Redskin possessions, including the first five drives of the second half. Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer accounted for five of Arizona's six touchdowns, rushing for three (1, 10, 1 yards) and throwing for two (6, 9 yards), in the Cards' 45-point effort, their best scoring barrage in 332 games (49–31 vs. New Orleans, Oct. 23, 1977). The contest also marked the first time in team history it has allowed 40 or more points and won. Arizona, which had tallied just 10 first-quarter points through the season's first 10 games, logged 17 in the opening period for a 17–0 lead. When Washington scored a seemingly insignificant touchdown on its final first-half possession, the first of three Michael Westbrook touchdown receptions, the Cards' halftime advantage was 31–6. The madcap second half featured fast-break football. Washington's comeback was fueled by a successful onsides kickoff following its second touchdown of the second half, and safety Leomont Evans' 54-yard return of Plummer's only interception following the third touchdown to set the table for the fourth. The Cardinals weathered the storm by answering two of the Redskins' second-half touchdowns with six-pointers—Plummer's nine-yard third-quarter touchdown pass to fullback Larry Centers, and the second-year signal-caller's third rushing touchdown, a one-yard sneak midway through the fourth quarter, to pad the Arizona lead to 45–35.

Series Notes
The Cardinals have won nine of the past 12 meetings, including sweeps in 1993–94, '96, and '98 ... Washington still has won 31 of the past 46 games dating to 1937 ... prior to the '93 sweep, the last time the Cardinals defeated the Redskins twice in the same season was 1974 ... the Cards' victory in the first 1993 meeting, a 17–10 triumph, was their first success at RFK Stadium since 1978 following 14 consecutive losses ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988, a 30–21 win September 25, was their first home-field success in Arizona and snapped a seven-game Redskins series winning streak ... Washington then won eight of the next nine encounters ... the Cardinals provided the opposition in the debut game of Jack Kent Cooke Stadium on Sept. 14, 1997, a 18–13 Redskin overtime victory.

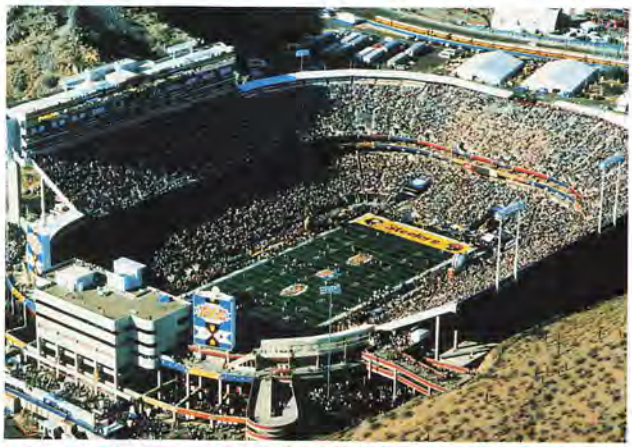
Sun Devil Stadium

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "Between The Buttes."

Super Bowl XXX was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a unique setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 1999 will be 73,014. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made since the Cardinals arrived in 1988.



Sun Devil Stadium and Frank Kush Field have been home to the Arizona Cardinals since 1988.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected seven years ago by Arizona State's six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

The playing field was named Frank Kush Field in 1996 to honor the legendary former Arizona State University head coach who also served as head coach of the NFL Indianapolis Colts from 1982–84.

Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's 1988 arrival in Arizona.

Training Facility

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second floor comprises the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions.●

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has won numerous architectural and landscape awards since it became the team's home in 1990.

Training Camp

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations, and the excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) for the team's preseason training camp.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. (On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.)

Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the United States. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as a unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 14,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

The Cardinals situate at the south end of the N.A.U. campus, utilizing the school's dormitories, dining halls, and classroom buildings for their daily regimen.●

Cardinal Broadcasting

Tom Dillon, Arizona's 17-time sportscaster-of-the-year in Arizona and a 24-year sports anchor and personality on radio or television in the Phoenix area and Texas, offers play-by-play on all Cardinal radio and preseason television broadcasts. "The Voice" of Arizona State University football, basketball, or baseball on radio or television since 1980, Dillon also plies his trade as a Valley spring training public address announcer, as a popular emcee on the banquet circuit, and talking to the control tower while piloting his airplane.

John Mistler, who spent most of his career as a wide receiver playing for two of the game's highest-profile head coaches—Frank Kush at Arizona State University and Bill Parcells with the New York Giants—has served as the Cardinals' color analyst since the team arrived in Arizona in 1988. The Tucson, Arizona product completed his playing career with the Arizona Outlaws of the U.S. Football League. He also is a vice president of business development for Wells Fargo Bank.
